Around The Armouries

That big hockey match and the even bigger Budget took all the space yesterday that any paper could give at once. As a result this column was neatly divided to provide two days reading instead of one.

Incidentally since the first half of it came out one of the boys wants to know why we demoted him to corporal. For once we were apparently assuming the powers of the C.O., but it was really just a slip of the typewriter. Anyway our apologies to Sergeant Darte.

One of the more familiar faces will be missing from the N.C.O.'s Mess this summer. It is that of Sgt. Joe Peters of the 28th L.A.A. Regiment, who is being called out for active duty with the RCAPC at Eastern Command, Halifax.

Another new item has been added to the Officers Mess at the Armouries here. It is a splendid new notice board on which will be listed the names of all officers of all units and brigades. It also serves as a convenient spot to post notices of coming events such as Mess meetings.

The Garrison Hockey League championship will be decided at the Forum some night this week in a sudden death game between the Souris Troop, 28th L.A.A. Regiment, and 5th Signals Regiment team. It should be a whale of a game.

An inspection team from R. C. E. M. C. will be over this week to inspect units of the local Garrison.

There are several varieties of cowboys known to everyone, and to be one has been the ambition of many a small boy. We have seen real Western cowboys, rodeo cowboys and a great many of the drugstore type. But the other day we saw a new one. At least it appeared that way. It looked like a cowboy in a jeep playing games with a sawhorse. But we could be wrong.

W. O. 2 Pat McGrath, who has been over for the past week in the Orderly Room of the 28th L.A.A., has returned to his duties in Stellarton, N. S. Pat has had his family with him this time and they were welcomed by all the N.C.O.'s.

Staff Sgt. Doug Moreside of the A. and T. Staff, 28th L.A.A., has finally returned to his old stamping grounds here. Doug has been out on the West Coast for the past several months taking a course at Esquimalt. Welcome home, Doug.

There have been two extensions of call outs announced this week. One of them is that of Lieut. P. R. MacDonald, A. and T. Staff 28th L.A.A., and the other is Sgt. E. W. Martin, 5th Signals Regiment. Both will remain on active duty until June 30.

At the same time word has been received that B.S.M. C. R. Prowse is to be called out during the summer for employment at the Royal Canadian School of Artillery A.A., at Picton, Ont.

Members of all units excepting the Field Ambulance will be represented at the technique of instruction course for A. and T. Staff members. The course will be conducted in Halifax from April 23 to 27.

Eastern Command, Halifax, has advised the acceptance of Officer Cadet J. C. McNeil in the Eastern Command Contingent C.O.T.C. He has been assigned to the 114th Battery. O./C. McNeil is a son of Lt. Col. R. D. McNeill, Regimental M. O. of the 28th L.A.A.

The farmers of this community took advantage of the market for pulp-wood this past winter and wood lots were places of great activity for the past three months and the work is still going on with approximately forty cars being shipped from Tignish. With the cost of living continually advancing and the price of potatoes resting on the bottom line, the farmers of our Island province were grateful for this pulp-wood market, but it is going to leave the woodlots in a deplorable cut-out condition.

Summerside Legion Has Novel Idea To Raise Home Fund

According to superstitious lore, Friday, the 13th, is always a day to be aware of. Well, The Summerside Branch of the Canadian Legion have chosen this coming Friday, April 13th and mixed in a few black cats and come up with a new and novel idea of raising money.

The funds will be used to furnish their new home in the former Olympia Building on Water Street. It will be a radio show, broadcast over the Summerside Station commencing at 8.30 and listeners will have an opportunity to phone in donations in return for entertainment and the chance to have some fun at the expense of their friends.

For a reasonable amount, a black cat will be delivered at the home of any person indicated and that person can be relieved of the animal by a similar donation. However, for a minimum fee of $1.00 it will be possible to purchase immunity in the form of a rabbit's foot and then a person will be safe from having a black cat delivered at his door. There will be twenty entertainers of various types on hand and persons may obtain entertainment at a price. Members of the Legion will also be expected to perform for a price or if they default they will be expected to pay a fine of the amount offered.

To add to the interest of the affair, Legion members will be available that night for baby sitting, washing diapers or delivering cokes and sandwiches. At intervals, the names of donors will be placed in a hat and the name drawn will be awarded a prize.

Any person wishing to donate an article of furniture or the price of one in memory of someone killed in the war may do so and a suitable plaque will be attached to the piece of furniture.

Mr. Charles Hogan is in charge of the program with Dr. H. E. Clark responsible for special names. Announcers will be Bob Schurman, Keith Mollison and Ross MacKenzie. Treasurer is Eldric Campbell. In charge of cars is Harold Harkness; black cats, Norman MacLeod and music, Roland Phillipson.

The Legion band will be heard playing selections from the Legion Home.

Mr. Joseph MacDonald, C.N.R. agent at Morell spent the past week-end with his family at Tignish. Upon his return he was accompanied by Mrs. MacDonald who remained in Morell until Wednesday.

The Catholic Women's League, Tignish sub-division, held a successful pantry sale on last Saturday afternoon in Morris and Bernard's ice cream parlour, Main Street. The sale was in charge of Mrs. F. J. Skerry and Mrs. Camille Chaisson.

BURGESS BEDTIME

With his right hand, for he used those two claws like hands, he pinched off a tiny bit of banana and put it in his mouth. That was the smaller of the two claws, much the smaller. The big, pinching fighting claw he held ready to protect his find should any one try to take it from him.

He liked that banana. There was no doubt about that. But he wasn't greedy. He wasn't the least bit greedy. He didn't stuff himself in the manner of so many girls and boys who have been given a treat. He didn't hurry. He ate slowly and daintily, pulling off tiny bits with his right hand, or claw, and carefully putting them in his mouth without ever dropping any. Once he used his big fighting claw to help draw
