WORTHLESS BANK NOTES.

A few days ago THE EXAMINER pointed out that during the recent election contest worthless notes of the Southern Confederacy of the United States, issued at the time of the war, had been put in circulation in Quebec. To-day we have to state that some of these notes have found their way to Charlotte town. Yesterday a Confederate note for $20, issued in 1866, was actually presented to a merchant in payment for goods. Fortunately the merchant noticed the worthless character of the paper, and he gave the holder, who pleaded ignorance as to its value, some wholesome advice. It has been openly stated that these worthless notes were used by agitators to secure votes in certain sections of the province of Quebec. But how did any of them find their way to Charlotte town? It cannot be that a swindle similar to that said to have been practiced in Quebec was attempted in this province.

PROMISES OF PREFERMENT.

The following interesting paragraph is taken from a recent issue of the Montreal Witness, a "truly good" organ of Liberalism: "Mr. Laurier has proceeded methodically and calmly with the work of organization. He has mapped out in his mind just what procedure he will pursue. The men he has selected are ready to step into the shoes assigned them. Some are disappointed, but to their credit it may be said that they are bearing this disappointment bravely, fully confident that Mr. Laurier has done the best which could be done under the circumstances. A few are looking forward to the future, having received promise of preferment when opportunity offers."

This is a rather frank admission for a paper of the pious pretensions of the Montreal Witness to make. Mr. Laurier is conciliating his supporters by promising them preferment when the opportunity presents itself! If the Witness heard of such tactics being pursued by the Conservatives how it would cry out against them. But all is serene now. With some newspapers, as with some people, everything depends upon whose ox is being gored.

AN INTERESTING EXPLANATION.

ELIZABETH, of Quebec, Mr. Laurier's own organ, which it may be pointed out, is edited by Ernest Pacaud, one of Mr. Laurier's nearest and dearest friends, thus explains the votes cast in the recent election by Manitoba and Quebec: "Latest reports from Manitoba inform us that the Liberals have only elected one of their candidates out of seven. The Prairie province has thus shown a unanimity in supporting the school policy of the Government that the province of Quebec has shown in condemning it. Nothing could better attest the intelligence and the clear-sightedness of the electorate of Manitoba, which pronounced unanimously at the last provincial elections against all preparation, considered that the Conservative party was the one which offered the best guarantee that no preparation would be accorded to the Catholics. The people of Quebec, who are not more stupid than those of Manitoba, also understood it thus, notwithstanding the false direction that was given them in certain quarters through the inspiration of vulgar intriguers. Can we imagine for an instant that Manitoba, which is unanimously in favor of the Greenway government, would rally en masse to the support of Sir Charles Tupper if he so much discussed school education? Remedial Billy would in any manner whatever have rendered justice to the Catholics? This fact alone suffices to make us deeply regret that certain men, either through prejudice or ignorance, attempted to swerve the people of this province from their duty."

This is a very important declaration, and it should not be lost sight of. The substance of it is that at the recent general election the people of Quebec voted for a degree of preparation to the minority in Manitoba greater than that which the Tupper administration would grant. It remains to be seen how Mr. Laurier and Mr. Tarte will act.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

