

Current Notes.

Man cannot live exclusively by intelligence and self-love. The word "impossible" is the mother-tongue of little souls.

Man cannot dream himself into a noble character; he must achieve by diligent effort.

Knowledge will always predominate over ignorance, as man governs the other animals.

What renders the vanity of others unbearable to us is the wound it inflicts on ours.

A despatch from Belfast, Ireland, says Father McGurk, a parish priest, was shot a few days ago. A later despatch says he was not shot as first reported, but accidentally thrown from a cart and severely injured.

An Englishman of distinction in Egypt writes home that the slave trade is so far from being extinguished in that country that slaves are being sold almost openly in Cairo, slaves of all conditions and all styles. A cheap one can be got for £2 10s.

A smooth sea never made a skilful mariner; neither do uninterrupted prosperity and success qualify for usefulness and happiness. The storms of adversity, like the storms of the ocean, arouse the faculties and excite the invention, prudence, skill, and fortitude of the voyagers.

The fishermen in Cape Breton have been enjoying for the past week all the pleasure and profit of an unusually large catch of mackerel. The fish, we learn, are both abundant and of excellent quality, and the result will be a handsome addition to the already satisfactory earnings of our hardy fishermen for this season.

An English paper tells how a wealthy north of England man bought, under sound advice, a little before the depression began, an estate in Kent for $115,000. He died a few months ago, leaving directions to sell it. It was offered for £40,000 in vain, and now, with a tenant and $3,000 worth of timber thrown in, for $45,000. This is within two hours of London. Can it be due to Free Trade?

The Great French Remedy, Dr. LeDuc's Periodical Pills.

Dr. LeDuc's Pills are the oldest, most generally used, and most reliable remedy for the cure of Suppressed Menstruation and other Uterine diseases and wherever they have been introduced, have driven every other remedy out of the market.

HEBRON, Yarmouth, Oct. 15th, 1882. To DRS. BENNET & LEWIS, 119 Hollis St., Halifax.

DEAR SIR.—I desire to express my feelings of profound gratitude to you who have helped me so much by the use and application of your wonderful medicine known as your Absorbent Pads and Plasters, &c. I was sick about two years and spent a large sum of money with physicians but received very little benefit until I tried your absorbent treatment. When I commenced using it this summer I could scarcely walk across the floor, I had such a mile at a time and attend to household duties much better than I could before, and feel only too glad to recommend this truly great treatment to any person or persons who may be afflicted as I was. You are at liberty to make any disposition of this note you may deem proper.
