DRINKING IN THE STATES.

It is a notable fact that the drinking of beer in the States has doubled since 1880 and that the drinking of distilled spirits has increased nearly 20 per cent. in the same period. The figures drawn from official sources are:—

CONSUMPTION PER CAPITA.

	Of distilled spirits. Gals.	Of wines. Gals.	Of malt liquors. Gals.
1880.....	1.27	.56	8.26
1885.....	1.26	.39	10.62
1880.....	1.40	.46	13.67
1892.....	1.50	.44	15.10
1893.....	1.51	.45	16.08

To these figures of the Government the American Grocer adds the consumption of tea and coffee reduced to gallons on the basis that one pound of roasted coffee makes two gallons of infusion, and one pound of tea eight gallons. The figures of tea and coffee thus computed show a consumption of 10.56 gallons of tea and 14 of coffee in 1893, a slight falling off from previous years. By adding alcoholic liquors together and non-alcoholic, it will be seen that in 1893 the people of the United States consumed 18.04 gallons of spirits, wine and beer per capita and 24.56 gallons of tea and coffee; the former showing a steady gain upon the latter averages for years. Workers against the liquor traffic and prohibitionists will not be encouraged by these figures.

THE CAMPAIGN IN ONTARIO.

Mr. Meredith is leading a vigorous campaign against the Mowat Ministry. He not only attacks the Government, he fights on a platform of his own. He advocates having a non-political Minister at the head of the educational system of Ontario, bows to the will of the majority in respect to prohibition, promises greater economy in the expenditure of public money, and declares that while licenses are permitted, they should be issued by commissioners appointed by the County Councils, the liquor traffic being entirely separated from governmental control.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

—Thousands visited Victoria Park yesterday. What a pity the shore approach to it isn't better?

—The news, supplied upon the indubitable authority of The Examiner's Ottawa correspondent, that the Governor-General and Lady Aberdeen will visit this Province between the 6th and 20th August next will be interesting in social circles.

—The Casimir-Perier Ministry in France has been defeated and another crisis precipitated. The Casimir-Perier Ministry succeeded that of M. Goblet on the 25th November last, so that it has had quite a long life, as the lives of French ministries go.

—Not much popular enthusiasm was evinced yesterday in respect to tree planting. It is believed that the cause of the apathy lies in the neglect by the city of the trees which have been planted. It is hoped that this cause of complaint will no longer exist.

The Halifax Herald chronicles the marriage of Mr. Hiram Wier, news editor of the Mail, and Miss Florrie Shatford, daughter of the Warden of Halifax County. We offer the cordial congratulations of The Examiner. Mr. F. D. Henderson was the "best man" of the occasion.

In Montreal, on Friday afternoon last, one of the most brilliant receptions of this season was given by Mrs. Andrew McPhail at the residence of her father, Mr. G. B. Burland, University Street. Dr. and Mrs. McPhail received the many guests, assisted by Lt.-Col. Burland. Mrs. McPhail wore an elegant gown of grey satin brocaded in pink and green, with trimmings of pink moire antique and lovely china lace, fastened at the throat by a diamond crescent. The house was most effectively decorated with roses, narcissi and palms, great bowls of flowers being placed in every available spot and filling the air with fragrance. At one end of the long drawing-room, Mr. Reichling, accompanied by an orchestra, rendered a charming programme of music during the afternoon. Mrs. Ami, Ottawa; Miss McGarry, Belfast; Mrs. Smith and Miss Dyer attended to the guests in the dining room, where delicious strawberries, ices and coffee were served at the pretty refreshment table, which was also covered with flowers, principally begonias and narcissi. Dr. and Mrs. McPhail have just returned to town from an extended wedding tour of five months, during which time they visited England and France, spending some months on the Riviera. They will be the guests of Mr. Burland until next fall.

OTTAWA CORRESPONDENCE.