—Montreal Gazette: Mr. Laurier has formally entered on his ministerial duties, and is now President of the Privy Council. If you do not feel yourself getting rich, there must be something wrong with the combination. —Manitoba has before it the prospect of another bountiful harvest. The quantity so far as ascertained is, while not equal to 1895, will still be very large. The condition of the crops to date is fine and compares favorably with the best of previous years. —Late advices from St. John's, Nfld., show that Premier Whiteley received a crushing reverse from his party on Monday. He moved in the assembly to reduce the contingent vote to $20,000 from the present vote of $35,000, but his supporters rebelled because it involved a reduction of their own sessional allowances. Only one member out of 24 supported Whiteley. —The official statement of revenue and expenditure for the month of June shows the revenue to be $2,797,704 and the expenditure $1,909,413, an increase of $95,059 in the former, and a decrease of $25,359 in the latter as compared with June a year ago. The total revenue for the twelve months is $32,553,775 and the expenditure $30,557,274, showing a surplus of $1,996,501. At this time last year the surplus was only $1,822,713. —Moncton Times: The third plank in the famous Liberal platform is entitled as follows: "Purity of administration—condemn corruption." It is in the condemnation of corruption and to secure purity of administration that the two great pending departments in the Laurier Government are placed under the control of Blair and Tarte? —FORESTERS EXCURSION: A goodly number of foresters from Malpeque, Kensington, Beauce and Summerside, left yesterday morning on an excursion to Moncton, where a reception was tendered them by the Moncton brethren. They all had a good time.

A FRIGHTFUL CATASTROPHE.

Thirty Thousand People Killed in Five Minutes—Property Destroyed. SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 13.—The Tokio correspondent of the United Press, writing under date of June 26th, describing the devastation wrought by the seismic wave on June 10th, says that at half-past eight o'clock in the evening the wave struck the northeast coast of the mainland throughout a distance of about 200 miles, and in 5 minutes 30,000 people were killed, 7,500 injured and 12,000 houses destroyed. From the island of Rinku San, on the south, to Hachinoe on the north, the coast of Rinku and Rinku provinces assume a convex shape. Throughout the whole of this low-lying area nearly every town and every village was visited by the wave. The portion between Motoyoshi and Yamada suffered most severely. The general direction of the wave appears to have been north by east, and after carrying devastation to the shore of the mainland it left Yezo on the west, touching that island at Yezo Cape only. The inhabitants of numerous towns and hamlets along the coast were celebrating the "Bays Festival." There is much difficulty in obtaining accurate statements as to the phenomena that preceded the final catastrophe. Several accounts agree that it was about 7 o'clock. There or fear shock of earthquake were felt, not violent, though of the vertical kind that follows in Japan. The barometer gave no indication of anything unusual. Some 20 or 25 minutes later a booming sound became audible from the direction of the sea. It appears to have been variously interpreted. Some construed it to be the noise of a coming gale, others supposed that a huge school of sardines had reached the cove. Only a very few suspected the real significance of the sound and fled inland at the top of their speed. Rapidly the noise increased in volume and the volume and deafening din of a great work of artillery, and then in a moment waves 20 to 30 feet high were thundering against the shore. Of the three prefectures visited by the waves, Iwato had far the largest aggregate of disasters, its list of dead amounting to 20,000. At Kanishi, a little seaside town, three avalanches of water rushed forward, and in less than two minutes the town was virtually annihilated. Out of 1,222 dwellings only 145 remained standing, and out of a population of 6,557 death had overtaken 4,700, and 509 lay wounded. In completeness of destruction this record heads the list. The work of the waves was, however, nearly as appalling at several other points. Inexpressible was the fate of some of the fishermen. Returning shoreward in the early morning after the catastrophe they received their first notice of what had occurred by finding the corpses of their wives and children floating in the water. At points closer to the centre of the disturbance, however, the commotion in the distance was perceptible at a much greater distance from the shore. Thus a party of fishermen who were out looking for fish off the Shishikawa coast, heard, as they supposed, the booming of big guns in the distance. Soon afterwards, looking seaward they saw the surface of the ocean heave in huge waves, which, after rising to mountainous height, broke in the middle and swept northward and southward, ultimately striking the shore with a deafening crash. The waves passed under the boats and over the heads of the men, but the water in the vicinity of the shore remained so rough throughout the night that the fishermen could not make land until the morning, when they found their wives and children dead and their houses in ruin. The scenes presented by the devastated districts are shocking. Along the beaches the timbers of wrecked houses lie piled up like brushwood. Most of the roofs of thatched thatched sheltered happy families a few days ago in quiet country nooks, are strewn pell mell on the sands. Here houses that have had their walls torn away, stand mere skeletons others have been wrenched from their foundations, telescoped into each other, tumbled up and down, or heaped together in shattered confusion. In one instance the immense amount of water running up a narrow channel from their homes, and on their houses on either side and drove them to the terrific force into the high land ahead, where they now lie, crushed into a confused mass of timber and wreckage of all kinds, the grave of many mangled bodies. The government is making vigorous measures of relief, and liberal subscriptions are pouring into the newspaper offices.

