CORRESPONDENCE.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions or statements of our correspondents.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—Having been asked by Mr. Robert Mooney, to give a statement of facts in connection with what is known as "Bowers' attack on Protestants at the Byrne's Road Meeting," I cheerfully comply.
I need hardly state further than that Mr. Mooney's version is strictly correct. Mr. Bowers made a malicious attack upon Protestants, which I think Mr. Bowers himself will not deny. But to the credit of the independent people of Byrne's Road, they, almost to a man, expressed their disapproval of Mr. Bowers' conduct in trying to stir up sectarian feeling among the electors.
Yours truly,
D. H. DOUGLAS.

Summerside.

SCOTT ACT TRIALS.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—Proceedings have commenced in the Police Court against seven offenders, viz:—Donald Campbell, Daniel Noonan, William Waters, David Grady, Michael B. Connick, George Muttart, and Patrick Keefe. Michael B. Connick was tried this morning and fined fifty dollars—first offence. Keefe and Muttart were fined one hundred dollars each—second offence. The others will be tried on Tuesday, and, judging from the evidence available, they will probably share the same fate. When these cases are disposed of, proceedings will be taken against the balance of our offenders.
Judging from present appearances, liquor selling can scarcely prove a paying business in Summerside.

I furnish these facts for the encouragement of the friends of the Scott Act, throughout the Province.
SCOTT.
July 24, 1882.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—I am rather surprised that the gentleman upon whom Mr. Mooney called to give an account of what took place at the Byrne's Road meeting did not do so. With your leave, Mr. Editor, I will give a brief but true account.

I can heartily endorse all that has been written by Mr. Mooney in reference to Mr. Bowers' attack upon Protestants; he (Mr. Bowers) openly and grossly attacked and insulted them. In speaking of the Government, he asked: "What could the Catholics expect from such a man as—(mentioning a prominent Protestant member of the Government) the arch-bigot of Charlottetown;" and the other members of the Government were treated no better. "Elect me," he says, "to Parliament, and I will see that Catholics get their rights, and not be like outcasts, as at present." He then went into a general tirade of abuse of Mr. Sullivan, for giving equal rights to Protestants with Catholics; and for supporting such an institution as the Prince of Wales College, etc.

Over the signature of "Neil Myers," a man who can neither read nor write, there appeared a letter in the New Era, in which there was nothing from beginning to end but a tissue of falsehoods. This Neil Myers claims to be a "sensitive Protestant." Oh, what a Prot stant! Has he ever been to a Protestant Church? What Church does he belong to, and when did he join the Church? If the truth were known, it would be found he is a "Nothingarian."
I think, Mr. Editor, that instead of publishing Myers' letter, Mr. Bowers should have been more honest and owned up like a man. Hoping that you will give this a corner in your valuable paper,
I remain,
A CATHOLIC WHO WAS PRESENT.

Personal.

QUEEN VICTORIA has determined that her birthday shall be celebrated on the actual anniversaries of her natal day, and not, as has been the case in recent years, on days selected for the purpose.
A NEW musical genius has arisen in London. He is a boy named Galatti. His performances are extraordinary, and his rapturous admirers think they have found a new Mozart.

An exchange, commenting upon the expenses of a large family and the present high price of meat, says:—"Give the children plenty of bread, milk and oatmeal, and they will be much stronger and healthier than if plied with meat three times a day. Lots of good milk in the children's rosy and healthy, and it is cheaper to buy milk than to pay war and famine prices for less healthful food."

WHEN tomatoes were first discovered to be an article of food nobody would eat them. People kept them at arms length, the same as they do now frogs and eels. By and by the tomato came into general favor and now every body eats it. The doctors say that the tomato is the parent of cancer; but the doctors are always finding out something to make people feel uncomfortable. Not satisfied with discovering that the tomato is the parent of cancer, they have gone to work and discovered that the strawberry is injurious to the human system, on account of the seeds, which penetrate the vitals. It would be a great blow to the human species to have to give up the tomato; it would be simply unbearable to have to surrender its strawberry. Besides, it would play the mischief with the churches, the foundations of many of which seem to be bedded in strawberries and cemented with cream.

"It is not pleasant to hear," says the United Presbyterian, "that the President of the United States goes fishing, and holds conferences for political purposes on the Sabbath, and attends horse races in Washington. Probably he does not do these things, or perhaps he is only guilty of some, but the charges are that he does them all. The tone of his administration is certainly not religious. But it must not be concluded because of this he is the most godless of the Presidents. Other men broke the Sabbath, went to horse races, etc., in the face of a religious public."

