The Teacher

Who advised her pupils to strengthen their minds by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, appreciated the truth that bodily health is essential to mental vigor. For persons of delicate and feeble constitution, whether young or old, this medicine is remarkably beneficial. Be sure you get Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

"Every spring and fall I take a number of bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and am greatly benefited."—Mrs. James H. Eastman, Stoneham, Mass.

"I have taken Ayer's Sarsaparilla with great benefit to my general health."—Miss Thirza L. Crear, Palmyra, Md.

"My daughter, twelve years of age, has suffered for the past year from General Debility.

A few weeks since, we began to give her Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Her health has greatly improved."—Mrs. Harriet H. Battles, South Chelmsford, Mass.

"About a year ago I began using Ayer's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for debility and neuralgia resulting from malarial exposure in the army. I was in a very bad condition, but six bottles of the Sarsaparilla, with occasional doses of Ayer's Pills, have greatly improved my health. I am now able to work, and feel that I cannot say too much for your excellent remedy."—F. A. Pincham, South Molunness, Me.

"My daughter, sixteen years old, is using Ayer's Sarsaparilla with good effect."—Rev. S. J. Graham, United Brethren Church, Buckhannon, W. Va.

"I suffered from

Nervous Prostration,

with lame back and headache, and have been much benefited by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I am now 60 years of age, and am satisfied that my present health and prolonged life are due to the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—Lucy Moffitt, Killingly, Conn.

Being a Man

I can tell you how to be a man—
This is the way to begin:
Stop saying, "I can't," and say "I can."
March up to your work with a good stiff chin,
That is the way to begin.

If you mean to be a man, you know
You must do the best you can.
When the tempter comes, you must speak up
"Not!"
He'll take to his heels if you talk to him so;
I've tried it myself, and that's how I know,
For I'm going to be a man.

Yes, no more whining nor tears for me
I've left them out of my plan;
No falsehood, no words profane or low;
I turn my back on all that, you know,
When I start to be a man.
—H. H. M., in Common School Education.

Bismarck on Protection.

(The Independent.)
Prince Bismarck, when the German Empire was founded, adopted the notions of the Free Traders of England; and they were at first incorporated into the tariff system of the Empire. Trial and experience, however, made him a wiser man. In a speech which he delivered in the Reichstag on May 14, 1882, explaining the reasons for abandoning the Free Trade theory, and adopting that of Protection, he said: "The success of the United States in material development is the most illustrious of modern times. The American nation has not only successfully borne and suppressed the most gigantic and expensive war of all history, but immediately afterward it disbanded its army, found employment for all its soldiers and marines, paid off most of its debt, gave labor and homes to all the unemployed of Europe as fast as they could arrive within its territories, and still by a system of taxation so indirect as not to be perceived, much less felt. Because it is my deliberate judgment that the prosperity of America is due to its system of protective laws, I urge that Germany has now reached that point where it is necessary to imitate the tariff system of the United States. The German Empire changed its policy from that of Free Trade to that of protection; and the result has been a very large increase in the quantity and value in German manufactures. Mr. James Smith, the United States Consul at Mayence, in a recent report says: "Germany is apparently profiting at present from her protective policy. The country seems to be in favor of the experiment." That which is spoken of as an "experiment" in Germany, as being so far successful, is in this country a demonstrated fact, resting on a long experience. The Free Traders have undertaken a pretty large job in the effort to upset Protection in the United States, and substitute their fancy notions in place of it. President Cleveland and the Democratic party tried this experiment last fall, and came to grief as the result thereof.

Pullets Should be Laying.

Young pullets hatched in March and April ought all to be laying this month. Later hatched ones, if not laying by November, will probably, if left to themselves, not lay before spring when eggs are down to fifteen cents per dozen. A well-known poultry farmer showed us recently his account for last December with 125 pullets. The net profit for that month from eggs alone was $29.29; from the same pullets in April following the profit was $14.97, and he got 50 dozen more eggs in April than in December. Now this is a striking lesson to all who keep hens for profit. Get all the eggs you can this dull year when other crops are short, as eggs always bring cash. Probably 45 cents per dozen by Christmas. Therefore get the pullets to laying early when prices are highest. Rev. S. W. Squire, of Franklin, Mass., says: "For the purpose of seeing how many eggs I could obtain last winter from twelve hens, I used four large cans of Sheridan's Condition Powder. I believe it is the best preparation known to increase egg production. I saved part of the eggs for hatching after forcing the hens four months for all they were worth with Sheridan's Condition Powder, and I never had a greater percent of fertile eggs or more vigorous chickens. In brief, I do not believe I can afford to be without the powder to give health and vigor to young hens. Six cans of Sheridan's powder will pay a good dividend in eggs if you commence early. If you cannot get it near home, I. S. Johnson & Co., 22 Custom House Street, Boston, Mass., (the only makers of Sheridan's Condition Powder) will send, for 50 cents, two 25-cent packs of powder; for $1, five packs; for $1.20, a large 24 lb. can, all post paid; six cans for $5, express prepaid; one large can of Powder, also one year's subscription to the Farm Poultry monthly, both sent post paid for $1.50. Sample copy of paper 5 cents. Send stamps or cash. Testimonials sent free.—oct7 dy6 wli

