

BUT IT'S CONFEDERATE MONEY

FLORIDA—George Gable, 71, found the money he needed to build a farmhome on a 100-acre tract in a farmhome he had bought more than 100 years ago. He found the money in the basement of the old plantation house, which he had bought in 1864. The money was in Confederate dollars, and he had to exchange them for U.S. dollars.
