

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JUNE 8, 1889.

Notes and Comments.

The editor of Zion's Herald has made the discovery that "very few of the representative men of Canada are favorable to union or annexation with the United States."

There are a good many United States editors who would get some much needed information on this and several other points by visiting this country and mingling with its people.

If the published report of a recent interview with a certain Dr. McCabe, of Philadelphia, be correct, the Clan-na-Gael organization is a very important factor in politics across the border.

The mutterings of discontent heard from certain quarters because Lord Lytton, the British Ambassador to France, did not remain at Paris to join in celebrating the centenary of the triumph of irreligion and mob law, have broken out in Parliament.

The Canadian Architect says that Vancouver is going to be one of our handsomest cities. Among its fine buildings are mentioned the C. P. R. hotel, the New York block—in which Sir George Stephen is interested—the Van Horne block, the Lord Elphinstone block and others on Grenville street.

Mr. Steele, agent for the Hyer Sisters Comedy Company, which appears at the Lyceum on the evenings of Friday and Saturday next, is hard at work "billing" the town.

The Wood-St. John Dramatic Company have asked the manager of the Lyceum to book them for the three nights beginning June 24. As Mrs. Scott-Siddons has the theatre engaged for the 26th, this arrangement will probably not be carried out in its entirety.

Burham & Phillips' Company will be at the Lyceum on the evening of the 1st of August. The business manager of Newton Beers "Lost in London" Co., is arranging for the appearance of that Co. at the Lyceum, on the 22nd and 23rd of April next.

Provincial Exhibition, 1889.

The annual general meeting of the Board of Commissioners for managing the P. E. Island General Exhibition for Agriculture and Local Industry, was held at the Law Courts Building, on Friday, June 7th.

The Secretary read the following letter from His Honor Judge Hensley: FRIDAY, June 7, 1889.

DEAR SIR,—I find that my duties in connection with the Supreme Court will make it almost impossible for me this year properly to discharge the duties of Chairman of the Commissioners appointed to manage the Provincial Exhibition.

It was then unanimously resolved that the Hon. T. Heath Haviland be appointed Chairman of the Board of Commissioners for the year 1889.

In accepting the position His Honor alluded in suitable terms to the valuable and untiring labor of his predecessor, Judge Hensley, in promoting the welfare of our Exhibitions for many years past.

It was unanimously agreed upon that the Exhibition be held at Charlottetown on Wednesday and Thursday, October 2nd and 3rd, 1889.

The usual committees were then appointed, the names of the Honorable Alexander Laird, Bedeque, and the Honorable James Clow, Murray Harbor, were added to the Committee on buildings and grounds.

The rules, regulations and Prize List for the year 1888 were adopted for this year with some slight changes, as to the time for receiving live stock on the grounds, and for receiving entries of articles at the Exhibition Buildings.
