DIOCESAN CHURCH SOCIETY.

ANNUAL MEETING.

THE Annual Meeting of the Diocesan Church Society, held last evening in St. Paul's Schoolroom, was well attended. Mr. Justice Hensley presided; and, after praise and prayers, opened the meeting with a few appropriate remarks.

The Secretary then read the report of the Committee. The Committee notice the appointment of Rev. Bruce MacKay to the previously vacant mission at Cherry Valley; and express their regret that Georgetown is still without the services of a clergyman. They also report that the subscriptions in aid of the Society do not increase with the growth of the Province in population and prosperity.

ST. PAUL'S—CHARLOTTETOWN.

reports a steady increase in the congregation, and states the immediate necessity and intention of erecting a new church: makes mention of the Bishop's visit. 20 persons were confirmed, 12 marriages, 45 baptisms, 15 burials, 1,100 pastoral visits—amount of offertories not given.

ST. PETER'S—CHARLOTTETOWN.

reports continuance of various services; a confirmation and ordinations during the Bishop's visit; regrets the loss of Rev. John Ellis, and announces that his place has been filled by Mr. Harris, Divinity Student; acknowledges the valuable assistance, throughout the summer, of Rev. Mr. Daniel, Montreal; Spike of New Brunswick, and Hylton Stewart, Precentor of Chester Cathedral. Baptisms, 8; burials, 2; offertories and gifts, $4,235.

MILTON AND RUSTICO.

The Archdeacon reports from Milton and Rustico encouraging prospects, and especially commends the young men of his Parish. Offertories, $461; marriages, 15; baptisms, 39; deaths, 20.

ST. ELEANORS AND SUMMERSIDE.

Rev. T. Ritchie reports that Summerside Church has been so far enlarged and improved that it is in fact a new church. It was re-opened last Sunday, with the assistance of Revs. Messrs. Osborne and Newnam. The seats are free, and $1,400 has been spent in the work. Mr. Ritchie mentions the Bishop's visit and the confirmation held in Summerside, as also the loss of Thos. Hunt, Esq.—the oldest member of his congregation, and a devoted member of the church. Baptisms, 27; marriages, 7; burials, 12.

FORT HILLION.

Mr. Dobie notes a growing love for the Church and its services; regrets hard times, and suggests Missionary Meetings to advance the cause of the Church. Baptisms, 23; Marriages, 1; deaths, 4.

GRAPAUD.

Rev. Mr. Johnstone is enthusiastic at the signs of progress in his mission, which is widely extending. He acknowledges the receipt of useful gifts, and the zeal of the Warrens; reports the Church at S. Ringfield thoroughly repaired. Services, 190; baptisms, 14; marriages, 4; offertories, $1146.

ALBERTON.

The Rev. Father Dyer reports in good health and spirits. After 38 years service he feels almost as strong and hale as he was 20 years ago—being able to speak seven hours a day with ease. He reports improvement in the music of the Church at Alberton; encouraging increase in the members attending upon his ministrations; and is doing good work in Sunday Schools. Marriages, 9; baptisms, 32; burials, 4; offertories, 216; pastoral visits 43

NEW LONDON.

Rev. Mr. Newnam reports weekly celebration of Holy Communion; the erection and consecration of a new church at New London, costing $1,200, and many pleasing signs of good being done. Baptisms, 24; Marriages, 2; burials, 7; pastoral visits, 400.

Rev. David Fitzgerald moved the following resolution:—

He spoke of the determination of the Congregation to build a new church, arising not from the ashes, but from the foundation of old St. Paul's.

R. F. DeBlois, Esq., seconded the resolution; and warmly commended the ladies of St. Paul's for their activity in furthering the project of the erection of a new church. Eustace Haviland, Esq., in supporting the Resolution, said he was glad to note the flourishing condition of the Church; and advocated co-operation on the part of all members of the Church in forwarding her interests.

Rev. Mr. Osborne supported his Rector in advocating the erection of a new church, and spoke of intimations of support he had lately received. The motion passed.

Rev. Theoph. Ritchie proposed the following resolution:—

That the thanks of this Society are due to Almighty God for the blessings of the past year, and that this Society gratefully recognizes the continued help afforded by the Home Societies to the Church in this Province.

Rev. Mr. NEWNAM seconded the Resolution and in doing so recounted his personal experience of the difficulty of travelling in his Parish—We may remark that Mr. Newnam resides in New London, which is represented by the Commissioner of Public Works—in travelling the axel of his carriage dragged upon the ground in some places; and the roads were full of big holes.

Rev. Geo. W. Hodgson moved the following resolution:—

That the proposed new bye laws concerning the conditions of grants made by this Society in aid of the stipend of any clergyman be adopted.

Mr. HODGSON explained the object of the change in the bye laws, which, if adopted, would relieve clergymen from the unpleasant necessity of collecting their own salaries and render their incomes more certain and regular.

The resolution was ably supported by F. W. Hales, Esq., and A. B. Warburton, Esq.

Rev. Mr. Osborne moved the fourth resolution:—

That the Society recommends that Missionary Meetings, to advocate the claims of this Society, be held in the different parishes of this Archdeaconry.

He gave several valuable suggestions regarding the course to be adopted in holding the meetings contemplated; and criticised the laymen of the Church for their apathy.

Rev. Mr. Dyer seconded the resolution in a short, humorous, and withal, telling speech.

W. C. DesBrisay, Esq., followed, in support of the resolution—with an excellent speech, in which he compared the contributions of Churchmen with those of members of other denominations. The antithesis was striking, and the contrast he drew not very flattering to members of the Church.

HON. SENATOR HAVILAND moved the following resolution:—

That the thanks of the Society be given to the Collectors, and that the following be the officers and Committee of the ensuing year: (Names will appear to-morrow.)

He forcibly advocated more frequent meetings of the Church people. He said their was common ground on which persons of both schools of thought in the Church could stand shoulder to shoulder and work for the common good. He spoke of the advantage of Synods; and expressed the pleasure and honor he felt it to be to sit in the Provincial Synod at Montreal—in the midst of delegates from all parts of the Dominion—from the shores of the Atlantic to the great prairies of the North-West Fredk. Peters, Esq., followed with a neat speech, in which he pointedly urged individual members to support the Committee in advancing the good of the Society and the Church.

R. R. FITZGERALD, Esq., supported the resolution, and sharply criticized the apathy of those who neglected to contribute towards the support of their clergymen. He said the Church, to prosper, should be independent of the Home Societies.

VEN. ARCHDEACON READ made a few explanatory remarks, and then closed the meeting with the Benediction.

THE Boston steamer arrived this morning at 1 o'clock.

In an eloquent speech he recapitulated the many blessings for which the people of this Island should be thankful.

SENIORS.—This (says the Halifax Chronicle) is the way a P. E. Island country paper, treats young men who believe and acts upon the Scriptural injunction, "that it is not good for man to be alone":—"The matrimonial fever has again appeared in our midst. A young gentleman caught it while justifying in the county. He was very ill with it for a short time, but recovered under the usual treatment."
