Chinese Pledge Aid To Sukarno

CP from Reuters-AP
JAKARTA - Communist China's leaders have guaranteed Indonesia every kind of aid she needs to wrest West New Guinea from the Dutch, it was reported here Sunday.
Indonesia meanwhile moved toward general mobilization Sunday. The army announced that thousands of volunteers who responded to President Sukarno's call to oust the Netherlands from West New Guinea will be called up today to begin military training.

a weighted vote - France, West Germany and Italy four each; The Netherlands and Belgium, two each; and Luxembourg, one.
With this political development, no one country now can hinder the automatic advance of the Common Market or subject it to as heavy nationalist pressure as in the past.

West Point-N.B. Ferry Groups To Meet Wed.

Members of the West Point ferry committee will meet with a New Brunswick group Wednesday afternoon at Cape Town, P.E.I. and New Brunswick. No agenda has been set for the meeting but it is understood that one of the points for discussion would be where the ferry run would terminate in New Brunswick, Point du Chene or Buctouche.

The committee is composed of P.M. MacCaul, Ellerslie, chairman; Leith Matheson and Alton Rayner, O'Leary; W.G. Ellis, Springfield and Robert Grindlay, M.L.A., O'Leary.

Publisher Dies At Saint John

SAINT JOHN, N.B. (CP-T. F. Drumme, 76 for many years a well known newspaper publisher and a pioneer in radio and television in the Maritime provinces, died in hospital here Saturday.

He suffered a heart attack at his home early Friday after appearing in good health in recent months.

For almost 40 years Mr. Drumme guided the policies of the Saint John Telegraph-Journal and the Evening Times-Globe. In addition, until his retirement, he directed radio station CHSJ and television station CHSJ-TV.

He retired in 1960 as president and publisher of the newspapers, then serving for a year as chairman of the board. On Aug. 3, 1961, he ended his long association with the dailies and the radio and television stations.

Mr. Drumme is survived by his wife, the former Margaret Elizabeth Knight of Saint John; two daughters, Mrs. George T. Clark, Saint John, and Mrs. Douglas G. Bagg, Montreal, and one brother, J. Harold Drumme, Saint John.
