What Is Dr. Chase's Nerve Food?

In appearance Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is an oval, chocolate coated pill. In the condensed form it contains all of nature's most strengthening and invigorating tonic and restoratives and for this reason it is unsurpassed as a blood builder and nerve restorative. It cures all diseases caused by thin blood and exhausted nerves and makes pale, weak nervous men, women and children strong and healthy—50 cents a box.

It is evident that China is not the same proposition it was a few years ago when Japan walked all over it.

Minard's Liniment cures Garget in Cows.

It's the fast young man who is usually slow in paying his debts.

DR. A. W. CHASE'S CATARRH CURE... 25c.
Is sent direct to the diseased parts by the Improved Blower. Heals the ulcers, clears the air passages, stops droppings in the throat and permanently cures Catarrh and Hay Fever. Blower free. All dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Toronto and Buffalo.

Minard's Liniment cures Distemper.

When a man is his own worst enemy he should be excused for kicking himself.

A Good Stomach.

Is essential to health and happiness, but don't blame the stomach for biliousness. It is deranged, and causes poisonous bile to remain in the blood causing indigestion, headache and irregular action of the bowels. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills regulate the liver, kidneys and bowels and by their direct action on these organs effect prompt and lasting cures of biliousness, dyspepsia, headache and all kidney ailments. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers.

It isn't the man who was born with a silver spoon in his mouth that makes the most sinner.

To Cure a Cold in One Day

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All registers return the money if fails to cure. Dr. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box.

A man with a few thousand bushels of old wheat on hand can smile at the future.

Minard's Liniment cures Colds, etc.

There is probably nothing purer than the motive of a man who lends money to another when he never expects to get it back.

Don't Neglect Your Watch

If you allow your watch to run too long without cleaning, or with damaged parts it may be worn so badly as to destroy its usefulness as a timepiece; better have it examined by your Watch Doctor and if in need of repairs he will advise you accordingly and perhaps save your watch.
WE BOAST on our repair department turning out first-class work only. WE GUARANTEE ALL OUR WORK; if you have not given us a trial it will pay you to do so and we will be pleased to see you at GREAT GEORGE STREET.

LORD SALISBURY ON MIS- SIONS.

Mohammedan country may, without any moral fault on their part, light a flame which it may be hard for them ever to suppress. And remember that in these Mohammedan countries you are not dealing with men who have religious motives, earnest in many respects, terribly misled in others, but a religion that has portions of our own embodied in its system. You are dealing with a force which a pure though mistaken theism gives to a vast population. You will not convert them—I do not say you will never do so. God knows I hope that that is far from our fears. But, dealing with events of the moment, I think that your chances of conversion, as proved by our experience, are infinitely small compared to the danger of creating great perils and of producing serious convulsions, and may be of causing bloodshed which will be a serious and permanent obstacle to that Christian religion which we desire above all things to preach. This is a danger that you must bear in mind.

THE FORESIGHT OF POLITICIANS.

You must not imagine that all politicians are simply regardless of the highest interests of their race—(cheers)—but the politicians see closely the dangers that those who do not examine so carefully may perhaps not appreciate so intimately. And I earnestly urge them, not as a political matter, but as an element of Christian duty, as a conception of giving the highest position in the world to that religion which they adore—I urge them to abstain, if possible, from undue publicity wherever misconstruction is likely to be placed upon their action.

I am conscious of the enormous difficulty to a devout man's conscience which this question will impose upon him, but yet it is a great and serious danger, and having had this opportunity of speaking to you, I did not like to pass it by. I only will urge you to remember that the world, however slowly—I might say at this moment very slowly—is travelling to the point where the government of all races will be done not by organized force but by regulated and advancing public opinion and you have in your hands one of the most powerful and sacred levers that ever acted upon opinion, and it will be not only dependent on the zeal, but also on the wisdom and Christian prudence with which you work that instrument, that the great results for which we all pray may be achieved.

The Bishop of Albany seconded the motion, and Sir John Kennaway, M.P., speaking as President of the Church Missionary Society, supported it, and it was carried unanimously. Sir John remarked that though missionary workers should give attention to what Lord Salisbury had said, yet he urged them not to be timid.

DOING HER OWN WORK;

In her article on "The Lady Who Does Her own Work," Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe dwells on the value of housework in giving the very healthiest form of exercise, and for the average woman shows it to be far preferable to the work of the maids, who, even in those days, more than thirty years ago, seemed to have found plenty of patients.

"Would it not be quite as cheerful and less expensive in process," she asks "if young girls from early life developed the muscles in sweeping, dusting, ironing, rubbing furniture, and all the multiplied domestic processes which our grandmothers knew of?" and then adds: "I will venture to say that our grandmothers in a week went over every movement that any gymnast has invented, and went over them to some productive purposes, too." Here is a hint that women with thin arms would do well to take. It is said to be really a fact that Clara Louise Kellogg, the singer, when a young girl, was much annoyed by the attenuated appearance of her arms, when she began to don evening dress at her crowded concerts. Someone recommended a brisk use of the broom, which advice she followed, and soon had a round, plump member, as the reward of her labor. If a thin, listless girl, with a dull eye and stare, can by any means be persuaded to try the "broom cure," she will be astonished to find what a beautifier it really is.

AN OLD AND WELL TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. It is pleasant to the taste and sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

In the House of Commons on Tuesday, the premier announced that Tarte had not left Paris and that Fabre had not been appointed to succeed him.

IT PAYS.

It pays to wear a smiling face
And laugh our trouble down;
For all our little trials wait,
Our laughing or our frowns.
Beneath the magic of a smile
Our doubts will fade away,
As melts the frost in early spring
Beneath the sunny ray.

It pays to make a worthy cause,
By helping it your own;
To give the current of our lives
A true and noble tone.
It pays to comfort heavy hearts
Oppressed with dull despair,
And leave in sorrow-darkened lives
A gleam of brightness there.

It pays to give a helping hand
To eager, earnest youth,
To note, with all their waywardness,
Their courage and their truth;
To strive with sympathy and love
Their confidence to win;
It pays to open wide the heart
And "let the sunshine in."

DIED.

What You Pay For Medicine

Is no Test of Its Curative Value—Prescriptions Versus Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are just as much a doctor's prescription as any formula your family physician can give you. The difference is that Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills were perfected after the formula had proven itself of inestimable value in scores of hundreds of cases.
Dr. Chase won almost as much popularity from his ability to cure kidney disease, liver complaint, and backache, with this formula, as he did from the publication of his great recipe book.
The idea of one treatment reaching the kidneys and liver at the same time was original with Dr. Chase. It accounts for the success of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in curing the most complicated ailments of the filtering organs, and every form of backache.
As a family medicine Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are unapproached. They keep the kidneys, liver, and bowels healthy, active, and regular, and so prevent and cure nine-tenths of the ills to which humanity is subject. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.
