

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

NOVEMBER 11, 1886.

The Markets.

It seems impossible to have, in this world, everything just as we would like to have it.

It may, perhaps, be some consolation to know that we are at least as well off in this latter respect as farmers in other parts of Canada and in the United States.

Horse Breeding

"Blood will tell." Everything depends upon breeding. Of the human species, we occasionally see a great and good man—a genius—who cannot be accounted for by breeding.

The great horse breeders of the world have fully recognized this important fundamental principle, and by acting in strict accordance with it, they have obtained wonderful results in trotting, running and draft horses.

"Chestnut colt, stripe in face, left front and hind ankles white, foaled February 23, 1885, by Nutwood, record 2:18 1/2; dam, Preccept, by Pancoast, record 2:21 1/2; dam, Artless (own sister to Orange Girl, record 2:30), by Rysdyk's Hambletonian; dam, Dolly Mills (dam of Orange Girl, record 2:20), Walkill Chief, sire of Great Eastern, record 2:18, and Dick Swiveller, record 2:18; by Seely's American Star (sire of Widow Macree, record 2:23, and dam of Aberdeen, sire of Hattie Woodward, record 2:15 1/2); dam, Jennie Lewis, by Young Messenger; dam, by Dinwiddie (a running horse).

The blood of five generations of the fastest trotters in the world flows in the veins of the sire, whose own record is, as shown above, 2:18 1/2; and of the dam the breeder says that she "cannot be beaten in either breeding or form."

"Another born trotter. I know of no more valuable colt; his blood lines could not possibly be excelled; and he is as good as they are. I predict great things of the Nutwood-Pancoast cross. He will make a sixteen-hand horse, with all of Nutwood's style and finish, with Pancoast's substance and strength."

This is but one instance among hundreds, showing the exceeding great care with which trotting horses are bred in order that they may make such records as 2:18 and 2:15.

But it may be asked, does it after all pay to take such very great care? The results produced at the Glenview Farm seem to prove pretty conclusively that it does pay.

At the regular meeting of the Three Rivers Dairymen's Association, on Tuesday, the 9th inst., it was decided, owing to the dissatisfaction arising from the result of the recent ploughing match, that a ploughing match take place in Mr. William McLaren's field, adjoining the Station Road, on Tuesday next, the 16th inst., the competitors to be in the field at 8 o'clock.

age, $1,060. Three broodmares by Harold brought $6,800; average, $2,266.66.

Mr. McFerran made it his rule to breed only from the best; and here are the results.

In our opinion, these results ought to convey lessons to our farmers. In would, no doubt, be folly for any one of them to go into horse breeding on a very large scale. It would also, no doubt be folly to breed only trotters in this Province.

Election Returns.

We greatly regret that the election returns indicate the defeat of Mr. Horne. At three o'clock the returns were as follows:—

Table with 3 columns: Wards, Horne, Dodd. Rows include Wards 1 and 2 East, Wards 3 and 4 East, Ward 5 Common and Royalty East, and 5 Common and Royalty West.

In Summerside at 3 o'clock the poll stood: Laird, 63, Burns, 25.

During election times a good deal is told about "Tory Bribery." In Chambly, a short time ago, one gentleman, "the ringleader of the 'Tory bribers,'" was actually arrested on a charge of bribery, and it was thought that a great scandal would be unearthed.

At the annual meeting of the Montreal Cotton Factory Company, it was reported that "the profits in the year ending August last were considerable and the factory is now earning upwards of $1500 per month, with large orders ahead at the advanced rate."

It appears that Mr. Speaker Carlisle—the great Free Trader of the United States—was not absolutely defeated in the recent elections; but his majority was reduced from about 6,000 to less than 500.

Address to Principal Gaul.

MR. REGINALD E. GAUL, late Principal of St. Patrick's School, left here this morning to assume charge of one of the advanced schools in the City of Halifax.

DEAR PRINCIPAL,—There is no sadder moment in the life of a school boy than when forced to part with a preceptor whose kindness and painstaking efforts for his advancement have been continually experienced.

Ploughing Match.

At the regular meeting of the Three Rivers Dairymen's Association, on Tuesday, the 9th inst., it was decided, owing to the dissatisfaction arising from the result of the recent ploughing match, that a ploughing match take place in Mr. William McLaren's field, adjoining the Station Road, on Tuesday next, the 16th inst., the competitors to be in the field at 8 o'clock.

The Summerside Town Council have decided to purchase a steam fire engine.

The Bulgarian Situation.

The Bulgarian situation steadily approaches its crisis. It has advanced a good stage upon the road since the meeting of the Great Sobranje, or Constituent Assembly, at Tirnova, where it is required by the constitution to be held in order to be further removed from foreign influence.

Zankoff, however, has shown himself irreconcilable, and still further impeached his patriotism by refusing to enter the government unless the regency resign—a course not to be thought of. And now the Bulgarians, finding no promise of a solution of their troubles at home, turn their eyes abroad, and one of the ministers has made an appeal, oddly enough, to Mr. Gladstone, through a London Times correspondent.

Nevertheless, it is upon Austrian help that the Bulgarians must depend. They seem to have gone too far already to be able to make their peace with Russia on any other terms than unconditional surrender.

The Toronto "Mail" on the Illicit Liquor Traffic.

The Toronto Mail says:—"We say nothing in jest of the inherent evils of that traffic—the of the ruined homes, the ruined bodies and the ruined souls directly chargeable to its account. What we do say is that, aside altogether from these terrible effects, for which the State, by licensing the cause, is responsible in no small measure, the mere fact that the business of whiskey-selling is strong enough and bold enough to resist the law of the land expressly framed and enacted by the will of the people for its suppression, and to resist it in the majority of places only too successful, is a matter of vital concern to the community."

A Prince Edward Island Romance.

There left this city on Tuesday last, for her home in Prince Edward Island, an old lady who has had an eventful and romantic career. Her maiden name was McKinnon, and when on a visit to Nova Scotia, one day about forty years ago, she met Sergeant Graham of the Royal Canadian Rifles, and subsequently married him.

A Prolonged Struggle.

Osman Digna, the Arab chief of upper Egypt, seems to be to the English government a source of anxiety of much the same character that some of the Indian chieftains used to be to the government of the United States.
