

Local and Other Items.

THE MAILS.—No crossing at the Capes today.

JOB PRINTING, neatly, cheaply and promptly done at THE EXAMINER OFFICE.

DONT FORGET.—A meeting of the active members of the Y. M. C. A. will be held to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock.

REPLY TO MR. MACDOUGALL.—Councillor MacRae desires us to state that his reply to Mr. MacDougal's letter will appear to-morrow.

STIPENDIARY MAGISTRATE'S COURT.—Eight Scott Act cases constituted the docket at the Stipendiary Magistrate Court this forenoon. One was dismissed, and seven others adjourned.

ICEBOUND.—A recent Halifax despatch says: "Twenty-five thousand bushels of potatoes, in five vessels, are icebound in King's County, and await transportation to the United States."

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—A meeting of temperance workers will be held at McLeod's Hall this evening, at 8 o'clock. All canvassing committees of the different wards are requested to be present.

LITERARY AND SCIENTIFIC SOCIETY.—Mr. Morrison will read his paper on the Progress of Electricity this evening at 8 o'clock. The snow should not prevent any member from attending.

ICE BUSHED.—The ice on the rivers has been brushed for the winter. We notice that this year the work has been done well, large sized and close limbed bushes being used to mark the winter track.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—Our thanks are due Mr. M. G. Macleod, formerly of Charlottetown, but now a member of the firm of Potter & Macleod, real estate brokers, Omaha, Neb., for late Omaha papers.

ON THE ISLAND.—It is reported that Frank C. McNeally, the young man who stole the money and bonds from the Saco, Me. Savings Bank, is at present on the Island, having crossed to Georgetown in the Northern Light on Monday.

SUCCESSFUL ISLANDERS.—The Provincial Record publishes the names of those who sent correct answers to the Scripture References. Among the names we notice those of J. A. Robertson, Baldwin's Road, D. A. McRae, Canoe Cove, and Mary A. Lamont, Springton.

HER HUSBAND LIVING.—It may not be generally known, says the Journal, that Mrs. Scott-Siddons has a husband living, and that he is an Islander, a Mr. Chanter, son of Mr. T. B. Chanter, who a good many years ago carried on business at Port Hill in this country.

WRECK SALE.—The schr. Volant, as she now lies stranded at Sonris, was sold at auction on Monday last for the benefit of all concerned. The hull, spars, etc., were purchased by Mr. J. G. Sterns for $125. The main boom and gaffs were purchased by Mr. Matthew Fahie.

A SUGGESTION.—A correspondent asks: "Would it not be a good idea for the City Fathers to expend a little money among the many unemployed persons throughout the city by engaging them to assist in the removal of the snow which at present greatly impedes traffic?"

GIVEN UP AS LOST.—By private letter from Gloucester, Mass., we regret to hear that three of the Gloucester George's Bank fleet are missing, and have been given up as lost. The names of the crew are not given. We sincerely hope that there are no P. F. Islanders among the missing.

PERSONAL.—Archbishop O'Brien has gone to New York.

REV. DR. RAND, Missionary, is well and favorably known on the Island, is seriously ill at Halifax.

James G. Blain is in Venice.

Mr. Haxen, the new Mayor of Fredericton, N. B., is only 27 years of age.

A TOTAL WRECK.—On Sunday night last Capt Morris, of the schooner E. Chambers, was obliged to abandon his vessel in Digby Gut. Later on the schooner drifted ashore and was, at latest accounts, breaking up. The crew landed at Point Prim lighthouse, and four hundred barrels of oil will be saved. The vessel will be a total wreck. The Chambers was en route to St. John from New York. She was owned by St. John.

NATIONAL ART GALLERY.—There are at present upward of one hundred works of art in the National Art Gallery at Ottawa, all of which, with the exception of three purchased by the Government, have been donated by artists and others in sympathy with the institution. Senator Haythorne's contribution sent in last year, consists of a beautiful oil painting entitled "Madonna and the child." The present value of the objects in the gallery is estimated at $30,000. There were 11,934 visitors to the gallery during the past year, upwards of 3,000 more than in the previous year.

