

Canadian Is Appointed To Gold Coast YWCA

TORONTO (CP) — Estelle Amaron of Montreal and Toronto, in YWCA world service work for 30 years, has been appointed general secretary of the Gold Coast YWCA in British West Africa.

The Canadian YWCA said Miss Amaron, general secretary for the last five years of the Sierra Leone "Y" in Freetown, takes over her new post next January.

A physical education graduate of McGill University, she went to Rangoon, Burma, in 1926 as girls' work secretary, later becoming general secretary. After 10 years in Burma, she went to Colombo, Ceylon, as general area secretary.

During the Second World War she was with the British YWCA war-service staff in England, Italy, Egypt and southeast Asia. She returned to Burma in 1946 for post-war work, leaving for Sierra Leone after training Burmese to administer their own "Y" affairs.

In Sierra Leone she also trained a native staff and has made the "Y" there almost self-supporting, the Canadian YWCA said.

Leaving Sierra Leone in June, Miss Amaron will report in the world YWCA executive in Geneva and return to Canada on furlough before taking up her new post.

LET'S EAT

Three Delicious Ways To Enjoy Strawberries

By Ida Bailey Allen

Strawberry Toastcake: This is a form of strawberry shortcake, delightful for brunch or dessert.

Wash, hull and slice 1 pt. fresh strawberries. Add 1/2 c. sugar; let stand in a warm place 20 min., but do not cook.

Make the toastcake at the table. Just put 2 buttered slices of toast together, sandwich fashion, with the prepared strawberries between. Top with berries and pass the cream pitcher.

"I am sure everyone will like my strawberry tarts," said the Chef. "For the tart shells I use my sweet French pastry often given in this column."

"Before serving, I fill the shells to 1-3 their depth with cooked cream filling freshened with a little lemon or orange juice. Then I top this with halved whole strawberries first rolled in granulated sugar."

Monday Dinner: Vegetable soup; celeried oysters on toast; potatoes O'Brien; green peas; cabbage-radish-slaw; strawberry tarts; coffee, tea or milk.

All measurements are level recipes proportioned to serve 4 to 6.

Celeried Oyster on Toast: Put 2 doz. shelled large oysters and liquid into a 9" frypan. Cook 5 min. over a low heat or until the edges begin to curl.

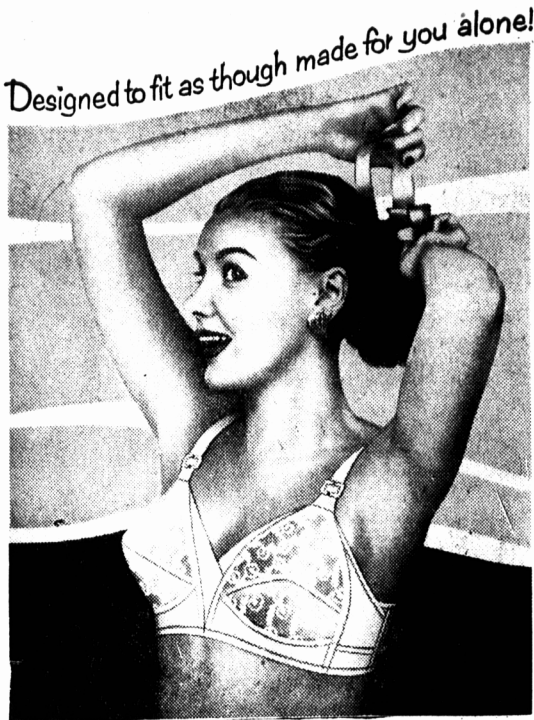

Season with 1 tsp salt and tsp. paprika. Add 2 tbsp. butter; heat until it melts.

Pour them over hot buttered toast. Stew with minced raw celery. Garnish of lemon wedges.

We also use the O'Brien garnish for diced plain-cooked carrots, parsnips, oyster plant, celeriac, rutabagas or green lima beans.
