of the minutes of the last meeting and roll call, further plans were discussed for holding the annual church supper in November. The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction.

KILMUIR CHURCH ANNIVERSARY—The 78th anniversary of the Kilmuir Church was observed on a recent Sunday evening, with Rev. A. C. Fraser presiding. The church was filled to capacity and the choir of Caledonia Presbyterian Church joined with the Valleyfield United Church choir, and members from Orwell Head choir in leading the service of praise. Four congregational hymns were sung, also a duet was sung by Mrs. W. A. Bruce and Mrs. Lloyd Fraser. Another duet by Mrs. H. Martin and Mrs. Rice, a trio by J. Bears, S. Bears, and E. Bears. A Junior quartet by D. Munro, S. Bears, John and Dan MacPherson. Scripture reading, prayer and remarks between the musical numbers were given by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Fraser, who also delivered an excellent and appropriate address. Beautiful flowers brought by dear friends were much appreciated. The organists were Mrs. A. Cameron, Mrs. W. A. Bruce and Mrs. John MacKinnon.

$50,000 BULLION RAID

NEW YORK, (AP)—A shipment of gold bullion valued at $50,000 was stolen Thursday from an Idlewild airport cargo warehouse. The gold was consigned to the American Smelting and Refining Co., Perth Amboy, N. J., by the New York and El Salvador Mining Co. The shipment contained 15 bars.

Port of Souris Busy Spot

The port of Souris was a busy place yesterday with 11 draggers tied up and a freighter taking on a cargo of pulp wood for Quebec. Ten of the draggers came into port for repairs—mostly to nets—following heavy wind on Wednesday. One was in unloading a cargo of fish. She was the Harry G. of Souris. Most expect to sail today. Other draggers included three from Nova Scotia and one from Gloucester, Mass. From Souris were the Virginia Ann, Marjorie and Mary Bell, Irene P., Paula Marie and the Alberton, which it is understood is being taken over by Souris interests; from Nova Scotia the Charlotte I, The George and Pauline, Gloucester 14; from Murray Harbor, the Laurie May.

It was reported that dog fish were causing draggers considerable trouble recently, and were damaging nets.

Miss Mabel MacDonald was here from the city on Sunday for her last week-end for some time as her old home will be closed this week when her parents move to the city to reside.

Mr. Shee, who came here a short time ago to replace Grover Coffin on the C.N.R. section and who was seeking a home here has been laid off with the reduction in section men from four to three.

Potato pickers are as hard to find as rooster's teeth and some farmers with large fields are frantic for pickers but there is just none to get. All those wanting to pick are in use and not near enough.

Mr. Frank Teed, the bird dog man from the U.S.A., who spent the entire shooting season here last fall is back again with his dogs. He is making his headquarters near the city fall but is around this vicinity with the dogs.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Jay and children were here from Halifax, N.S., for the long week-end and their old home and parents reside here.

Mr. John R. O'Brien who was here from Halifax for a few days last week on business, left Friday for his duties in that city.

Mrs. M. Steele, R.N. of the Montague hospital staff, spent the week-end with her daughters here at the old home.

The A. A. MacDonald, property in the village that has been rented under the V.L.A. for some years has been vacated and closed. Pte. A. MacDonald, the owner, is expected home from Europe this fall.

Vice-President of Rebekah Assembly Visits Montague

Mrs. Cora Fillmore, Woodstock, N. B., vice president of the Rebekah Assembly of the Maritime Provinces of Canada, was guest of honor at the regular meeting of Acme Rebekah Lodge, Montague, Thursday evening. She was received and introduced by Mrs. Frances Shaw, P. N. G., and cordially welcomed by the acting Noble Grand, Mrs. Hilda Hilchey, P. N. G.

