Drivers Injured In Car Accidents

Two car accidents late Saturday night caused considerable excitement and congrestion of traffic among those who were returning to their homes in the country, after attending the night races at the Exhibition Grounds.

Peter MacEachern of Victoria, was taken to the P. E. Island Hospital at 11.30 p.m. suffering from injuries received when a 1950 Chev. and the half ton truck he was driving, collided about half way between the city limits and St. Dunstan's University. More than 100 cars were soon crowding the scene but were rapidly dispersed when the R.C.M.P. arrived and took charge of the situation. The Chev, which was ditched, was quite badly damaged. Mr. MacEachern, who on examination was found to be suffering from shock and several minor bruises on the face, was reported resting comfortably last night.

William Corrigan, of Charlottetown, was taken to the Charlottetown Hospital for examination and treatment as a result of injuries received when a large delivery truck which he was driving was in collision with a 1951 Pontiac near Millview at about 10.30 p.m. His injuries were reported as apparently not severe, but X-rays will be taken today to verify the superficial examination. Mr. Corrigan was also reported as resting comfortably late last night. The R.C.M.P. were on hand to conduct the usual investigation.

42 Suspected Reds Being Held In Egypt

CAIRO, Egypt, Aug. 24 —(AP)— Forty-two persons are being held on charges of spreading Communist propaganda in Egypt, a police official said Saturday.

Sixteen were arrested last week and their cases are being investigated by a new "office of internal investigations," set up this month by Premier Aly Maher's reform government, to determine whether they should be brought to trial.

Officials declined to comment on the extent of Communist activity in the Nile kingdom, but one source said there had been no increase such as he said had been noted in other countries.

This source said red activity here has been generally limited to distribution of Communist pamphlets in which the word "democracy" is stressed. Distribution of foreign Communist newspapers and magazines, and translation of Communist literature.

Shipments Show Increase Due To Paving Material

The street work being done in this city is reflected in the monthly traffic report for the Canadian National Railways which shows an increase of 75 carloads of freight over the amount ferried between Tormentine and Borden in the month of July last year.

Figures released by the office of the Superintendent indicate that there were 1,462 carloads transported in July of this year compared to the 1,387 in the same month of 1951.

There would have been a decrease in imports excepting for the large quantity of paving aggregate, plus the asphalt, brought here last month to complete the work contracted for by the city to bring the streets up to the standard demanded by the citizens. A total of 54 carloads of asphalt were brought in along with 122 carloads of paving aggregate to swell the total of imported products.

Wood Exports Down

Exported products were away down last month as the volume of roughwood declined sharply. In July of 1951 there were 431 carloads shipped, while in the comparable month of this year there were only 61 cars. This contributed largely to the decrease in the number of carloads exported from 752 to the 335 shipped this year.

Among the main products brought in were (with the 1951 figures in brackets) coal, 137 (113); flour and feed 135 (168); gas and oils 207, (194), hardware 15, (5); lumber 70, (31);; miscellaneous 46, (150); sand, stone and gravel 97, (199); brick and cement 33, (43); building material 17, (0); asphalt 54, (0); paving aggregate 122, (0).

On the export side the biggest decrease came in the shipment of pit props and similiar roughwood products, but there were also noticeable decreases in livestock with 75 carloads being shipped last July compared to the 83 of a year ago.

Fewer Potatoes Shipped

It was also shown that the "bull" market on potatoes had its effect in that there were practically none to ship this July in the midst of the growing season. Last year in July growers were able to send out 65 carloads, but this year there were only 20 available for export.

Of the number of imported cars there were 1,238 destined to consignees at points between Charlottetown, Borden and Summerside; 141 to points east and south of Charlottetown; and 83 to destinations west of Summerside. The carloads exported from this Province came from the same three dictricts with 206 originating in the central section between Charlottetown, Summerside and Borden; 63 in the area east and south of the capital city, and the balance of 66 carloads starting at points west of Summerside.

He went overseas as Quartermaster Sgt. in the 11th Brigade Ammunition Column, under the command of Colonel D. A. MacKinnon. In this unit (later absorbed into the 11th Brigade Field Artillery, under the command of Ltd. Col. Andrew MacNaughton) he won the Military Medal, and served throughout the war. To quote his commanding officer, Col. MacKinnon: "he was a fine man, and a fine soldier—one of the finest I have known—I thought the world of him."

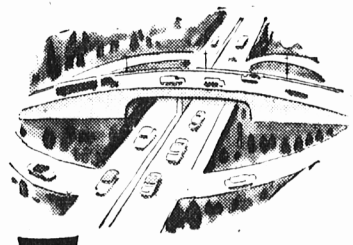
What do millions of people own that...

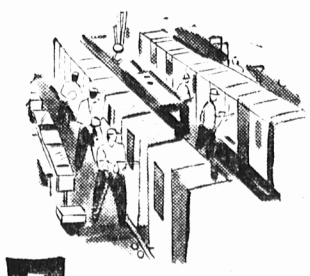


1 helps break traffic bottlenecks?

Life insurance — because a large part of the money that people put aside in life insurance is invested in ways that help provide new roads and bridges . . . as well as new homes, stores, waterworks, power plants and other aids to better living.

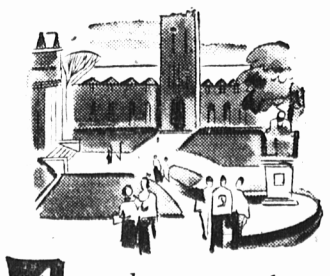
2 aids science's battle against disease?

Life insurance — through several important medical research projects which are supported wholly or in part by funds contributed by life insurance companies. As a result, chances of living longer, healthier lives are being increased for all Canadians.



3 helps keep Canada strong?

Again—life insurance! The money set aside by millions of policyholders plays an important part in financing Canada's industrial economy. And this, in turn, strengthens it and provides essential support for the nation's defence program.



4 sends boys and girls to college?

This is another important job that life insurance does — while also providing money for family emergencies. Some other important uses: retirement income, mortgage repayment, business insurance.