CORTICELLI AND THE WORLD'S FAIR. The Chicago World's Fair medals and diplomas have at length been distributed, much to the gratification, we may be assured, of those who are entitled to receive them. Mr. W. H. Wyman, manager of the Corticelli Silk Co., at St. John's, has received through the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa, the medal and diploma awarded to their company. The medal is of bronze, enclosed in an aluminum case, and we presume it is similar to all the medals issued at the great fair. The diploma is a large and handsome steel engraving, and under the ordinary heading contains the following special award: CORTICELLI SILK CO., (CANADA), St. John's, Province of Quebec. Exhibit: Spool Silk. AWARD. For spool embroidery and sewing silk, machine and hand button-hole twist, embroidery knitting and rope silk, filo and telephone silk, and other silks for manufacturing purposes. These silks are of a superior quality, pure dyes and good twists of great strength. All wash silks, warranted fast colors, will stand washing without injury to color or texture. They are most intricate and of a variety of kinds and sizes, put up both in skeins and on spools, for decorative art embroidery, and are most valuable, especially for the very large variety of shades in every color. This exhibit deserves mention for the unique display of reeling raw silk cocoons, and an interesting feature with this silk reel is the electrical heating of the water in the small basin which contains the cocoons. H. J. KIMBALL, ELA E. LANE BOWEN, Pres. Depart Com. Individual Judge. This is certainly very emphatic and gratifying testimony of the excellent, if not indeed almost perfect quality of the silk manufactured by the Corticelli Silk Company in St. John's, and it is the more significant from the fact that the award was not made until after the most careful scrutiny and repeated tests and examinations. The Corticelli Silk Company in Canada, and the impartial endorsement as to the quality of its output will, no doubt, be sure to enhance it still further in public estimation. Blood purified, disease cured, sickness and suffering prevented—this is the record made each year by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Colonel Aymer Appointed Adjutant-General of Militia. OTTAWA, July 15. The new Ministers assumed formal charge of their respective departments yesterday. An extra of the Canada Gazette has been issued, summoning Parliament for Wednesday, 19th August. Mr. Davies remarked to me yesterday that the only business which the House would be asked to pass would be the estimates, and that every effort would be made to close up the business of the session as speedily as possible. One of Mr. Davies' first official acts was to cause a notice to be issued that the closer season for lobsters would be rigidly enforced this year. It commences south of Cape Canso on July 15th, and north of the Cape on July 30th. At a Cabinet meeting, Col. Aymer was appointed Adjutant-General of Militia. TELEGRAPHIC. SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER. MEETING OF PARLIAMENT. Every Effort will be Made to Close Business Quickly. THE CLOSE SEASON FOR LOBSTERS. Colonel Aymer Appointed Adjutant-General of Militia. OTTAWA, July 15. The new Ministers assumed formal charge of their respective departments yesterday. An extra of the Canada Gazette has been issued, summoning Parliament for Wednesday, 19th August. Mr. Davies remarked to me yesterday that the only business which the House would be asked to pass would be the estimates, and that every effort would be made to close up the business of the session as speedily as possible. One of Mr. Davies' first official acts was to cause a notice to be issued that the closer season for lobsters would be rigidly enforced this year. It commences south of Cape Canso on July 15th, and north of the Cape on July 30th. At a Cabinet meeting, Col. Aymer was appointed Adjutant-General of Militia. Sir Charles Tupper is en route for Halifax.
