That Body Of Yours

nerves between the ribs, anxiety sweat and other... we learn from the above regarding heart attacks? Chest distress in one who has not before had such symptoms should cause him to see a physician immediately and have an exhaustive examination but he should not be too anxious until it is definitely proved that the symptoms are due to a diseased heart. And even if it does prove to be a form of heart disease, modern methods of treatment are such that he will likely have many useful years ahead of him if he will follow his doctor's advice and treatment.
On the other hand, when such symptoms occur in a person who has already been told he has heart disease, these symptoms should be regarded as most likely being further attack of his disease and be so treated.

Clifton Webb, at Capitol Summerside, in "Mister Scoutmaster"

Clifton Webb again turns his talent to comedy in "Mister Scoutmaster," the Twentieth Century-Fox picture now at the Capitol Theatre, Summerside, in which he has the star role with Edmund Gwenn and little George "The Horn" Winslow as the co-stars. Frances Dee, who returned to the screen after a long absence, and Veda Ann Borg head the supporting cast which also includes a group of 280 Boy Scouts.
"Mister Scoutmaster" was adapted for the screen by Leonard Frank and Barney Slater from a book of reminiscences by a Scoutmaster entitled "Be Prepared," taken from the Boy Scout motto. It tells the story of a stiff, snappish man who in the course of selling a breakfast food on a TV program tries to understand into becoming a Scoutmaster for a Boy Scout troop does he really learn the workings of the young mind, much to his discomfort at times. Webb's role in the picture is reminiscent of the part he had in "Sitting Pretty" and he again is given the opportunity to show his irritation by dashing a dish of ice cream into the face of one of his young tormentors similar to the famous oatmeal-bowl sequence in his previous baby sitting episode.

Joe Dalton Wins Baseball Award

Joe Dalton won the R. T. Holman award for the most spectacular play of the past week. Dalton's shoeing catch in Monday's game against Holman's was the best fielding effort in a week singularly devoid of brilliant plays. Terry Rogerson of R.C.A.F. won the MacCauley furniture award for the batter with the highest average for the past two weeks. Rogerson, who is the same fellow who made 129 bases in a game against the Summerside Aces in Bedouque rink last winter, hit 4 for 4 during the two weeks.

Springfield Seeks To Change Leagues

NEW YORK (CP)—Springfield, Mass., Wednesday was granted a franchise in the American Hockey League after AHL owners cancelled the Syracuse, N.Y., franchise because of an inadequate schedule for next season.
Springfield Indians now a member of the Quebec Hockey League, have made an application to the QHL for withdrawal.
The AHL owners were reported working on a playing schedule for the 1954-55 season that they hope will be ready today.
The Syracuse franchise is owned by Eddie Shore, who once operated in Springfield and who has had his associate itself with Russia's Stalingrad in a joint appeal to outlaw the hydrogen bomb. He suggested that members of the Stalingrad Soviet city council might meet with Coventry council members to make an appeal to the United Nations Management Commission.

Indians Strengthen Lead Dodgers Gain On Giants

Dean Stone, The Philadelphia Detroit doubleheader was rained out.
The New York Giants broke a record with two pinch homers by Bobby Hofman and Dusty Rhodes in the sixth inning while topping the St. Louis Cardinals 7-6. Westrum also homered in the sixth and Al Dark hit an earlier home run as the Giants chased Cincinnati to a defeat on reliever Cot Deal. Marvin Grissom won his seventh on relief. The homers by Hofman, Westrum and Rhodes were in succession.
Brooklyn needed effective relief pitching, too, in downing the Chicago Cubs 6-4 and 6-3. Clem Labine held the fort in the first game and Bob Milliken and Ben Wade took over after Billy Loes (altered in the second.
PITTSBURGH won its first doubleheader since Sept. 6, 1953, dropping Milwaukee seven full games out of first place by 2-1 and 6-3 scores. The Pirates won the first when Lew Burdette hit Curt Roberts with a pitched ball with the bases loaded in the tenth. Gair Allie's three-run homer nailed down the second.
Cincinnati climbed into a fifth-place tie with St. Louis, defeating the Phillies 4-3 and 15-6. Fred Baczewski's seven-hitter took care of the first game. The Reds capped their old teammate, Herm Wehmeier, while scoring nine runs in the first inning of the second game.
CLEVELAND's double romp over the Red Sox boosted their season record against Boston to 11-1. Saturday's game was the only victory for the Sox. While picking up a full game on their strongest rivals, the Indians also got a lift from the return of Al Rosen to the starting lineup. He had learned June 4 that he had been playing with a broken finger for 10 days. Rosen had two singles in six trips, playing first base.
Smith hit a leadoff homer in the first inning of the opener at Halifax. He hit his fifth of the season off Willard Nixon in the second inning of the second game. Bill Skowron, Gil McDougald, Mickey Mantle and Joe Collins ripped into Chicago pitching for home runs in the Yanks' 20-hit game at Chicago in the first game. Sherm Lollar's two-run homer in the seventh was the big blow after Bob Kuzava walked in the tie-breaking run with the bases loaded.
Baltimore's home attendance was boosted to 504,732 by a crowd of 17,149 who saw the Orioles' losing streak stretched to eight games. Marrero threw a five-hitter in the first and Stone scattered nine hits in the second. Bill O'Dell, Baltimore's bonus pitcher from Clemson College, made his debut. He worked the last inning of the opener and the last two of the second but for an error wouldn't have allowed a run.
WIN STREAK ENDS — In the American League Saturday Chicago downed the Yankees 3-0 on the sixth-pitching of Sandy Consuegra. Ed Lopat was the loser. Ellis Kinder ended Cleveland's nine-game winning streak as Boston defeated the Indians 6-3. Jackie Jensen homered for the Red Sox in the ninth. Bob Lemon suffered his fourth defeat.

