IN MEMORIAM

ETHEL M. MORRIS The death of Miss Ethel M. Morris, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Morris, North Granville, took place at the Prince County Hospital, Summerside, on Tuesday morning, July 17th, after an illness of three weeks. She had been given every care and attention with the loving care of near relatives and friends could render, but the handicap of a serious heart condition, combined with an attack of pneumonia, made recovery impossible. Many friends and relatives in Prince Edward Island will regret the departure of one who was known universally for her kind and unassuming manner, and for her sweet and unselfish disposition. Many friends and relatives also, in New Brunswick, Saskatchewan, and Vermont, where she had lived at different times, especially in Toronto, where she had spent a large part of the past fourteen years—will be sorry to learn that precious ties have been broken, and that a very dear and faithful friend has gone. Rev. George Morris of Granville and Toronto, is the only surviving member of a family of four brothers and three sisters—three having passed within the last two years. Others left to mourn are nieces, sisters-in-law and cousins. The funeral was held from the home of Mrs. Ray Morris on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the service being conducted by the Rev. Blair McPhail, assisted by Rev. W. I. Green; and interment was in the North Granville Cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Walter and Wilfred Craig, C. D. Wright, Eldred Weeks, Emerson Matheson, and Ben Taylor.

Friends in Freetown heard with regret of the death of Mr. Wallace Drummond of Springside which occurred on July 2nd. Mr. Drummond was a former resident of Freetown, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Drummond and his early life was spent in this community. He had reached the age of eighty years. His wife predeceased him by twenty years. Surviving are three daughters, Elizabeth, Mrs. Fred Stetson, South Freetown; Margaret, Mrs. William Haslam of Springside; and Florrie at home. Mrs. Walter Stetson and Mrs. Charles Hansen of Freetown are sisters of the deceased. A brother, Mr. Samuel Drummond passed away a few years ago.

Dublin, Capital of the Republic of Ireland, got its name from the Irish words "dubh" and "linn," meaning "black pool."

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Baker and daughter Janet were visitors to Freetown on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barlow Bird.

Roger Burns and Ronald Lewis, Freetown, were among those attending boys camp which was held recently at Augustine Cove.

Mrs. Doris Toombs of Summerside has returned home after spending a very enjoyable week in Freetown, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Seales.

Mrs. Gladys Geldart of Moncton and Mrs. Gay Cameron of St. John, N.B. are visiting in Lower Freetown at the home of their uncle, Mr. Ray Lidstone and Mrs. Lidstone.

Fundamental Baptist Church Is Dedicated

An impressive service was held at Fundamental Baptist Church, Central Bedouque, recently held the official opening and dedication of the new church building which has been erected to the honour and glory of God. The service opened with the singing of "The Church's One Foundation", after which Rev. D. M. Fraser, pastor of the church, led in prayer. Professor J.W. Hill of Hampton, N.B., read the scriptures from Hebrews II. Mrs. Norman Lomas, Little Lepreau, N.B., sang very beautifully "Have Thine Own Way, Lord". The Misses Marjorie Day, Mary Smith of Saint John N.B., and Evangeline Mawhinney of Chance Harbor, N.B., then sang "God Leads Us Along". Rev. D. M. Fraser gave the charge to the church, in which he stressed the responsibility of each member to the church as a whole. Rev. M. V. Bolser of Clark's Harbor, N.S., preached the dedication sermon from Psalm 127:1. Mr. Bolser stressed that everything is dependent upon Him and His blessing. Except God give His benediction, man's works cannot have a prosperous issue. Temple and home are before us with the Lord as the Heavenly Builder of both. God-built churches are the nation's greatest asset. This is an appeal to every one of us. Following the service of dedication, the communion of the Lord's Supper was observed.
