To One And All . . . A JOYOUS CHRISTMAS

It's Merry Christmas time again. What does it really mean though? Why should everyone suddenly become interested in his neighbour's happiness?

We know as well as you, that you care about your neighbour. It's just that in the crush of everyday living we get pretty wrapped up in our own troubles.

It takes something really important, like Christmas, to make us realize our troubles are not so bad . . . That a pleasant smile gives us just as much pleasure as it does to our neighbour.

May we wish you a very Merry Christmas and the fulfillment of everything it means to you . . . at the same time we'd like to ask you a question.

Won't you help to try and keep the friendly spirit of Christmas alive throughout the year?

T'was The Night Before Christmas

(Slightly Revised)

'Twas the night before Christmas, when all through the house
Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse
When out in the street there arose such a clatter
I rushed to the window to see what was the matter.
When what should I see as I looked down below,
But the PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT removing new-fallen snow,
Then I saw a POLICE car patrolling its beat,
And I knew they would keep safe every street.
If a FIRE siren sounded, I would know without doubt
That all would soon be well and the fire put out;
While those in OTHER DEPARTMENTS would be working this eve
To make available fine services for all to receive.
Then I thought of ALL OFFICIALS AND EMPLOYEES who work day and night
To help make the CITY OF CHARLOTTETOWN a place of delight,
And thankfully said, as they passed from my sight,
A MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL, AND OUR FUTURE LOOKS BRIGHT.

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL FROM THE CITY of CHARLOTTETOWN