CORRECTION.—Our attention has been called to an article in THE EXAMINER of the 13th inst., signed "A.," respecting the trial of Millman for the murder of Mary Tuplin, wherein it is stated that "Mr. F. Peters has been retained by the Tuplin family to assist the Attorney-General." We are authorized to say that this statement is wholly incorrect. Mr. Peters has been retained by the Attorney-General in the usual way as junior counsel, and the Tuplin family have had nothing whatever to do with such retainer, nor was the retainer first offered to any other counsel, as stated in the article to which we refer.

CATHOLICS IN QUEBEC.—Le Courier du Canada gives the following statistics with regard to the Roman Catholic church of the Province of Quebec. It says there are at this moment in that Province 1,485,000 Roman Catholics, directed by one Cardinal, two Archbishops, one Apostolic Prefect, and 1,546 priests and religious. They have 938 churches, 28 seminaries and colleges, 232 convents and hospitals. The different ecclesiastical provinces into which the province is divided is peopled as follows by Catholics: Quebec, 729,000; Montreal, 619,000; Ottawa, 137,000. In the dioceses of Quebec there are 663 priests, 411 churches and 108 convents, 10 seminaries and colleges, 25 hospitals, and 1,927 schools.

F. W. KISSMAN & Co.—Gentlemen: For some time I have contemplated sending you a line or two expressive of the great value Mrs. Bradee and myself place upon Adamson's Balsam, which we have used for years with ever-increasing satisfaction. It is a most excellent remedy for coughs, and an agreeable medicine to take. Chas. W. Bradee, Pastor Methodist Episcopal Church, Augusta, Me. Trial size 10 cents. dy 1w

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

A Clergyman Released.

DUBLIN, Jan. 18. Father Matthew Ryan, the priest imprisoned at Limerick a month ago for inciting people to illegal acts in connection with the plan of campaign, was released to-day. Ten thousand persons collected around the prison, and when he emerged he was received with prolonged cheers. The Mayor, Sheriff, Municipal Council and many members of the clergy crowded around him, and congratulated him upon his release. The priest was driven to a hotel. The police force and military were on duty to prevent disorder. A crowd escorted Father Ryan 14 miles to his parish at Herbertstown. The police followed the whole distance, and were delayed half way by a car drawn across the road. Father Ryan was thus enabled, on his arrival home, to address the people without interference. He advised the tenants to adopt the plan of campaign.

Sentenced to Imprisonment.

LONDON, Jan. 18. The trial of Cunningham, E. Graham, member for Lanarkshire, and Burns, the Socialist leader, for participation in the riots near Trafalgar Square November 13th, began yesterday and was concluded to-day. The prisoners were declared not guilty of the charges of rioting and assault, but guilty of the charge of taking part in an unlawful assembly in Trafalgar Square. Both were sentenced to two weeks imprisonment without hard labor.

The Vacant Bishopric.

HALIFAX, Jan. 18. Archdeacon Gilpin has issued a circular to the Synod, calling it for February 1st. He regrets that no reply has been received from the Archbishop of Canterbury, notwithstanding the efforts of the Nova Scotia committee to meet the requirements of that high ecclesiastic, and suggests that the Synod will probably have to elect its own Bishop after all.

Heavy Snowstorm.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Jan. 18. The heavy snowstorm which prevailed yesterday had the effect of so obstructing the roads that little or no information reached the city last night of the polling in Queen's. A telegram from Millsford at midnight says:—"Baird's majority in this parish is three. A heavy snowstorm prevails and teams are not expected throughout from the river parishes until morning."

More Fighting.

SUAKIM, Jan. 18. Osman Digna's force was attacked yesterday and dispersed by friendly tribes. The rebels afterwards rallied and compelled the friendly tribes to retreat. Col. Kitchener and Major McMurdo were wounded. Six friendly natives were killed and twenty wounded. The rebel loss was heavy.

Excitement in a Church.

PARIS, Jan. 18. A priest in Rouen cathedral personated God in a dialogue with the devil. The congregation became incensed, hissed, sang the Marseillaise and the Reveillon de la Revue. The police were called to quell the disorder and made several arrests, but failed to clear the Cathedral.

Another Grit Unseated.

ORILLA, ONT., Jan. 18. The trial of the petition against the election of H. H. Cook, M. P. for East Simcoe, commenced here yesterday before Judge Rose. To-day, after two charges had been ventilated, His Lordship gave judgment, enjoining Cook for corrupt practices by agent.

