

Present Membership Of Senate Standing Committees

Students have been raising many complaints about the present actions of Senate, yet have remained quite unaware of where much of the legislation comes from. A large portion of the legislation brought forth to Senate, is as a result of reports from these committees as well as the Ad Hoc Senate committees, all of which dissolve when they finish their reports. Though the student representation may leave much to be desired (especially on tenure) they can still be used as effective means of change. If you have suggestions for needed change, express your ideas to these committees. If you are discontented with the present legislation coming before Senate, try and stop it before it gets there. Many of these seats will soon be vacated by the graduating seniors, and if you are interested in becoming a member of any of these committees, turn in an application to the nominating committee. There are channels through which you can voice your ideas, feel free to use them.
