

Wins Baking Prizes at Bear River Fair

There's plenty of friendly competition in the home-baking section of the Digby County Fair at Bear River, N.S., and a consistent winner is Miss Helen L. Woodworth, of Bear River. In yeast-raised baking especially it's been nip and tuck, and Miss Woodworth credits her yeast with giving her the edge. "Ingredients are so important—and I'm extra careful about the yeast I use," says Miss Woodworth. "For years I've been baking with Fleischmann's. I always find Fleischmann's Yeast is good and lively. I know I can depend on it."

That's what the majority of prize-winning cooks say! You get finest results with Fleischmann's Yeast—proved dependable for 83 years.

Gerald Waring Reporting

OTTAWA—Trade and Production Minister Howe, for all his great ability to get things done, is often a source of embarrassment to the Government. One reason is that he's never learned to curb his tongue, and at 65 it seems to be too late for him to learn.

With five by-elections coming up, four of them less than three weeks away, the Government might be expected to be extra cautious not to give the Opposition anything on which it could capitalize. But the "C" in C.D. Howe's initials stands for Clarence, not cautious.

Thus in their election propaganda buildup, the Opposition has been making the most of Howe's most recent verbal outburst in the Commons.

Howard Green (PC, Vancouver Quadra) had been expressing concern over the fate of British preferential tariffs, and wondered if the Government might not abolish them "if they felt they could get away with it so far as the public were concerned."

"Who would stop us?" Howe jeered. "Don't take yourself too seriously. If we wanted to get away with it, who would stop us?"

Considering the overwhelming number of Liberals in the Commons (189 as compared with a total Opposition of 69), and the tight rein the Government holds on its supporters, Howe's remark was nothing more than a blunt statement of fact. But politically it was inopportune, because it provided ammunition for the anti-Government Parties.

In a national broadcast a few days later, able, incisive John Diefenbaker (PC, Lake Centre), whose accusing finger pointed in prosecuting attorney fashion off on riles Howe to anger, answered the Minister. "Who is there to stop us?" he repeated. "We, the people."

PC Leader George Drew made the same point when he told a Party meeting that Howe's arrogant statement was not only a challenge to the dignity and powers of Parliament, but was an affront to every Canadian.

Prime Minister St. Laurent probably isn't worried over his chief lieutenant's unpolitic statement. The PM has been just as politically incautious himself—as when he praised the Duplessis Government for getting the Quebec-Labrador development under way. And Howe is probably more amused than anything else, remembering the tempest his remark of "What's a million?" caused before the last election, and how little effect it had on the result.

HIGHFIELD W. I.

The May meeting of Highfield W. I. met at the home of Mrs. John Good with an attendance of fourteen members. The president presided and the meeting opened with the creed. The roll was called, and the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Mrs. Perley Taylor then gave a report from the District Convention executive meeting which she and Mrs. Lemuel MacKinnon attended. It was decided there that each Institute concerned should pay $2.50 towards the expenses of the convention.

The various committees were heard from next. The sick committee reported that one visit had been made. The school committee was absent.

The hall committee stated that during the past month the following activities had taken place, several card parties, an amateur concert, and the presentation for three evenings of a play produced by

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. JOHN W. MCKENNA

On Thursday morning April 5th, there passed away in Charlottetown, a gentle soul in the person of Mrs. John W. McKenna of Kelly's Cross; formerly Katherine Trainor of Maplewood. Although Mrs. McKenna, who was in her seventy-second year, had not been well for several years and her death was not unexpected, her passing was, nevertheless, a shock to her relatives, neighbours and many friends.

Katie, as she was familiarly known, was of a very kind and friendly disposition. Intelligent and well educated, she was a good conversationalist and this with her cheerful nature, made her a pleasant companion to young and old. Katie was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter Trainor of Maplewood. She received her early education at the local school, and later obtained a teaching license at Prince of Wales College. She taught for almost twenty years in various schools in this province, namely: Stanchell, Lady Pan, Emerald and Victoria. Her ability as a teacher was well known, and she was recognized as one of the best in the profession at that time. Many of the men and women from the above-mentioned districts who now hold important positions in church and state, owe a great measure of their success to their diligent and thorough teacher, who laid the foundations upon which they successfully built.

