Mild Infection Keeps Truman From Desk
 WASHINGTON, July 16—(AP) A mild virus infection kept President Truman from his desk again Tuesday but the White House said he is improving. Secretary Joseph Short told reporters Truman's physician wants him to "take it easy for a couple more days." Truman stayed in the residential part of the White House, working on a backlog of bills passed in the closing days of congress.

Let's Talk It Over

by "A"
 We wonder if other movie goers get the same reaction from the pre-view as we do. Advertisements in newspapers, pronouncements of movie critics both make us want to see the pictures concerned, but pre-views almost never. When we see one of those short cinema advertisements, we are almost invariably a bit disappointed and get the feeling that the picture is not so good, but if we see the actual picture, we find it is much better than the pre-view seemed to indicate. We think it is because the big scenes of the picture are thrown on the screen before you in a disconnected fashion, and without any motivation. The dramatic sense is entirely lost, unless you consider sudden gun-pulling, or passionate embraces dramatic when you have not the slightest idea what led up to these soul-stirring moments, or why they took place. It is like cutting a masterpiece of painting into jigsaw pieces and handing you a half-dozen or so in the hope that it will make you want to see the complete work of art.

help a lot if they admonished these children not to break bottles on the streets. The neighbours would, of course, have to be very tactful, using honeyed words of advice. The parents might start out the same way, and talk of the horrors of the woodshed, or the secondary use of the razor strop only as a last resort. We can't understand why these youngsters want to smash bottles when they can get a cent, and sometimes more, by presenting them at the stores. There seems to be more Neros than Shylocks in the young bloods that run about our streets.

WESTERN GUARDIAN

—COME! Hear! Evangelist Kenneth Chapman, from Tennessee at Fundamental Baptist Church, Central Bedeque. Nightly 8 p.m.

Mrs. Arthur Gardiner of Lower Freetown left recently by plane for Golden, British Columbia, to be with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Many beautiful and useful gifts as well as sums of money were received. The gifts were opened by Kay Reeves and Phyllis Reeves, the verses of good wishes read by Mrs. Lorne Reeves, North

Return To Province After 45 Years

—When the family of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Gorman of Athabasca, Alta., came home for Father's Day they had a surprise for their parents when they presented them with plane tickets for their native Province, P.E.I. The delighted parents prepared for the trip and by a happy coincidence their 40th wedding anniversary was the day chosen for departure. They stopped for a few days in Winnipeg and Montreal and arrived in Moncton, N. B. on Friday, July 10th. Here they decided to continue their journey by train and boat and consider the crossing on the beautiful boat "Abegweit" one of the highlights of their trip.

They have now arrived in Kensington and are guests of Mr. Gorman's brother, Linus, whom he had not seen for forty-five years.

They plan also to visit Mrs. Gorman's former home in Alma, P.E.I. Mrs. Gorman was formerly Mary O'Brien and has two brothers residing in the old home. She visited the Island thirty-three years ago.

The family who gave their parents this wonderful gift consist of one daughter Evelyn, employed with the C.P.R. in Edmonton, and six sons, Rev. Bernard Gorman, pastor of Lloydminster, Alta., Dr. Albert Gerald with the Imperial Oil Co., Louis, a druggist and John and Tom at home.

The Gormans homesteaded land on the Athabasca River many years ago and relate many interesting tales of pioneering. Meeting old friends after their long absence is the realization of a long cherished dream and needless to say they are receiving a warm welcome from numerous relatives and friends.—K.
