LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

PREMIER black and white sale now on.

TUESDAY EVENING, FEB. 6TH.—St. James' Hall.

EVANGELIST MCKAY has been invited to remain another week.

AT THE CAPES.—Crossing both ways today. The mail arrived in the city at 1.45.

I. O. O. F.—Regular meeting of Wildey Lodge to-night. Degree work.

THE STANLEY, which left Georgetown yesterday morning, had not reached Pictou up to eleven o'clock this forenoon.

THE entertainment in St. James' Hall, postponed last evening on account of the storm, will be given next Tuesday evening.

FUNERAL.—The funeral of the late Mr. George Doull will leave his late residence, Kent Street, at 3.30 p. m., to-morrow (Sunday) to the People's cemetery.

MEETING FOR MEN.—Evangelist McKay will address the meeting for men in the Athenæum Sunday afternoon at 3.30. Every man in Charlottetown is cordially invited.

THE GOOD OLD STOCK.—There is an old gentleman in town to-day who is now wearing a suit of clothes which he brought with him from Germany, 47 years ago.—Lunenburg Argus.

TROUT FISHING.—Between the order in council forbidding trout fishing through the ice, and the impassibility of the woods owing to the deep snowfall, Island sportsmen are passing a very dull winter.

IRISH POETRY AND MUSIC.—The young People's Association of Zion Church will have an evening with the Irish poets on Monday the 5th inst. Irish music in the intervals. All are welcome. Silver collection.

BREEN IS CHAMPION. In the championship skating races at Quebec on Tuesday evening last, Hudson Breen of St. John, N. B. won the 220 yards championship of Canada. Time, 24 seconds. McCulloch of Winnipeg was second.

GOSPEL MEETING.—Remember the Gospel meeting Sunday afternoon at half-past three in the Athenæum, conducted by the railway men. This meeting will be for men only and will be addressed by Conductor McKay. Come early.

Y. M. C. A.—The talk on "Force" by Mr. Bullman in the Y. M. C. A. last evening was most interesting and instructive, and was attentively listened to. Dr. Leeming also gave a short address bearing upon the subject matter of Mr. Bullman's discourse

GOOD PAY.—Jim Corbett will get about $25,000 for his day's work at Jacksonville, and his "day" was only about eight minutes long. Three thousand dollars a minute is pretty good pay, but even a prize-fighter can't get it regularly.

HERRING HAVE STRUCK IN.—The first school of herring of the season struck in at Grand Manan last week. The fishermen made big catches on Friday, Saturday and Monday. The herring were good sized ones, and will command a big price.—St. John Globe.

WICKED HALIFAX. A sensation is promised in this city soon. It is alleged that a gentleman holding a very important position has two wives alive—one here and the other in New York. It is claimed that he corresponds with the latter.—Halifax Mail.

AFTER INFORMATION.—Mr. W. W. Clarke has received a communication regarding wharf accommodation, rates, etc., for the new steamer which it is the intention of the Canada Atlantic and Plant Steamship Line to place upon the route between Charlottetown and Boston the coming summer.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The New Perth Hall Company will give a musical and dramatic entertainment in the Schoolroom at New Perth on the evening of Tuesday, Feb. 20, entertainment to commence at 7.30. Admission—adults, 20c; children, 15c. Should the evening prove unfavorable, the entertainment will take place on the first fine one following.

MOCK PARLIAMENT.—The House stands adjourned till Tuesday week, 13th February. Premier Higgs is off for the Southern States to recruit his health, somewhat shaken by the responsibilities of office. It is not yet known who will fill the leader's chair in his absence, although we have heard several names mentioned in that connection. The question to come up for debate will be announced early next week.

POLICE COURT.—This forenoon a young man named Daniel Ferguson was arraigned on a charge of assaulting John Stewart on the 1st December last. Stewart charges that Ferguson and he met in a tavern, and after he refused to drink with Ferguson, the latter struck him a blow on the face. Ferguson denies the charge. The case stands adjourned until Tuesday next. A countryman was fined $2 or 8 days for drunkenness.