In 1919, she married John W. McKenna of Kelly's Cross and from that time devoted herself to the very important duties of wife and mother. But while she had ended her career as an active teacher, she retained her interest in the school and in education, and was ever ready to help in any way that would be for the benefit of the district.

In Church work too, she was a competent and energetic worker. She was not only an active member of the Catholic Women's League, but also for many years assisted in the teaching of Catechism in St. Joseph's Church. The care of the altar and sanctuary was one of her chief interests, and she spent many hours in this labour of love. A labour which, we may be sure, has ere now had its full reward in Heaven.

In spite of the spring mud and very difficult travelling, her funeral was very largely attended. It took place from her late residence in Kelly's Cross to St. Joseph's Church on Saturday, April 7th. The pastor, Rev. Kenneth Macdonald, sang the Requiem Mass, and recited the committal prayers at the grave. Then, all that was mortal of a kind and noble lady was tenderly laid to rest.

The pall bearers were: Mr. Frank Roach, Mr. John P. Carragher, Mr. Peter Hughes, Mr. John Molyneux, Mr. Ambrose Monaghan and Mr. John W. Trainor.

Besides her sorrowing husband, there are left to mourn their loss, one daughter, Mrs. Emmett Martin of Grand Tracadie, and one son, Kevin, of Charlottetown, as well as the following brothers and sisters: John E. Trainor, Maplewood; Horace, of Halifax; Charles in Saskatchewan and Anthony in Alberta. The sisters are Mrs. Emily Smith of Maplewood and Mrs. F. J. Flood of Charlottetown. Two brothers and two sisters predeceased her.

The large number of Masses, spiritual bouquets and messages of sympathy was eloquent testimony to the high regard in which she was held by all who knew her. May she rest in peace.

Especially for Brownies Here I am again Brownies, but what do you think happened? A really dreadful thing—I lost my Brownie Smile and couldn't find it anywhere for four whole days, but after a lot of searching it turned up yesterday. I had left it in my fancy bed jacket pocket and it had been put away in a drawer where I could not get it. Now I am going to keep it anywhere else, maybe under my pillow and I shall take great care not to lose it again. Since coming here I have learned how many Brownie names I have spelled incorrectly. Nerine and Margaret MacLean, an really sorry Nerine but I shall not do it again. Your card was so funny that all the nurses give the wheel a turn to see another face. Joyce Lynn Stewart of Parkdale, your letter was lovely and I wish you lots more success in Guiding.

The following is a write-up of a successful Guide event at Marshfield by Mrs. Hector Jenkins (Lieut.)

Marshfield Guide Co. Friday, June 1st, was a busy day for the Marshfield Guide Co. The girls, looking smart in their uniforms, served tea to their mothers and friends and also to Mrs. Houston and Miss Rowland who were present to pass the girls for their hostess and cook badges. The girls, with Miss Mayle Boswell's cooperation, combined their achievement day exercises with an afternoon tea. Marshfield Hall, where the tea was served, was attractively decorated with spring flowers which also centered the tea table. Guide Barbara Jenkins poured the tea and she was assisted in serving by Irene and Betty Foster, Millicent and Marguerite Munn, Jane Wood, Margaret Scott and Lona Scott. At the close of the tea, Mrs. Houston and Miss Rowland complimented the girls on their manner of serving and the quality of the food. Betty Foster then thanked Mrs. Boswell for her patience and kindness during their course.

I really think the girls had more fun the day before the tea, when they donned slacks and armed with brooms, scrubbing brushes, buckets and wax, they tackled the job of cleaning up the hall. If anyone would like to know a novel way to polish floors which is loads of fun and makes a splendid job, just contact Marshfield Guides. How about it, girls?

We did miss Mrs. F. S. Jenkins who always seems a part of our Guide activities, and we hope she will soon be able to visit us again.

Card Of Thanks
