

THE DAILY EXAMINER,

JUNE 6, 1881.

One-sided Free Trade.

THE SHOE PINCHING ENGLAND.

"ONE-SIDED FREE TRADERS" who enjoyed the "jughanded fairplay" by which the products of the United States were allowed to be slaughtered in Canada...

"Our tariff is not a fixed quantity, absolutely unalterable, as the laws of the Medes or Persians; it is simply a convenient engine for raising revenue, and our own ideas of expediency are the sole guides to which we shall listen in either remitting or imposing duties."

Again the Telegraph says: "Many good workmen, it is said, are emigrating to the United States, where, fostered and coddled by Protection, the woollen industry can afford to pay them good wages, while mill-owners are talking of a similar change, and of transferring their capital and energy to a country where there is a certainty of both being rewarded."

It seems probable that England will soon awake to the fact that, heavily handicapped in all the great markets of the world, and compelled to go abroad to purchase her food supplies and raw materials, she cannot prosper. Rich, as she is, she may stand the strain for a time. But the ultimate result of such trading is as certain as the fate of a man compelled to buy and unable to sell.

The Lawson Case.

REV. STEPHEN G. LAWSON brought his case of appeal from the Presbytery of this Province before the Synod at New Glasgow, on Wednesday last. He made a lengthy address on his own behalf, and Rev. Mr. McLennan, of St. James, addressed the Court on behalf of the Presbytery. The case was found to be so intricate and exhaustive that the Synod agreed to appoint a commission to try it at Zion Church, Charlottetown, on the second Tuesday in August.

Exports for May.

We are indebted to E. L. Lydiard, Esq., for the following statement of exports from Queen's and King's Counties during the month of May—

Table with columns: POTATOES, BEANS, OATS, MISCELLANEOUS, HORNEDE CATTLE AND SHEEP, PIGS, FOREIGN, CASH RECEIPTS AT THE CUSTOMS FOR MAY, 1881, CASH RECEIPTS AT THE CUSTOMS FOR MAY, 1880, INCREASE FOR MAY, 1881.

An Explanation.

THE Patriot is mystified. How is it possible that a gentleman in New York could, at his own expense send a Civil Engineer to see about water works for Charlottetown? That's the question. Now we haven't consulted either the gentleman or his representative, or any one else about this question. But to the philosopher of the Patriot the answer ought to be as clear as water. The engineer is of course, here in obedience to a law of nature—the law of progress. An apple must fall to the ground; a vacuum must be filled; and Charlottetown must not be the only city of ten thousand on the Continent of America deprived of a Water Supply. It is well known that when the little finger suffers, the whole body is thrown out of kilter; and on the same principle it is not wonderful that New York should feel bad because Charlottetown wants water, or that the mind of one of the citizens of that great metropolis should be so perturbed that he could not resist the prompting of nature to send an engineer here to "right the wrong."

The engineer has, we learn, made two propositions: One, to make the works, and supply the water at certain rates; the other to form a Company, in which citizens shall hold half the stock, and his client the other half. In neither of these propositions, is there anything to be frightened about; and we hope that the Council will give them careful consideration. The engineer does not, just yet, we believe, care to have his figures made public; but we hope they will, ere long, be laid before a very much interested community. In the meantime, the community may confidently trust Mayor Dawson and his advisers to protect the interests of the City.

PICTOU.

THE news from Pictou is very encouraging. But let not our friends there be over-confident. Over-confidence has lost many an election.

Confirmations.

At St. Paul's Church, yesterday morning, the Bishop of Nova Scotia administered the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation to thirty-six candidates. Morning prayer was said by the Rev. Alfred Osborne; the preface to the Confirmation service by the Rector; when, after an able and exhaustive address by the Bishop, both to congregation and to candidates, his Lordship proceeded to the administration of the rite. During his address the Bishop congratulated the congregation on the evident signs of progress among them, making especial mention of the new organ. He dwelt, as is his custom, upon the apostolic origin of the ordinance, and in affectionate words of fatherly advice, addressed the candidates. After the confirmation His Lordship made another address, after which he proceeded to the celebration of the Holy Communion. The congregation was fairly large, but by no means orderly. The music was fairly rendered, but the organist has yet to obtain full control of the fine instrument under his charge.

At St. Peter's Church, in the evening, His Lordship confirmed a number of candidates. He delivered a lengthy charge to the congregation and the candidates, and preached. The Church was crowded. His Lordship will administer the rite of confirmation at Georgetown on Sunday next, and in the meantime he will visit Milton and Rustico.

Reformed Episcopal Church.

The Reformed Episcopal Church Conference, or General Council, concluded its business on Monday last. The only business calling forth difference of opinion was on the doctrine of "everlasting punishment," and the adoption of a catechism. In the former matter, one lay and one clerical delegate doubted the expediency of going into vexed questions; but the Council passed a resolution, unanimously, explicitly stating the belief of the Church in the doctrine as taught in Scripture. The catechism recommended for adoption was objected to by some as too elaborate for young children. Two catechisms were ultimately adopted—one for older scholars, and a shorter and more simple one for younger ones.