Mrs. Fillmore was accompanied by Mrs. Agnes Coffin, past president. Mrs. Jean Crockett, junior past president, Mrs. Doris Llewellyn, deputy president of Acme Rebekah Lodge, and Mrs. Agnes Dickson, deputy president of Alpha Rebekah Lodge. They were received and introduced by past Noble Grand, Mrs. Marjorie Johnston. Mrs. Nellie Fraser, Mrs. Winifred Vickerson and Mrs. Ruth MacLeod. Following the regular business of the Lodge, Mrs. Fillmore gave a very interesting and instructive address on the work of the order.

Mrs. Crockett, Mrs. Coffin, Mrs. Llewellyn, Mrs. Dickson and Miss Helen Finlayson also spoke briefly. The Noble Grand then declared a recess, permitting little Florence MacDonald, daughter of Mrs. Marion MacDonald, P. N. G., to enter the lodge room and, in original verse, sing a song of welcome and appreciation to Mrs. Fillmore while on behalf of the members, a gift was presented by Miss Adah MacGregor, P. N. G.

The honored guest graciously expressed her appreciation. Mrs. Winifred Vickerson qualified in the unwritten work of the order, and was presented with a certificate of perfection by Mrs. Fillmore.

At the close of the meeting everyone enjoyed an hour of fellowship during which a delicious lunch was served. Several vocal selections were sung by Miss MacDonald, accompanied at the piano by her mother.

Despite the lateness of the season there is one farmer here at least who has all his harvest out yet and some of it still not cut and another has a field of hay seed still in stock.

Some of the folks from the city were in this vicinity on the holiday picking potatoes with the farmers, giving a helping hand for the busy farmers and a few bags of spuds for themselves. Potatoes may not be much in the field but they are selling in the city stores for 30 cents a peck.

The opening day of the shooting was no big success here and very few birds were knocked down. However, some got their fill around their own marshes and fields as they knew where and when to go after them.

One of the new oil burning floor furnaces is being installed in the vestry of the re-modeled St. Laurence Church. Coal furnaces will heat the main building for the present at least.

The annual chicken supper for the church here was held at the large home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Walsh on Thanksgiving night and was a great success, with people coming from miles around to this well-known place.

The forty hours devotion at St. Andrews, came to a close on Tuesday evening and was well attended. The pastor was assisted by Rev. P. McKenna.

Master Emmett LaPierre, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus LaPierre, is getting around again after being laid up for several weeks with a broken leg suffered when he was struck by a bicycle near his own

Fire Destroys Dwelling At East Baltic

Fire at East Baltic late yesterday afternoon destroyed a large dwelling, owned by Mrs. Albert Garrett. It was occupied by her son, R. R. Garrett.

No one was at the house at the time of the outbreak, the family being in the fields digging potatoes. Origin of the fire was unknown.

Neighbors gathered quickly but only a few articles from the kitchen were saved. The house had been remodelled in recent years and was a well-kept farm home. It was not learned whether there was any insurance.

HAMBURG REBUILT

HAMBURG, (Reuters) — Hamburg, one of the most heavily battered cities in Germany during the war, is finally clear of ruins, city authorities said Thursday. They said ruin clearance would end officially next month. Nearly 440,000,000 has been spent on removing the wreckage.

SAVED EIGHT CHILDREN

TORONTO, (CP)—A 13-year-old girl carried infant twins and led six other children down a blazing stairway when fire broke out in a home in west Toronto Wednesday night. Patricia Cunningham of Toronto had the children safely outside when firemen arrived.

SECOND HOME-COMING

ACCRINGTON, England (AP)—Rifleman James Hibbert came home from an enemy prison camp Wednesday for the second time in eight years. Hibbert, 33, was captured by the Japanese when the British Army surrendered Singapore in 1942. He spent 3½ years as a PoW. Back in the uniform of the Royal Ulster Rifles for the fighting in Korea, he was captured by the Chinese in January, 1951.

WINDOW ESCAPE

CORNWALL, Ont., (CP)—Gordon Stark, 56, of St. Eustache, Que., escaped through the window of his transport truck Wednesday after the vehicle plunged off the road into 25 feet of water, five miles west of here. Operations to pull the truck from the water held traffic up for five hours.
