THE MEDAL OF BRIGADIER CERARD
BY A. G. H. BOYLE
A remarkable effect of costume on mortality is shown in a very instructive manner by one of the English Registrar-General's reports. It appears that among children aged from one to five years there is an equality in the number of deaths by scalds and burns among boys and girls; but from five to ten double the number of girls to that of boys die from these causes, while from ten to twenty there die 102 women and only 27 men, and from twenty upward 71 women and 22 men, showing the influence of moults and flounce in producing death, notwithstanding the greater caution of the female sex.

I dug my spurs into my pony then, for I thought I might manage the Cossack without much difficulty. He was an officer, a large bearded man with a gold chevron in his cap just the same as mine. As I advanced he unconsciously aided me by pulling up his horse, so that I had a fine start of the Cossack. I can't say for him and I could see wonder turning to suspicion in his brown eyes as he looked at me and my pony equipment. I do not know what it was that was wrong, but he saw something which was as it should not be. He shouted out a question, and then, when I gave no answer, he pulled out his sword. I was glad in my heart to see him do so, for I had always rather fight than cut down an unsuspecting enemy. Now I made at him full tilt and, parrying his cut, I got my point in just under the throat of his horse. Down he went, and the weight of him nearly took me off my horse before I could disengage. I never glanced at him to see if he were living or dead, for I was off of my pony and to Violette, with a shake of my bride and a kiss of my hand to the two Uhlans behind me. They galloped after me shouting, but Violette had had her rest and was just as fresh as when she started.

Don't Die Before Your Time.
"Why will you die?" That is the question the scientist now asks the miserable sufferer from consumption or lung trouble. The answer naturally is "because I can't help it." But the consumptive can help it. Miller's Emulsion, made from Norwegian Cod Liver, and combined with the hypophosphites of lime and soda, will cure nine cases out of ten of consumption, and the tenth case can get a reprieve for a year or two. Now, what is what the consumptive requires, and Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, when taken, produces it. Miller's Emulsion is the great nerve strengthener and blood maker, and cures Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Scrophulous and all lung affections. In Big Bottles, 50c. and $1. at all Drug Stores.

Timely Warning.
The great success of the chocolate preparations of the house of Walter Baker & Co. established in 1780 has led to the placing on the market of many misleading and unscrupulous imitations of their name, labels, and wrappers. Walter Baker & Co. are the oldest and largest manufacturers of pure and high-grade Cocos and Chocolates on this continent. No chemicals are used in their preparations. Consumers should ask for, and be sure that they get, the genuine Walter Baker & Co.'s goods.

was a living skeleton; the doctor said he was dying of Marasmus and Indigestion. At 13 months he weighed only seven pounds. Nothing strengthened or fattened him. I began using Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites, feeding it to him and rubbing it into his body. He began to fatten and is now a beautiful plump boy. The Emulsion seemed to supply the one thing needed.

WHAT THE DEVIL ARE YOU DOING HERE?
"What the devil are you doing here?" he shouted. When he saw me he had a voice like a peacock.
"I have the honor to report to you, sir," said I, "that I have delivered your dispatch safely to the king of Spain."
"What," he yelled, and his two eyes transfixed me like bayonets. Oh, those dreadful eyes, shifting from gray to blue, like steel in the sunshine. I can see them now when I have had a bad dream.
"What has become of Charpentier?" he asked.
"He is captured," said McDonald.
"By whom?"
"The Cossacks!"
"No, a single Cossack!"
"He gave himself up!"
"Without resistance."
"He is an intelligent officer. You will see that the medal of honor is awarded to him."
When I heard these words I had to rub my eyes to make sure that I was awake. As to you, I cry, the emperor, taking a step forward if he would have struck me, "you brain of a hare, what do you think that you were sent upon this mission for? Do you conceive that I would send really important messages by such a man as you, and through every village which the enemy holds? How you came through them passes my comprehension, but if your fellow messenger had as little sense as you, my whole plan of campaign would have been ruined. Can you not see, colon, that this message contained false news and that it was intended to deceive the enemy whilst I put a very different scheme into execution?"

A CREATOR PREFERRED TO BEEL
not fallen forward with my nose in Violette's mane. My faith, it whistled just over my eye like an east wind. Of course it came from this measured uniform which, in my excitement, I had forgotten all about, and this young dragon had imagined that I was some Russian champion who was challenging the French cavalry. My word he was a frightened man when he understood how near he had been to killing the celebrated Brigadier Gerard.

When I heard these cruel words and saw the angry white face which glared at me, I had to hold the back of a chair, for my mind was falling me and my knees would hardly bear me up. But then I took courage, as I reflected that I was an honorable gentleman and that my whole life had been spent in toiling for this man.
"Sir," said I, and the tears would trickle down my cheeks whilst I spoke. "When you are dealing with a man like me you would find it wiser to deal openly. Had I known that you had wished the despatch to fall into the hands of the enemy, I would have seen that it came there. As I believed that I was to guard it I was prepared to sacrifice my life for it. I do not believe, sir, that any man in the world ever met with more noble and perilous than I have done in trying to carry out what I thought was your will."

Scott's Sarsaparilla
A BLOOD PURIFIER and spring medicine it surpasses all other compounds. It is a new medicine and contains newly discovered ingredients unknown to any other preparation.
IT ACTS WITH ENERGY ON THE LIVER, KIDNEYS AND PORES OF THE SKIN, expelling, by means of these organs, disease germs of scrofulous, inherited, or contagious humours which float in the blood, perspiration and urine.
THE NEW MEDICINE
Its most pronounced feature is its remarkable efficacy in eradicating poison and impurities from the blood, and building up the worn and debilitated parts of the system. Thus, in stubborn cases of scrofula and other diseases depending upon impure blood, quick results are obtained from its purifying and tissue-building properties.
