Allen Dulles, head of Central Intelligence Agency, and Mrs. Eleanor Dulles, State Department official, leaves Walter Reed hospital after the death of their brother, John Foster Dulles. Members of the family were at the bedside when the former Secretary of State died in his sleep at 7:49 a.m., EDT. (AP Wirephoto)

Golfers Find Ideal Links in Prince Edward Island

Golf loving tourists visiting Prince Edward Island will find the Garden of the Gulf liberally sprinkled with courses on which they may enjoy their favorite pastime at a minimum of cost. Strategically located at three central points in the province are the 18-hole Belvedere Golf Club, situated just two miles from Charlottetown; Green Gables, also an 18-hole course located in the heart of the Island's beautiful National Park at Cavendish and the smaller nine-hole Summerside Golf and Country Club.

LOW GREEN FEES
The use of these scenic expanases of Island greenery is offered visitors at a per-round, daily or weekly cost which is about the best 18-hole bargain to be found in the Dominion. Two dollars will buy a day's use of any of the three courses. The weekly rate at Summerside is $6 while $7 is the charge at either Green Gables or Belvedere. Low monthly rates are also available. Seldom crowded, it is only during the evening hours and weekends that the courses can be termed busy. Even at those times the waiting list is a small one and in no way resembles the crowded conditions to which golfing visitors from larger centres in Canada and the United States have become accustomed. Weekday morning and afternoon golfers will find no waiting lists whatever.

TOURNEYS
Tourists with a competitive spirit who enjoy the rigors of tournament golf will find two large tourneys open to them this year. The Island open and amateur championships will be presented at the Belvedere Club in mid-August while the popular Green Gables open, in which hundreds of tourists have participated in past year, will be held over the long Labor Day weekend in September.

Green Gables and Belvedere, in addition to providing visiting golfers with the opportunity of playing on two of the finest and best kept courses in Canada, also have available expert instruction given by established professional golfers. Cecil "Bubby" Dowling, for years regarded as the top professional in the Maritimes, is fully qualified to provide instruction in any phase of the game requested by the visitor to Belvedere. George Andrew, also highly regarded throughout the seaside provinces, is the instructor at Green Gables. Dowling's claim to top ranking among Maritime professionals is not an empty one; he has tons of silver to prove it. Bubby, during the past three years, has won 12 of 15 tournaments in which he was eligible to enter. In 1956 he captured four of five; slipped a little the next year and had to settle for three of five, but in 1958 out-classed all others to make a clean sweep of five tournaments. He has his eye set on a repeat performance this year.

KINGSBORO
Mr. & Mrs. Bernard Massey, Bothwell attended the funeral of the late Mr. Angus Gallant, Rusticville whose death occurred recently at the Ch'town hospital. A delicious lobster supper was held recently in Kingsboro hall. The tables were attractively arranged and laden with every delicacy to tempt the appetite. Proceeds were in aid of the hall. Among those from this vicinity who were privileged to attend the opening services of the First Baptist Church in Charlottetown on May 17th were Mr. & Mrs. Kenneth MacGregor, Kingsboro, Mr. and Mrs. R. Kidson and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rose, Red Point. Mrs. Charles McMahon, teacher at South Lake School, has been quite ill at her home in Elm. Her pupils and friends wish her a speedy recovery.
