Montreal Stocks

MONTREAL (CP) — The Montreal and Canadian stock exchanges closed irregularly lower Monday in a slow and almost featureless session of industrial trade.

Base metals were weak as Hudson Bay dropped 2 1/2, International Nickel 1 1/2, and Noranda 1 1/2.

Refining oils showed little change. Interprovincial Pipe Lines lost a point. Banks were mixed.

Mines were lower in moderately active dealing. Chiboucheau dropped 45 cents while Bouzan and Merrill Island slipped under 20.

The stock exchange's closing averages show banks unchanged at 53.14, utilities off 0.7 at 139.5, industrials off 0.6 at 294.1, papers off 0.09 at 1469.61 and golds off 0.49 at 77.18.

N. Y. STOCKS

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market put on its slowest performance in more than a week Monday with prices mixed.

After assessing the dramatic political events in Poland, the market apparently decided to take them in stride.

Aside from a few specialties, the coppers were the only stocks to show much group action, falling again as custom smelters cut their price on the red metal for the second time in a week.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was off 16 cents to $17.67.

New York Central, continuing its rise of last week, was the day's most active stock, up 1/4 at 40 1/2 on 18,900 shares.