Odds and Ends

Kissable Girl (suddenly)—"Take care, some one will see you!" Good-looking but bashful beau—"What am I doing?" Kissable girl (scornfully)—"Nothing."

Stingy husband—"Here's an item that says there's fifty millions in coin at the bottom of the Atlantic ocean." Stinted wife—"It isn't any harder to get at than your money."

Some one said to a Roman Catholic bishop recently, in discussing the Home Rule question, that the Irish in America had abandoned reason and were plotting treason to Great Britain. "Well, there is not much difference between Irish reason and Irish treason," said the bishop, "only the difference of an absent—T."

For Delicate, Sickly Children

Scott's Emulsion is unequalled. See what Dr. C. A. Black, of Amherst, N. S., says: "I have been acquainted with Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, for years, and consider it one of the best preparations now before the public. Its pleasant flavor makes it the great favorite for children, and I do highly recommend it for all wasting diseases of children and adults." Sold by druggists, 50 cts. and $1.00.

Behring Sea.

A JUDGMENT AFFECTING ESCAPED SEALERS.
Judge Sawyer has just rendered a decision in the Circuit Court at San Francisco, which will cover the cases of all sealers which have been seized in Behring Sea at any time and have run away to Puget Sound or San Francisco. The case decided is that of L. N. Handy & Co. against Bartin Aitkins, United States Marshal of Alaska. In the summer of 1887 the sealing schooner San Diego, owned by Handy & Co., was seized by the Rush and ordered to Sitka. She went, and 577 sealings were taken from her there. The skins were condemned by the court and Aitkins brought them to San Francisco for sale. Handy & Co. enjoined the sale on the ground that the order of the Alaskan court did not hold here. Judge Sawyer overthrew this plea and Aitkins' proceedings will not be interfered with. The principle of the decision applies also to the schooner San Jose and Ellen, which were seized in Behring Sea last year and ordered to Sitka, but came instead to Drake's Bay and afterwards into the port of San Francisco. It also applies to the schooners seized this year which have run away with their prize crews, as it establishes the doctrine that the orders of the revenue officers hold good anywhere in American waters.

Chapter of Accidents.

The present year furnishes a chapter of calamities in the history of the world, that, as the New York Independent says, is unprecedented. Every scourge but that of famine seems to have done its deadliest. The floods at Johnstown and in Japan, the fires at Seattle and Spokane Falls, the explosion in Antwerp, the cholera in Mesopotamia, the storms at sea, and the landslide at Quebec, comprise a horrible list. Thousands of the lives lost have been sacrificed to carelessness or negligence. The South Fork Dam was declared unsafe before the Conemaugh flood, the cartridges at Antwerp were declared dangerous before the explosion, and the cliff at Quebec was declared unstable nearly ten years ago. In 1880 the chief city engineer of Quebec recommended that $27,000 be expended to make the cliff safe to the inhabitants below. The recommendation was disregarded and now $100,000 in property has been destroyed and nearly two-score persons have been crushed to death. If a building contractor, after being told that his structure is unsafe, persists in disregarding the warning, he goes to State prison when his building collapses; but a city or a town may ignore the recommendations of its engineers and go unpunished when the threatened calamity occurs. What is the use of having engineers and inspectors if their advice is not to be followed? Shall we ever come to esteem forethought, or shall we always be lamenting and criticizing on the hither side of calamity? The cries of despair that were heard last week from the debris at Quebec for hours after the rock had fallen must have pierced the hearts of those who refused to avert impending disaster. The cries for help were as piteous, and in some cases as unavailing, as those of the victims of the Conemaugh flood who were swept away to death before the eyes of their friends. The only solace of such disaster is in the fact that human mercy is always kindled to the noblest heroism.

Three hundred miners are starving in the Upper Yukon, Alaska.

RHEUMATISM is caused by a poisonous acid in the blood and yields to Ayer's Pills. Many cases which seemed chronic and hopeless have been completely cured by this medicine. It will cost but little to try what effect the Pills may have in your case. We predict success.
