Charlottetown following two months of what he termed "a wonderful trip with a wonderful group of men to a wonderful country."

And he might have added they made a wonderful showing both in their curling and their impressions upon their guests. The team of which Mr. Hughes was a member ranked third among the Canadian teams in games won and lost and also in shots scored.

But Mr. Hughes had his greatest success of the trip in Switzerland. In a small Alpine town 6,000 feet above sea-level his team won a two-day bonspiel defeating the Swiss Champion team in the final.

Mr. Hughes thought highly of the open air rink at the end of which were the words in blocks of ice "Welcome Canada." They played in a ten below zero weather in shirt sleeves and were badly sunburned.