In the National League, New York defeated the Cardinals 5-2

Wimbledon Tennis Tournament Gets Underway Today

LONDON (AP)—The big show of the tennis world—the Wimbledon tournament—gets under way today with Americans in the favorite's roles for both the men's and women's titles.
Tony Trabert, the No. 1 United States Davis cup player, is favored to win the coveted men's singles title after wading through a tough field, while Maureen "Little Mo" Connolly, now a part miss of 19, is the heavy choice among the women.
This 68th edition of the venerable tournament will pose a problem for Trabert. If he is to go to the final on July 2, he'll have to wade through just about the entire Australian delegation, except Lewis Hoad.
Trabert doesn't anticipate any trouble with his first-round opponent, Paul Wooler, an English club player, when he takes the polished centre court.

Fisheries Dept. Willing To Call New Conference Of Lobster Fishermen

OTTAWA (CP)—J. Watson MacNaught, parliamentary assistant to Fisheries Minister Sinclair, said Saturday the fisheries department is willing to call a meeting of lobster fishermen in the Maritimes concerning seizure of lobsters.
He was replying in the Commons to A. Wesley Stuart (L-Charlotte) who urged that fisheries regulations be changed to forbid department officials seizing and disposing of lobsters which began to spawn in the storage tanks of private operators.
Mr. Stuart said thousands of lobsters are bought by these operators for live storage until market prices become favorable. Fisheries regulations forbid buying lobsters which are spawning and each lobster is inspected by department officials before going into storage tanks.
However, during the storage period the female lobsters might begin to spawn despite expensive efforts to segregate males and females.
SEEN AS OWNER'S — "In my opinion, once legal lobsters are purchased and placed in the pounds (storage tanks) they are the property of the owner," he said. "No one should have the authority to liberate a single lobster without paying the full price."
Mr. MacNaught said two years ago the department convened a meeting of interested parties but no unanimous solution could be found. There was considerable controversy about the matter.
However, the department was ready to call another meeting as soon as possible to see whether the viewpoint of those opposed to a change of the regulations has changed.
Thomas M. Bell (P-C—St. John's) asked what measures are being taken to conserve clam and lobster fishing in the Bay of Fundy. A meeting of clam fishermen had asked last year for a closed season on soft-shelled, little-neck clams and lobster fishermen had asked for stricter enforcement of regulations against taking undersized lobsters.
NO DECISION ON CLAMS — Mr. MacNaught said no decision has been made yet on limiting the clam season. As for lobsters, more protection officers had been employed and regulations were being enforced more strictly.
G. Roy McWilliam (L—Northumberland) urged an educational campaign to tell Maritime fishermen of the dangers of illegal fishing. Some Maritime fisheries were almost depleted.

25th Wedding Anniversary At North Tryon

—On Saturday evening about fifty relatives and friends gathered in the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Calbeck, North Tryon to congratulate and extend best wishes on the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. Dr. Lea M. Calbeck acted as master of ceremonies and after a few appropriate remarks as to the occasion of the gathering, called upon Mr. Roy Cutcliffe, who on behalf of those present made a presentation of a chest of white orchid Community flat silver.
The bride and groom of twenty-five years expressed their deep appreciation after which all joined in singing "For They're Jolly Good Fellows".
Instrumental and vocal selections were contributed by their talented young son, Arthur, Mrs. Hedley Lowther, Mrs. John Harlam, Mrs. C. D. Wright and Mrs. Lea Calbeck. Another special feature was a quartette, comprising Mr. and Mrs. James Stavert of Charlottetown, Mr. Albert Muttart and Mrs. Hedley Lowther who sang "The Old Rugged Cross" accompanied by Mrs. L. M. Holman Coach Expects New Players Tonight

—Jack Schurman expects to have additional strength when he meets the high flying Curran & Briggs ball team tonight at Queen Elizabeth Park. Jimmie Grady, one of the original "Maritime champs" is expected to turn out, and Gunner Cox, R.C.A.F. star over a number of years, is also considering joining the Holman nine. There are even rumors that "Mr. Shortstop" himself may be persuaded to get back into baseball harness and do a job at the old spot in short field. Hank Landry has been bothered with a weak knee but reports that it has improved and he may show the current crop of shortstops how it should be done. Mark Delaney, who suffered the serious injury in Ontario last winter has been after Jack Schurman to let him play for two weeks now, and it is possible that Mark may be seen in action too if the helmet he proposes to wear is through sufficient protection for the starry young athlete's head.