The Recent Blizzards.

ST. PAUL, MINN., Jan. 18. Evening papers figure out a list of 217 deaths by the blizzard. The remains of many reported missing may not be found until the snow thaws in the spring. The Pioneer Press special to-night gives the names of a number of additional victims.

A Desperate Fight.

LONDON, Jan. 18. A convoy of prisoners being taken from South Russia to Caucasus, mutinied and attacked the engine driver. A desperate fight ensued, in which eight soldiers, two gendarmes and 31 prisoners were killed. Twenty one prisoners escaped.

Not Yet Awarded.

OTTAWA, Jan. 18. The ocean mail contract has not yet been awarded, but the impression gains ground that arrangements will be made with the Allan and Dominion line for new contracts for an improved service.

Police News.

MONTREAL, Jan. 18. At a meeting to-day of the Civic Police Committee it was resolved, by a vote of four to three, to recommend to the Council the appointment of Captain Heigham, of Quebec, as Chief of Police.

Weather Bulletin.

TORONTO, Jan. 19—10 a.m. Strong northeast to southwest winds; clearing, cold weather.

"How does it feel to have a moustache on your lip, Henry?" she asked, when she perceived that her lover was cultivating that masculine adornment. "I can't say," he answered, "how does it feel to have one on yours?" "Well," she answered, as she struggled from his embrace and drew her breath. "I think it is something to which one could in time become reconciled."

Miscellaneous Notes.

A wooden-shoe factory at Freeport, Ill., turns out 150 pairs of shoes a week.

One of the greatest causes of trouble in this world is the habit people have of talking faster than they think.

The young man who would waste time kissing a girl's hand would eat the brown paper bag and leave the hot-house grapes for someone else.

One of the Parsian restaurant keepers hangs out a placard reading: "Kakes de buckwheat du Americane," and fancies he leads the procession.

The London Gazette announces the voluntary winding up of the Bass Brewing Co. It is intended to return the business into a limited liability concern.

John Houseman, of Boston, could have drawn his cheque for $375,000 five years ago. The other day he was run in as a vag. Whiskey has knocked him out.

Both branches of the legislature of Washington Territory at Olympia, have re-elected the women's suffrage law and exempted women from jury duty.

William Calley died suddenly in a Toronto church during service on Sunday night. He was a compositor in the Globe office for 25 years and was highly respected.

The St. James Gazette announces the resignation of Lord Charles Beresford, junior lord of the admiralty. It says other changes in the admiralty office are probable.

Among the applicants for admission to the Bar at Buffalo at a recent examination was a young man named Uliman, who is blind. He got his legal education by hiring a man to read law books to him.

The number of persons killed by wild animals in Hindostan in 1886 was 24,841, an increase of nearly 2,000 more than the figure for 1885. The snakes did nine-tenths of the work. Tigers slew 928, and wolves 222.

When Queen Victoria travels it means business. No fewer than forty-seven carriages and riding horses belonging to the Queen, were conveyed from Windsor to Osborne, as well as twenty carriages and vans.

The Great Eastern is costly even in abandonment. The monster ship, having been purchased for £16,500 to be broken up for old metal, it is found that the destructive operation will cost, in itself, at least £10,000.

Moses Hull, a negro who died at Washington, Penn., last week, was Stonewall Jackson's body-servant, and attended him through the War of the Rebellion. He was 90 years old, and left a family of fifteen children.

L. J. Curtiss, millionaire and manufacturer, Meriden, Conn., has left $750,000 by will to the Curtiss home for old women and orphans, which he built and maintained at his own expense. His estate is worth several millions.

A load of straw passing under an electric light wire in Marion, Ind., tore it loose and it dropped to the ground behind the load. A valuable span of horses came along soon afterward, both horses stepped on the wire and both fell dead.

A very singular action was brought in Australia against the proprietor of a Richmond newspaper. For some reason that does not appear, the editor did not esteem a certain lawyer very highly, and was accustomed to omit his name from the report of law trials in which he participated; therefore the lawyer brought suit for $1,000 damages. The Justice, in dismissing the case at the plaintiff's cost, remarked:—"I do not know of any law which compels a newspaper proprietor to publish reports of anything."
