

HER LIFE WAS SAVED

Sent Home From the Hospital to Die.

Yet Dodd's Kidney Pills Saved Elder

Rathburn—Her Case was One in a Thousand—Tortured by Diabetes

—A Remarkable Cure.

HAMPSTEAD, N. B., April 9.—If ever any remedy for human ills was put to a stringent test, in practical experience, that Medicine is Dodd's Kidney Pill, and the test was the case of little Edna Rathburn, of this city.

The case is still fresh in the memory of the inhabitants of York County, for it was the principal topic of discussion throughout the country, for weeks.

Six years ago, Edna, who was then only two years old, met with a terrible accident, two of her ribs being torn from her spine. The fractured ends refused to "knit." The child could not straighten her body, but was bent almost double, and could walk only with the greatest pain and difficulty.

Diabetes set in, and her sufferings were terrible to witness. Night and day she was in the most awful agony. The doctors could do nothing to relieve her, and advised that she be sent to the St. John Hospital. The surgeons there said the case was hopeless. They sent her home again, with the advice to give her the greatest care as that was all that could be done for her.

In despair, Mrs. Rathburn one day decided to try Dodd's Kidney Pills which would help the child. They did. Day by day she improved under their influence, till after a time came perfect health. Not a vestige of Diabetes was left.

Now, Mrs. Rathburn says: "Our child's life was saved solely by Dodd's Kidney Pills."

Sufferers from Diabetes who read of this case can rest assured that they will find a cure just as surely as did little Edna Rathburn, in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

A Cheerful Experience.
"I had a cheerful experience the other day," remarked a man who had spent several days at one of the springs for rheumatism.
"What was it?" asked the observer.
"I was carried into a depot near the springs and deposited on a seat near an old woman, who looked at me with a complacent smile and inquired, 'Been hurt?'"
"No," I replied.
"Rumattiz?"
"Yes."
"Water do you any good?"
"Not much."
"Well, lots of people come here for the water. The patient returns home, and the papers announce that Mr. So-and-so has returned from the springs much improved by the use of the water; but if you read the papers in a few days you will see that Mr. So-and-so has died and been buried.' The conversation was too cheerful to be continued."

A Burning Prayer.
The Cleveland Plain Dealer tells this story of the Virginia backwoods: A white minister after conducting services at a colored church asked an old deacon to lead in prayer. The dusky brother in his fervent appeal asked that a shower of heavenly grace be permitted to fall upon his white friend. He said:
"O Lor, give him de eye of de eagle dat he may spy out our sins afar off! Weld his han's to de gospel plow; de his tongue to de lines of truff and nail his ear to de gospel pot! An, O Lor, bow his haid way down—an behin' his knees, an his knees way down—ah in some lonesome dark an narrow valley, O Lor, whar much prayer is needed to be made—ah! Den 'bout him ovah wid de blessed life of de kerosene of salvation, an sot him on fish wid de match of faith made perfec'—amen!"