The Church was shown to be in a prosperous condition, some 900 having been admitted by confirmation, and a large number by letter from other churches. All the larger churches were free from debt, and with one or two exceptions, the debts on the smaller churches were within their means. Twelve thousand dollars were granted for sundry purposes, four thousand of which is derived from invested funds, and the balance being pledged in a few minutes by the delegates present.

One hundred and sixty acres of land near Chicago donated as an endowment for a college for the education of the Ministry, was shown to be worth at the present time about $400,000, but as the Grand Trunk Railway is negotiating for a portion for the purpose of a depot &c., it is anticipated that its value in two years will be fully one million dollars, when the Church will proceed with the erection of a college.

Weather Bulletin.

TORONTO, June 6, -10 a. m. Moderate to fresh northerly to north-westerly winds, fine cool weather.

Mr. Hugh McKewen, mayor of Palmerston, and a staunch Reformer, is on a visit to the North West Territories. From Grand Valley he writes to the Palmerston Telegraph, an interesting letter about the country. He says: "The country is settling up very fast with a good class of people, the majority being from Ontario. After all the cry about the migration to Dakota, there is not one in every ten goes to that place."

THIS week's Grip has some good cartoons. One it gives an illustration of "Life on the Ocean Wave," which represents Gordon Brown in the pangs of sea-sickness. John A.—"I understand that you've thrown up the Globe. Is that so?"

BLOWN UP.—A lobster factory at Petpeswick, Halifax Co., N. S., was blown up on the 2nd inst. Charles McKinnley was instantly killed, and Samuel Turner, Thomas Young, Abraham Bayer and John McKay were seriously injured. The explosion, it is thought, was caused by a bad boiler.

PICKED ORANGES by the box, at H. Coombs's, j6 3i

A RATHER curious thing happened at Westport, N. S., the other day, strengthening the old adage that "truth is oftimes stranger than fiction." Mr. John Pugh lost his splitting knife overboard, which immediately sank. He did not expect to ever see it again. Judge of his astonishment a day or two after, when at a distance of from five to ten miles from where the knife was lost, on pulling a large cod-fish from the water, to find, on opening it, the identical knife.

Every one admits that Young's Prints are the handsomest and cheapest lot ever seen in the city.

We regret to learn that Mr. Lawrence Enman, son of Mr. David Enman, of Vernon River, was accidentally killed by falling from a house in Boston, Mass., on Friday last. The deceased was well known in this city, and a member of St. Lawrence Lodge I. O. O. F. He was a most exemplary young man, and his melancholy death will be mourned by a large circle of friends in this province. His remains will be forwarded via Summerside on Wednesday evening to this city for interment.

THE most noiseless machine in the world is now admitted to be the Wanzler "O." It is manufactured with the greatest care, even the screws are made of steel. Each machine before leaving the factory undergoes a severe examination, so that any imperfection may be discovered and rectified. These machines from their construction are extremely light running, and adapted to all kinds of family and light factory work, they can be speeded up to 800 revolutions per minute. Prices at present very moderate. —Toronto Globe.

CONCERT.—On Wednesday evening a grand Literary and Musical Entertainment will be given in St. Patrick's Hall for the benefit of Mr. N. F. Strzembek, leader of St. Patrick's Band. This alone should warrant its success. The programme, we learn, has been carefully arranged, and no pains will be spared to make the entertainment interesting. Rev. Father McGillivray, of St. Dunstan's, will deliver an address; James Byrne, Esq., C. C., will read; the Quintette Club will supply classical music; and the Misses Donavan, Cox, Newbery, Mrs. Gaffney, and Messrs. Carey, Hermann, Williams and Blanchard will do justice to the vocal part. We advise all who appreciate a first-class concert to attend.

VESSELS WANTED FOR THE TRADE.

(From Geo. H. Dobson & Co., Coal and Shipping Agents, North Sydney, June 1, 1881.)

We are open to charter either sailing or steam tonnage from the usual Sydney, North Sydney and Cape Breton coaling places for Canadian and American ports, at the top market rates, which at present range from $1.75 to $1.90, Montreal, according to capacity.

$1.75 to $1.60, Quebec, according to capacity. $1.75 to $1.85, St. John, N. B., according to capacity.

$1.50 to $1.90, New York and Eastern American ports, according to capacity.

We require tonnage for lumber from Montreal for the River Plate, and will give good rates for two or three vessels for Buenos Ayres direct. For handy lumber vessels we will combine paying coal freights to Montreal.

Full particulars and pro forma charter party will be furnished upon application. We would be glad if owners and agents having vessels coming into our waters should offer us tonnage.

Sydney being the shortest route from Northern Europe to any of the Canadian or States ports affording coal freights, and being in direct telegraphic communication with all parts, offers unequalled advantages as a calling port for shipping in the Atlantic trade.
