PLANS MADE

Also on hand were Mayor I. W. Akers of Dartmouth, N.S.; Robert Macnamara, manager of Nova Scotia's Provincial Development Corporation...

Brig. Wardell said the board has been set up to "set a grass-roots in standards based on the Atlantic provinces."

"We mean to hold a series of meetings in the four Atlantic provinces. We shall set up the necessary machinery for expert assessment and appraisal."

Dr. A. E. Kerr, president of Dalhousie University, made the first submission to the board. He urged study of the financial needs of Maritime universities.

He described them as "being pushed out of the big league of Canadian universities" by a low level of financial support.

He suggested the present system of federal aid based on provincial population is unfair to Maritime universities.

DOUGLAS E. MacLEOD Is President Of CFCCS

A junior arts student at St. Dunstan's University, Douglas E. MacLeod, New Waterford, N.S., has been elected national president of the Confederation of Francophone Canadian Cultural Societies (CFCCS)...

Mr. MacLeod was elected at the national convention held in Halifax this past weekend. He is the youngest person to be elected president of the CFCCS...

The organization will truly express the united voice of Roman Catholic college students across the country, and that it will be a force for good on both the national and international levels...

For the ceremony, Premier Walter T. Stewart said "It is fitting and gratifying that today, touching on the need for a change in our thinking, should be the day when Confederation was launched. We are indebted to you for bringing to our attention the importance of a very live topic in Canada today."

"We sincerely trust that the spirit that brought about Confederation may dominate future developments and the ultimate desire of our country is the establishment of greater understanding and the strengthening of our ties with the rest of the world."

At the conclusion of the portion of the ceremony held in the Confederation Chamber, the group adjourned to a roped-off space outside where the band southwest of the Provincial Building, for the soft-landing by Premier Stewart.

Hundreds of spectators crowded around in mid-town temporarily under bright, many signs as the sod was turned in a specially loosened plot of earth.

After lifting out a shovel of earth, Premier Stewart was seen to drop a handful into a bucket. Turning to Premier Shaw, he said "If that grows it will be known as the Herbert L. Shaw 'Rain Tree'."
