

IN MEMORIAM

JOHN JOHNSTON

On June 8 Mr. John Johnston, one of the oldest and most highly esteemed members of Kinkora parish, passed to his eternal reward following a brief illness.

Mr. Johnston will be remembered for his keen sense of humor, his strict honesty to everyone, and not least for his unswerving loyalty to and strong faith in his church and his Maker.

He was rewarded by being granted the rare privilege of having all the living members of his family with him at his death, including his son, Rev. Richard Johnston, S.J., who arrived from Guelph, Ont., to be with him during his last hours.

He received the last rites of the church which were administered by Rev. Vincent Murroughan. He leaves to mourn his death three sons, Harold, Summerside; Raymond, Central Bedeque, and Reverend Richard, S.J., Guelph; and two daughters, Mabel, Mrs. William Smith, Kinkora; and Jennie, Mrs. Alden Corr, Newton.

One daughter, Lauretta, Mrs. Owen Connolly, predeceased him eight years ago. Also left to mourn are two sisters, Mrs. Francis McCarville, Emerald, and Mrs. T. A. McIver, Summerside; one brother, Peter, New Glasgow, N.S., and a large number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

His largely attended funeral was held on June 11 from St. Malachi's Church, Kinkora. Solemn High Mass of Requiem was offered by Rev. Richard Johnston, S.J., with Rev. Phelan McKenna acting as Deacon and Rev. Vincent Murphy, S.J., as Subdeacon.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a.m. at St. Malachi's Church, Kinkora.

Interment was in Northwood Cemetery on June 16, 1953.

The sincere sympathy of the communities is extended to the bereaved family and relatives.
