

The question, after some further remarks by hon. gentlemen who had previously expressed their opinions, was then put by His Honor the President, when the following resolution was passed: That the Hon. Messrs. Attorney General, Sewley, Beste, and Dingwall.

HASZARD'S GAZETTE.

Saturday April 30, 1853.

The Steamer Row arrived at 2 o'clock yesterday, from Pictou, with the English and Colonial mail.

The papers say that it is impossible that either England or France can consent to the demand made by Russia upon the Danubian States, and that the latter will be obliged to defend herself.

It is rumored that the British Government are to take the Grand Trunk Line of Railway from Halifax to Canada. Further and more authentic information may be obtained by the next mail from Halifax.

RUSSIA AND TURKEY. Through the medium of the Telegraph, we are in possession of news from Constantinople to the end of the present month.

3d. He demands the conclusion of an offensive and defensive treaty, according to Russia the right, and the entire Danubian States to be under the rule of her ally.

4th. He demands the abandonment of certain tracts of land in the weakness of the Turkish neighbour. We have been lately told that the mission of Prince Menschikoff to Constantinople is to settle the interests and dignity of the Greek Church, as represented by the Czar, against those of the Roman Catholic Church.

5th. He demands independence of the Oriental Christians in all matters relating to their creed, and the right to exercise the same.

6th. He demands independence of the Danubian provinces for the purpose of representing the revolutionary spirit which is alluded to in them.

This news is important, as showing that Russia does not longer deem it necessary to conceal her designs, and that she is now openly in the arms of her Turkish neighbour.

THE DEBATE ON THE SALARIES.—In looking over the Debates we notice, that Hon. Mr. Coles mentions that the late Queen's Printer was paid for some papers for which the proprietor of this paper was also paid in his contract for the Laws. This is a mistake.

Sailed yesterday morning for the Bedouque and Shiodia Station, the Packet H. INGRAM, Thomas Linn, Master, with 40 passengers and 100 tons of cargo. The passengers were inductively left behind. A process through which this favourite packet lately went, is somewhat of a mystery.

THE STEAMER GREAT BRITAIN came on the river Mersey at four o'clock on the afternoon of Saturday last, bound for the American ports, with 200 passengers, and gold dust to the value of $100,000.
