IRISHTOWN RED CROSS

The pupils of Irishtown School under the title of "Jolly Twenty Seven" held their Red Cross meeting in the class room on Friday, March 9, 1951. Twenty four members answered roll call, there being only three absent. Each giving the name of his or her favourite car. The Health and Service Committees gave their reports and new ones were appointed. The treasurer announced that the collection amounted to $1.15.

Eleanor Mann and Carl Campbell who were on the program committee presented an interesting program. The first was a game of Bingo. The freeze-out was won by Irene Simmons. The second number was a stunt exercise. It was demonstrated by Beryl MacLeod. This created much excitement among all as each pupil tried energetically to win. Again Irene Simmons captured the prize. A motion being moved and seconded brought the meeting to a close with the singing of the National Anthem.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of a dear Husband and Father, John W. Walker, who passed away on March 16th, 1949.

What happy hours we once enjoyed
How sweet their memories still
But Death has caused an aching void,
This world can never fill.

Lovingly Remembered by Wife and Family.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our Uncle Timson Newsome, who departed, March 15th, 1949.

You left us a beautiful memory,
A sorrow too great to be told,
But to us who have loved you and lost you,
Your memory will never grow old.

Always Remembered by His Nieces Doris and Helen.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of a dear Husband and Father,

HOWARD S. WEEKS
who passed away March 16th, 1949.

The depth of sorrow, we cannot tell,
Of the loss of one we loved so well;
And while he sleeps a peaceful sleep,
His memory we shall always keep.

Ever Remembered by Wife and Family.

Crescent Carnival

They were getting nearer and nearer to the Gulf.

Breck had continued to stand on the deck, watching this change of landscape, partly because he was genuinely intrigued by it, and partly because none of the other men had made any special efforts to draw him away. There were two others already aboard reinforcing Mr. Dupre, when the rest of the party arrived, but Breck heard their names so indistinctly that he was not sure of these, and their personalities registered no more definitely.

Breck did not feel hurt by his casual reception, but he was a little puzzled by it. He wondered if he had made a mistake in accepting de Gruy's invitation. Mr. Dupre, however, was visibly delighted with Breck's attitude as an appreciative guest, and by the time the clubhouse was reached, Breck himself was conscious that word must have gone around that he seemed to be a pretty good fellow. The clubhouse itself gave him a surprise. It was merely a weather-beaten shack on stilts, containing a bare living room and a dingy dormitory. There was a crude kitchen in the back and a rickety gallery in the front of it. A table in the center of the living room was covered with a piece of oilcloth, somewhat the worse for wear, and on this King dumped a large mound of shrimp, setting a bowl of sauce piquante down beside it. After that the table became more and more cluttered as dish after dish and bottle after bottle were brought there.

HOLLYWOOD, March 14 — (AP) — Bob Hope said today he will turn over his salary for a two-week London engagement to a youth club blitzed during the war. Sources close to the comedian said the amount may exceed $40,000.
