TCA Service To Mexico City Is Postponed

MONTREAL, (CP) — A new Trans-Canada Air Lines service due to start Saturday between Montreal, Toronto and Mexico City has been postponed indefinitely because of objections raised by United States authorities.

A TCA spokesman announced the postponement Thursday night and said it will continue until the difficulties are overcome.

TCA now operates from Montreal and Toronto to Tampa, Florida. It wanted to extend that service to Mexico City. It planned to use the same planes for passengers that were getting off at Tampa and for those continuing to Mexico City.

American authorities objected and said that two types of traffic should not be carried on the one plane.

The TCA spokesman said use of separate planes for flights to Tampa and for flights on to Mexico City would be costly.