GENERAL NEWS.

Marriage is like a corset string. It is the tie that binds.

A good thing to have, especially in hot weather—a cool million.

The Connecticut Supreme Court of Error has decided that women are eligible for admission as attorneys.

Londoners are extremely glad to hear of the approaching return of Sir Alexander Galt, who is extremely popular in society.

The young farmers of the United Kingdom with small capital are more and more becoming alive to the advantages of Canada in general and Manitoba in particular.

The Boston Post of Friday reports five cases of death by lockjaw, as having occurred in New England the previous day, all from the use of the toy pistol on the 4th July.

A German giantess named Marian, 16 years old, eight feet two inches high, and still growing, has been engaged to take the part of an American queen in "Babel and Bijou" at a London theatre.

The millennium must be at hand. Orangemen and Catholics united at a picnic at Boston on the 12th inst., an anniversary that has kept up civil war between them for generations. Not a single blow or angry word marred the festivities.

Lady Mary Campbell, sister of the Marquis of Lorne, was married last Wednesday to the Rev. E. Carr Glyn, Vicar of Kingston, England. The wedding gathering was a very brilliant one, including many members of the Royal Family.

Two Michigan girls went bathing in Lake Huron, and had fun riding on a log at first; but a wind blew them several miles from the shore, and for thirty-six hours they were burned by day, chilled by night, and tortured by hunger, before a boat picked them up.

The carpenters are fitting up a number of excursion cars near the Moncton workshops on the Intercolonial Railway. The cars have the ordinary platforms, and the carriages are arranged so that when the picnic season is ended they can be removed and the cars used for ordinary purposes.

It is reported that the Galliar Gold Mining Co., at Isaac's Harbor, have found the "strike" on the Mulgrave lode, which some time since had more than a local reputation. A former owner, after sinking a shaft 235 feet, abandoned it, still confident that it was near at hand. By continuing this shaft only five feet the strike was found.

In the contest for the Kolapore Challenge Cup the Canadian team were defeated by the home team by 16 points only. They in turn have the satisfaction, however, of defeating the Jersey and Guernsey teams. The Prince and Princess of Wales visited the Canadian camp and Her Royal Highness pinned the badge upon the breast of Lieut. Mitchell, of the 32nd Batt., the fortunate winner of the Prince of Wales' prize.

The North Carolina church-goer who sang so loudly and discordantly in church as to annoy other worshippers, and was indicted as a nuisance, has won his case. The language of the Court is: "The disturbance of a congregation by singing, when the singer does not intend so to disturb it, but is conscientiously taking part in the religious services, may be a subject for the discipline of his church, but not indictable."

China is something of a country. It has four hundred canals, equal to all the rest in the world. Some of them are five thousand years old; the longest was dug six hundred years ago, and is twice as long as the Erie Canal. That Titanic wall of defence, the Chinese Wall, was built more than one hundred years B. C.; it is from twenty to thirty feet high, fifteen feet broad, and fifteen hundred miles long, and represents more labor than any other structure on the globe.

England, with all its blessings of Free Trade and "Reform" Government, presents the following picture:—Revenue returns for the past half year present some hopeful features. Trade is, however, in a bad condition. On all sides, and in every kind of trade, with but two or three exceptions, there are the same discouraging features. Everywhere production is, temporarily, at all events, in excess of demand, and prices are falling proportionally in consequence.

Very few people know what a narrow escape Sir Beauchamp Seymour had at Alexandria when the Europeans were massacred there the other day; but from his own lips the fact is correct. Both he and the French Admiral were returning to their ships when they found themselves stopped by a riot. They had to leave their carriages, and going on foot they were much hustled, and really had a very close shave of being among the number of those who were killed. An English and French admiral hors de combat would have roused both nations to some rather determined line of action.

Recently, says an English exchange, a large number of emigrants started from the St. Pancras terminus of the Midland Railway for Liverpool, en route to Canada. At Liverpool they will be joined by a large contingent, so that the whole number of emigrants to sail to-day by the Allan Line mail packet Parisian will exceed 250. For the most part the emigrants consist of female domestic servants, agriculturists, laborers, carpenters, masons, bricklayers and humble artisans, whose passage has been paid and other expenses materially defrayed by the London Samaritan Society, the Baroness Burdett-Coutts, and other philanthropic persons. They go out in charge of Mr. John James Jones, one of the principal promoters of the Samaritan Society, who has within the last two months made five voyages of a kindred kind across the Atlantic.