EVANGELISTIC.—Another crowded meeting assembled last evening to hear Conductor McKay. The lesson was: The Man who had not on the Wedding Garment. A large number remained to the after meeting. This afternoon a children's Service will be held at 3 o'clock. No meeting to-night. Sunday afternoon at 3.30 a meeting for men only will be held in the Athenæum. A Mass Meeting will be held in the Brick Church Sunday night at the close of the usual Church services.

APPOINTED INSPECTOR.—Mr. James L. McMillan, V. S., yesterday received notice of his appointment as Veterinary Inspector for the Province, in the place of Mr. Charles J. Haszard, deceased. Dr. McMillan's duty will be to see that the regulations respecting the quarantining of animals imported into the Province are enforced, and he will also have to see that animals exported are properly shipped, having due regard to air, space, feed and sanitary conditions. Dr. McMillan may be depended upon to give the fullest satisfaction in the discharge of his duties.

It's Coaxing Summer

to make a display of Gauze Vests in February—but what could we do but show them to you! They were too good a bargain to keep for the busy days of May and June. Besides, we have made arrangements for plenty more bargains for those interesting months.

Well, here they are! Just about a thousand of them. All sizes, from the little Vest to suit a child of five years to the large X. O. S. size. Your choice, six cents each, and still there's more to follow of sensation and excitement during our Premier Sale.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

THE GUARDIAN CORRECTED.

SIR,—Allow me space in your paper to correct the Guardian in saying the man McDonald was intoxicated the night he got in Acorn's mill pond. It is an error, for Mr. McDonald is a steady sober man. But for the kind assistance of Mr. Burke and his two sons he would have been drowned. It was ten minutes to six when the man left town and the night was very dark.

DANIEL MCDONALD.

NEWS NOTES.

The amount of inland revenue accrued during December was $761,629, a decrease of 67,054 from the same month last year.

The gift of wine that accompanied the Emperor's first autograph letter to Prince Bismarck was a case of Steinberger cabinet of the vintage of 1842.

The British Columbia Legislature has passed a resolution asking the Dominion Government to raise the Chinese poll tax from $50 to $100.

The Nova Scotia Legislative Council is following in the footsteps of its illustrious prototype, the House of Lords. Mr. Gladstone appointed a number of peers who voted against his Home Rule bill. Mr. Fielding appointed a number of Legislative Councillors who vote against his measure to abolish the local upper chamber.

The Tory peers, at the suggestion of Lord Salisbury, have decided to modify (a radical would say mangle) the parish councils bill, and to stick to their amendments to the employers' liability bill. That means a conflict with the Commons, and Mr. Gladstone going to the country with the cry, "Down with the Lords." But first the premier will give the peers the opportunity of adding to the sum of their crimes by rejecting or mutilating the registration bill, one-man-one-vote being a principle necessary to Liberal success at the next election. Then will come the battle royal, and if Mr. Gladstone only lives long enough it is possible that he will out-manœuvre the Lords after all.

The Chicago Tribune has issued its annual review of the murder record in the United States in 1893. There is a slight decrease of seventy-seven in the number of homicides compared with 1892, but the total, 6,635, is alarming. The classification of causes is given as follows:

Quarrels	3,165
Unknown	1,080
Liquor	713
Jealousy	456
By highwaymen	350
Infanticide	256
Resisting arrest	224
Highwaymen killed	175
Insanity	102
Self-defence	61
Outrages	26
Riot	22
Strikes	5

There followed these murders just 126 legal executions. The agitation for the abolition of capital punishment that is heard every now and again over the border, hardly seems to have sufficient justification. The hangman does not get a chance to show what he can do in suppressing assassination.

HOCKEY.—The hockey match at the Rink next Wednesday night promises to be a very hotly contested game. The two teams have been practising for the past two weeks, and each is sure of winning. The players and their positions will be as follows:

CHARLOTTETONIANS.

Goal—W Davies.
Point—H Large.
Cover Point—Geo J Rogers (Capt.)
Forwards—S C Moore, L G Whear, J F Whear, J S Raymond.

VICTORIAS.

Goal—L McMillan.
Point D McIsaac.
Cover Point—W McKie.
Forwards—A Miller, (Capt) W Brehaut, B Wright, C McLean.

Referee—F W L Moore. Charlottetonians, white jerseys and dark pants; Victorias, dark jerseys and light pants.

Asthma Cured.
