LAUNDRY'S Musical Journal for March has been received. It, as usual, contains some fine selections and a large stock of information for musicians.

GEORGE PEARDON appeared at the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this forenoon, charged with stealing a barrel of flour from Owen Connolly, Esq. He was remanded to jail for eight days.

CITIZENS of Upper Prince Street complain that the street lamps there are not lit with the same regularity as they are in other parts of the city. We hope the "grievance" will be remedied.

We understand that a Concert will be given by the B. C. Church Choir in the Y. M. C. A. Hall, on Thursday, the 23rd inst. An advertisement will appear in a few days.

MR. JAMES CORBY, formerly of the firm of H. Corby & Co., Belleville, Ont., and well known in P. E. Island, is now situated in Toronto. He is managing the business of Franklin Edson & Co., Commission Merchants of New York and Toronto. We wish him success.

While attending Church on last Sunday night, the residence of Mrs. Smith, of Georgetown, was entered by a thief who broke open a trunk and carried off two silver watches and $15 in cash. We are not aware that any measures have been taken to corner the burglar, whoever he may be, but we think it is time the people should take steps to discover the perpetrators of such barefaced robbery.—Adv.

"It is impossible," writes Mr. Lionel Playfair, "not to foresee that the United States will, in the end, be the great manufacturing country of the world; but they cannot assume this position under their present fiscal policy."

Protection in America, he holds, leaves England the market of the world. Why should Englishmen, then, want the United States to change its policy? the sceptical American may ask.

THERE was, a few days ago, considerable excitement among the members of the Butter and Cheese Exchange of New York, on account of an announcement that a consignment of European butter had arrived in that city. The butter came over on the Glasgow steamship Circe and was made in Holstein, Germany. The importation of butter is an experiment, and if it proves a success it will be a detriment to the American dairy interests.

REV. DR. O'BRIEN'S account on Tuesday evening last, in Ludlow Hall, Summerside, of what he saw at Pompeii and Baie, on the occasion of a visit which he made to those places, was instructive as it was entertaining. His audience was a very fair one for a winter night in this town, about two hundred and fifty in number, and composed of the leading and most intelligent people of the town and vicinity. The thanks of the assembly by unanimous vote to the learned doctor for his gratuitous effort in behalf of our Society of St. Vincent de Paul closed the entertainment.—Summerside Journal.

MR. JOHN H. YEO, of the Union Bank, leaves to-morrow for Halifax, where he has accepted a lucrative position in the Halifax Banking Company. As a token of their esteem and respect, the many friends of Mr. Yeo met at the Rankin House last evening, and entertained him by a grand complimentary dinner. The chair was taken at 9.30, and after justice had been done to the choice viands so bountifully and tastefully provided by the host of the Rankin, the literary part of the programme was commenced. The usual standard toasts were honored and afterwards an unusual number of volunteer toasts, interspersed with solos and choruses, were heartily drunk. The speeches in response to the different toasts were brief and witty, and generally closed with very complimentary allusions to the guest of the evening. At an early hour "Our Next Merry Meeting" was proposed, and the party dispersed after spending a most enjoyable evening. Mr. Yeo, on his departure for his new field of labor, carries with him the esteem and respect of a very large circle of friends. We wish him success.

STATISTICS of Lunatic Asylums show that nine-tenths of their patients are brought to their condition by abuses of the generative organs. A great Brain and Nerve food, known as Mack's Magnetic Medicine, is sold by our druggists, and comes highly recommended as an unfailing cure in all these diseases. Sold in Charlottetown by Apothecaries Hall Co. See the advertisement in another column. 2w—feb24

A GIRL at St. Joe, who went crazy when her lover died, was off to a dance on the fourth night after.

MR. ARTHUR EVANS, correspondent at Ragusa, of the Manchester Guardian, has been ordered to quit Austrian territory within three days.

A WORCESTER woman has given birth to five children in fourteen months—twins, supplemented by triplets—and all well and lively.

SWINBURNE, who used to be "a pallid and lank young man," now boasts a robust figure, wears an artistic beard, often walks twenty miles a day, and is in the gayest of spirits.

WHEN in Genoa lately Gambetta visited Verdi, who presented him to his wife. The interview between the great Italian and the ex-Premier was cordial and non-political.

GENERAL IGONATIEFF is not held by the Czar to be responsible for the Panislavist utterances of General Skelboff. He considers himself to be more firmly established in power than ever.

THOMAS HOOD, driving in the country one day, observed a notice beside a fence, "Beware the dog." There not being any signs of dog, Hood wrote on the board, "Ware be the dog!"

GENERAL GARIBOLDI'S health is so much better that he wishes to go to Palermo to attend the commemoration there of the Sicilian vespers, which will begin on the 31st of March and continue four days.

THE chief of the revolutionary section, called by the Nihilists "Le Parti Noir," has been arrested at Moscow. An official investigation is being made at St. Petersburg into the method by which the New York Herald and some other foreign papers were able to obtain reports of the Nihilist trials.

THE words which, by order of Queen Victoria, we presume, have been placed upon the monument, that illustrious lady has had erected to the late Lord Beaconsfield, indicate pretty clearly the tenor of a sovereign's thoughts concerning himself. "Kings love him that speaketh right." These are the words.

HESSY HELFMANN, who, because of being enfant, was respited from the execution of capital sentence for complicity in the assassination of the late Czar, and died last week in childbirth, was attended by the first accoucheur of St. Petersburg. The fatal result was due to structural malformation. Her child was sent to the founding hospital.

ONE year ago the late President Garfield took the oath of office. He was then full of life, hope and high resolve. He was the honored son of the American Republic. To-day he sleeps on a hillside of the great State of Ohio, and his grave to which the hand of an assassin consigned him. Who shall tell what the future has in store? Who was more honored and envied than James A. Garfield one year ago?

TRAVELLERS returned from China have told us from time to time that the queer people of that country imagine it to be the most exquisite torture they can inflict upon a man to keep him on his feet incessantly day and night, to make him walk, walk, walk forever, like our old friend the "Wandering Jew," and it is even reported that by this method they inflict upon criminals guilty of the most heinous offences a long drawn out and terribly cruel death penalty. Can such things be? If they are, it is evident at a glance what a singularly heathen Chinese the heathen Chinese must be.
