LUCKY WINNER OF RUG

Iona Smith of Brackley Point Road is congratulated by Mr. Alan Holman after Miss Smith's name was drawn as the lucky winner of a 9 x 12 rug given away during the Carpet Colorama Contest sponsored by R.T. Holman Ltd. The official presentation was made by Mr. Holman Friday evening.

Transportation; Causeway Problems Told To Rotary

Transportation to and from this province at present with the current facilities is inadequate, especially during the summer months, in the opinion of Clive Currie, Federal Department of Public Works District Engineer, who added "As the years go by it must deteriorate and will tend to become still more inadequate

Mr. Currie was addressing a joint meeting of Rotarians aboard the M.V Abegweit last night to an 'on the spot' discussion of the proposed causeway to connect this province with New Brunswick. The regular weekly meeting of the Charlottetown Rotary Club took the form of a supper meeting on the big ice breaker with members of the Summerside and Port Elgin, N.B., clubs as guests.

SOLUTIONS

Noting that a speedup in traffic across the Strait was the main problem, Mr. Currie mentioned four possible solutions. They were a tunnel, bridge, causeway and an expanded ferry service. He maintained the tunnel and bridge ideas were "Knocked out" by the high initial cost plus the cost of operation.

There remains only an expanded ferry service or a cuaseway to be considered, he said.

"Because no Federal government can afford to throw money away needlessly — a fact not too well understood by some of the general public — it becomes necessary to make a complete study of the economic feasibility of a causeway as compared to a ferry service. If such a study reveals that there is financial justification for a causeway, it can be built. Provided, of course, the government sees fit to build it and parliament votes the necessary money."

"An economic study of this nature could be divided into three parts:—

"(A) The real costs of operating the existing service plus additional costs that would be required to make and keep the service adequate."

"(b) The stimulus to the economy of P.E.I. and to a lesser extent, New Brunswick, if the causeway was built."

"(c) The real costs of a causeway in place, plus operating and maintenance costs."

"To determine the future costs of speeding the service and making it more efficient, it is necessary to secure a close approximation of the future traffic that would have to be handled."

"This can be done by an extrapolation of trend. That is, we assume that any increase in traffic will follow the same pattern that has been established in the past ans thus determine what it might be for any period in the future."

CLIVE CURRIE

"From the determined figure of future traffic will come the picture of equipment that will be required to handle it."

ONE NEW FERRY

"Let us assume that one new ferry is required at the present time to provide a reliable and regular service."

"As the ferry bluenose cost 7½ million dollars and was not constructed as an ice breaker. A ferry built today for the Borden-Tormentine run would cost in the neighbourhood of 10 million".

"Using this figure, we can calculate the annual interest and amortization, and add to it to an anticipated operating deficit. Thus we can arrive at the real costs for one additional ferry.

These costs would then be added to the present costs and the Rally Day Service Held At New Glasgow U. Church

Mrs. Blair Andrew presided at a well-atended W.M.S. Rally held in New Glasgow United Church on Saturday afternoon, October 25th.

The opening Worship Service was taken by members of Stanley Bridge auxiliary. Mrs. E.A.C. Haley thanked Miss Anna Stevenson for her cordial welcome to all present.

Mrs. J.S. MacLeod of Hunter River called the roll, and it was found that, besides representatives from many auxiliaries, practically a full slate of Presbyterial officers were present.

Mrs. F.W. Cutcliffe of Fredericton brought greetings from Presbyterial. Mrs. Russell Leard of Cascumpec gave some impressions of the Branch meeting held at Sackville in June.

Presbyterial treasurer, Miss Rhoda Brown presented a detailed report, and noted that there was an increase in givings of $800.00 over the same period last year.

Mrs. Alexander MacKay of Kensington, speaking as Missionary monthly and World Friends Secretary commended the auxiliaries for sending in their subscriptions early; and brought to the attention of those present, the very many fine features of both W.M.S. publications. Mrs. MacKay especially stressed the fact that all orders should be made payable, not to her personally, but to "The Missionary Monthly" or "World Friends".

Explorers Patsy and Marilyn Stevenson very sweetly sang "Fairest Lord Jesus", and later presented the Offering.

Supply secretary, Mrs. H.H. Hardy of Alberton, spoke of the work of her department, stating the need for parcels for Overseas, and listing the various articles which would be welcomed by the Port Worker in Halifax.

The Question Box provided a time of discussion which was entered into by many present, and much useful information was received in furtherance of the work of the W.M.S.

Rev. Anthony Ware of Breadalbane was the guest speaker, and brought to the gathering a thought-provoking message on the text from II Kings 7:9, "We do not well:: This is a day of good tidings and we hold our peace".

The meeting concluded with Benediction by Mr. Ware, after which delicious refreshments were served by New Glasgow W.M.S.

5 Plead Guilty Damage Charge In Co. Court

Five men pleaded guilty to charges of wilfully and without justification causing damage to private property in County Magistrate's Court Monday morning

The quintet had originally pleaded not guilty to the charges but changed their pleas yesterday.

One of the charges against a Glen Roy youth was withdrawn when it was noted he was only 15 years-old and was not eligible to be tried in Magistrate's Court.

Each of the other four was fined $25 and costs or 30 days. Two are residents of Savage Harbour, and two are Mount Stewart men.

J. Elmer Blanchard appeared for the defence.

A guilty plea to a charge of having possession of intoxicating liquor in a place other than his residence drew a fine of $20 and costs or 30 days for a Charlottetown man.

A resident of Tracadie Cross was fined $20 and costs or 15 days when he pleaded guilty to being intoxicated in a public place.

A Rustico man pleaded not guilty to a charge of having in his possession intoxicating liquor not purchased on his individual permit. The case was adjourned to November 3rd.

A resident of Chatham, N.B was fined $20 and costs or 10 days when he appeared on a speeding charge. In a similar charge a resident of Kinkora drew a $10 and costs fine or 10 days.

Failure to stop at a stop sign brought fines of $5 and costs or fifve days each to residents of Central Royalty and Stanhope.

A charge of hunting game birds without a licence against a Churchill youth was dismissed. Magistrate Gilbert A. Gaudet, told the court it was a hairline decision and the benefit of the doubt must go to the accused.

Donate $200 To Springhill Fund

The Clover Farm Stores of P. E.I. Division have donated $200 to the Springhill Disaster Fund.

The donation was approved at a meeting of the Clover Farm Advisory Board Monday. A cheque has been mailed to Mr. Pike, manager of the Bank of Commerce at Springhill.
