LESSONS FOR THE TIMES.

"Righteousness Exalteth a Nation"

A Powerful Sermon by Rev. H. P. Cowperthwaite, M.A.

(From the St. John's, Nfld., Telegram.) Gower Street Methodist Church is at present favored with the ministrations of one of the best clergymen that has ever occupied its pulpit.

Many ministers try or dare. Last Sunday he chose the latter course, and addressed his remarks from Proverbs xiv, v. 34: "Righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people."

God is the judge of nations, as well as individuals. France had been scourged for her impiety and atheism. Russia is now suffering for Polish and Siberian atrocities.

THE LICENSING OF THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC.

To license it was a national wrong and sin. After depicting its evils in most scathing words, he remarked that the government—that is the people—for governments only exist by the will of the people—they were responsible.

Unless there was a reformation in this business, it would bring down the judgment of Heaven on all concerned. It was a shame that men were almost forced over the steamer's side on the Lord's Day to slaughter seals, and crying shame that men whose consciences will not allow them to do it, are told when they apply for a birth, that their services are not required.

AWFUL POVERTY IN THE COLONY which made men so ready to stoop to beg and receive government relief. It was sad to see the loss of independence. God meant man to stand upright.

God is the judge of nations, as well as individuals. France had been scourged for her impiety and atheism. Russia is now suffering for Polish and Siberian atrocities.

Pointer for Advertisers.

No one who will take the trouble to look into the matter can doubt that there are many articles now regularly on the market which might be advertised with good profit in a general way.

Well-written advertisements are more than fifty cent news. Assertions can be made and sustained that there are cases on record where there has been more real brain matter expended on the making up of an advertisement than in the construction of many pages which rest under the dignified name, literature.

Never fix the price of anything so low that you can't afford to advertise it. Circulars hit only once, if at all, and are then consigned to the waste-basket. Don't advertise spasmodically—keep at it.

WE have in stock a full line of all the best Cough Medicines now in the market, including such well-known and tried Remedies as—Fellows' S'rup, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, Allen's Lung Balsam, Syrup of Red Spruce Gum, Sharp's Balsam, etc., etc. Also, Wine of Beech Tree, Creosote and Elixer of Terrene, which are highly recommended; Cod Liver Oil, Emulsified in different makes, and Pure Norwegian Cod Liver Oil, on draft and in bottles.

BE A MAN! All men can't be Apollonian in strength and form, but all can have robust health, strong nerves and clear intellect.
