Beer Brewing.

The United States have become lively competitors with England in the brewing and drinking of beer. In the year ending April 30th, 1891, there were sold in the States and territories 30,021,079 barrels, against 26,820,953 for the year ending April 30th, 1890, an increase of 3,200,126 barrels. New York leads in the sale for 1890,1, with a total of 9,083,109 barrels, which is nearly three times the quantity sold in any other State. Pennsylvania being second with 3,118,248 barrels, and then follow in order: Ohio, 2,636,668 barrels: Illinois, 2,608,916 barrels; Wisconsin, 2,403,940 barrels; Missouri, 2,038 388 barrels, and New Jersey, 1,609,350 barrels. The consumption is about half a barrel a year for every man, woman and child in the Union, and as a large proportion of the population are women and children who do not as a rule drink very much beer, while a considerable proportion of the balance are total abstainers or at most very moderate drinkers, it is clear that some people in the United States guzzle a great deal more beer than is good for them.

A Serious Battle.

The political battle is over, but the battle with disease must be constantly and unceasingly waged else the grim reaper will come out victorious, and loved ones will be gathered to their long home. On all sides may be seen pale and listless girls who should be enjoying the health and glow of rosy youth. Everywhere we are met with women young in years, yet prematurely old, who suffer in silence almost untold agonies, the result of those ailments peculiar to the female system. To all such, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills come as a blessing. They restore wasted vitality, build up the nervous system, enrich the blood, and transform pale and sallow complexions into glowing, rosy cheeks that alone follow perfect health. In a word they are a certain cure for all these distressing complaints to which women and girls are peculiarly liable. A trial of these pills will convince the most sceptical of their wonderful merit. For suffering men Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are equally efficacious. For overwork, mental strain, loss of sleep, nervous debility, and all those diseases that lead to broken-down manhood, they are a certain specific, stimulating the brain, reinforcing the exhausted system and restoring shattered vitality. Dr William's Pink Pills are nature's restorative and should be used by every weak and debilitated person For sale by all dealers or sent post paid on receipt of price (50 cents a box) by addressing the Dr Williams Medicine Co, Brockville, Ont.
