Magistrate's Court Cases

"At Magistrate's Court at Georgetown yesterday before Supremary Magistrate Gilbert A. Leach, two parties from Charlottetown charged with theft of machine tools at Peakes Road were ordered to make restitution and their sentence was suspended for two years.

A party from Vernon River and a party from Amherst, N.S., charged with trucking merchandise from point to point within the province while their vehicle was registered in another province, were each fined $10.00 and costs.

A resident of Montague for an overweight truck was fined $10.00 and costs.

A party from Peter's Road charged with intoxication was fined $20.00 and costs.

A party from Heatherdale charged with driving while impaired had his case adjourned for one month.

A party from Union Road and one from Montague, charged with stealing wood, were sentenced to imprisonment for twenty days, and in addition to enter into recognizance to keep the peace for two years, and in default to a further term of six months.

The case of a resident of Gaspeville charged under the Excise Act with a possession of a quantity of wash suitable for the manufacture of spirits was heard. Evidence was presented by Cpl. Don Davis and Const. Ron Pettit of the Montague detachment R.C.M.P. Mr. S. Hessian represented the Crown and Mr. G. Foster represented the accused, who was found guilty and fined $100.00 and costs or three months in jail.

must be gravely concerned are refugees, human rights, and economic and technical assistance grants.

(3) Segregation is an offence before God.

(4) The church is conscious of her divisions and that these divisions are sins within her borders and are a grave hindrance to the mission cause throughout the world.

(5) The attendance at the Council of Church resolved to go behind the differences of sects, as a divided witness is a defective witness, and return to the Bible and its precepts, and accept Christ as the living word.

The single universal task of the church is Christian unity. The church is Christian unity. The church is based on:

(1) The Bible, and we must read the Bible and abide by its precepts.

(2) The Christian hope is not based on human experience but on God's promises in the scriptures and on the impact of Christ's active presence.

(3) Signs of God's work in the proclamation of the gospel, as it effects the lives of mankind.

Mrs. Woodside also spoke on world conditions as they exist today, with reference to the system of political and racial standards.

Touching on the evils existing within our midst, she said we are asked to help our government by encouraging them in their endeavours to curb the growing evil of gambling by bringing the forces of education and a dedicated public opinion to the support of a strict enforcement of the laws banning lotteries in Canada.

Youth Presentation At "Y"

The "Boy of the Month" project was inaugurated by the Centennial Y's Men at the Centennial dinner in the YMCA last evening when Roger Craig, (left) son of Mr. and Mrs. George Craig was called upon by committee chairman Jim MacLean to accept the acclaim. Roger was presented with prizes donated by the Home and Auto Supply Co., the Bike Shop, R. E. Mutch & Co., Ltd., and was given a year's membership card in the YMCA by the Centennial Y's Men's Club. Selection was on the basis of personal popularity, sportsmanship, qualities of a student, and a definite tendency to be gentlemanly and always willing to do a little more than may ordinarily be expected. Roger is a Queen's Scout, which means that he has attained the highest honours in Scouting.

Mr. Bell made some interesting comparisons in the education system of today and that of the year 1810. He stressed the advantages offered to the present child of school age to those of some years ago. Before closing his remarks, he told the trustees that if they would present their requirements to him, he would see that a suitable sign would be erected with the school name on it.

Mr. George Kison, also a member of the Second District of Queens spoke briefly and congratulated the trustees and ratepayers on the fine building they had erected. Mr. Edward MacPhail, of the Department of Education, read a letter from Mr. Wilson Ross, school inspector who was unavoidably unable to be present.

School teachers who spoke were Mrs. Harry Hyde (Miss Gertrude Carson), who taught at East Wiltshire over 50 years ago. She was followed by Mr. D. J. MacArthur who made some humorous comparisons of the times in which he first taught school with those of the present day.

Other former teachers who spoke briefly and expressed pleasure at being present were: Miss Mary MacKenzie, Miss Lois Mutch, Miss Marguerite Brehaut, Mrs. Grant Willis, Mrs. Stanley Willis, Mrs. Elmer Clow, Mrs. Ivan Kennedy, Mrs. George Dixon and Mr. Miller MacFadyen.

Mr. Lloyd MacKinnon who had the contract of erecting the school, spoke briefly as did Mr. Fred Jewell and Mr. Allison MacKinnon. Mr. Stanley Macinnis of the National Film Board entertained with some very enjoyable films. At the conclusion of the meeting the ladies of the district served refreshments.

Past Noble Grands Club Meeting

Mrs. Spencer Llewellyn, Montague, was hostess to the members of the Past Noble Grands Club at the regular meeting Monday evening. Mrs. Llewellyn presided during the business of the meeting. There were eleven members present and roll call was answered by a New Year's resolution. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Howard Vickerson, and were approved as read. Mrs. Vickerson reported on the success of the January supper held in the Oddfellows Hall.

An invitation to meet at the home of Mrs. J. M. Fraser for the February meeting was accepted and plans were made for a Valentine party. Mrs. Neil Hooley and Mrs. Llewellyn were appointed on the program committee and Miss Mary Hemphill, Mrs. Addie Duvar, Mrs. Carl Stewart and Mrs. Douglas MacLaren were appointed on the lunch committee.

A pleasant feature of the meeting was the presentation of past noble grand jewels to Miss Sue Hemphill, Mrs. D. M. MacDonald, Mrs. Douglas MacLaren, Miss Mary Hemphill and Mrs. Neil Hooley. The presentation was made by the president and each recipient spoke briefly expressing their appreciation for the honor bestowed upon them.

Following the business period a social hour was enjoyed. Miss Sue Hemphill was in charge of the program and a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. D. M. MacDonald and Mrs. E. H. Stewart.

milk for calves. The problem arose as to whether calves could be raised without the use of milk or with a limited amount. The Experimental Farm was asked to undertake this work.

During the discussions, it was revealed that 750,000,000 quarts of strawberries had been produced in the Province last year. It was pointed out that there was a great amount of room for expansion in this industry.

Unfavorable weather together with an early frost reduced the cucumber crop last season, but in spite of this there were one and a half million lbs. grown.

A test of 24,844 birds for pullorum showed that there were no reactors found among approved Island flocks.

The reports submitted will be reviewed by the incoming executive and will go forward to the various government departments where expedient.

NOW! IRON FOR SUCKLING PIGS THE EASY WAY

Nixon Laboratories have recently developed "Pellagrex Paint", an adhesive preparation containing iron, the cod liver oil vitamins "A" and "D", with vitamin "B" compound, B12 (the growth factor) folic acid and trace minerals, to prevent and help correct anemia and deficiency diseases in suckling pigs. Try this simple, easy to use preparation on your next litter. Just paint a 12 in. smear on the wall of the pen 4 inches from the floor, 2 or 3 times weekly.

A 4 oz. bottle ($1.25) is sufficient for the average litter during the entire suckling stage.