The debate on the tariff has not yet been concluded, but probably will be before this reaches your readers. They have at last commenced to talk about prorogation, but no two persons are agreed on the date. There is a great deal of work yet to be done. Not a line of the estimates has yet been touched. There is the French Treaty, the Insolvency Bill,—there is everything but the tariff remaining. The Senate has adjourned till the 6th of June, and on Wednesday the House will adjourn till the following Monday. The Ontario members on both sides are anxious to get away for the Provincial elections—and how is all this going to be managed? If, as it is said is going so be the case, a bill be brought down to amend the boundaries of the Quebec constituencies, August will not see dissolution.

The Senate has been wonderfully excited of late about granting a divorce to one Dillon from his wife. Both the parties are Roman Catholics, and the Senators of that faith are opposing the granting of the divorce.

Mr. Perry was informed that the intentions of the Government as to the rebuilding of the West Point Pier, and the blasting and dredging of Cascumpec harbor would be made known, on the submission of the Supplementary Estimates.

Mr. Yeo was informed that a petition had been received asking for dredging at Higgins' shore, Prince County, and that it had been referred to the resident engineer to report, but no report had yet been received. However, there would be no dredge available for work there this season.

In moving for copies of correspondence, between the Minister of Railways and the Rev. A. E. Burke and others, regarding the removal of the flag station from Mill River to Howlan Road, also all documents and telegrams for and against the removal, Mr. Perry made a speech which occupies three columns of Hansard. It amounted to this: that the government had removed the Mill River Station because the Haywoods do business there, and they are Liberals. Mr. Perry scolded and threatened as usual, while nobody listened except the reporters.

Mr. Yeo, in seconding the motion, made a two-column speech, in which he repeated nearly all that Mr. Perry had said—a striking example of evil communication corrupting good manners. The motion carried, and when the papers come down this session or next, Mr. Perry will be as wise as he was before, for in his speech he professed to know everything that was in the documents he asked for and the names of all who had signed the petitions.

Sir John Thompson announced last week that the revision of the voters' lists would commence, as required by the law, on 1st June, and it is generally supposed that so soon as the lists are completed there will be a Dominion election—in January next or early in February. The present session is the fourth of this Parliament.

Dr. Weldon's bill to disfranchise voters who accept bribes again occupied the whole of Wednesday (private members' day). The discussion was largely confined to the French members, who spoke indifferently in both languages. I am not certain, but I don't think the bill is any further ahead than it was a fortnight ago. Before adjournment, Mr. Muloch complained of the way time had been wasted, and he put the blame on the French members. He made a great mistake, for immediately they were around him as though he had struck a hornets' nest. They are very sensitive about their priviliges, and now, since Mr. Mulock's mis-step, they insist on every motion or other document which is read by the Speaker or the clerk, being read in both languages.

On Thursday Mr. Bruneau formally of which he had given notice, to the effect that he was the contractor, or interested in the contract, for certain supplies to the Quebec Citadel and to the Marine Department. Mr. Bruneau proposed the reference of the charges to the Committee on Privileges and Elections. Sir John Thompson did not approve of the way the resolution was worded, and an amendment proposed by him was carried by 103 to 69, Messrs. McCarthy and O'Brien mustering up sufficient courage to vote with the Opposition.

The correspondent of the Toronto World has been studying the faces of some of the members of the Commons, and giving his impressions of their hirsute adornments. Regarding Mr. Yeo's whiskers, he says: "The most unique whisker in the House, indicates observation and a belief in the proverb that 'Silence is golden.' Might belong to a ship owner, a merchant or a farmer; satisfied to occupy an Opposition back bench."

At a political meeting at Pembroke last week, Mr. Laurier, in the course of his speech, spoke of "Senator Drummond, who gets a salary of $60,000 a year as manager of Redpath's Sugar Refinery." Senator Drummond immediately wrote Mr. Laurier, declaring the statement was false and requesting a retraction. In this morning's Citizen, Mr. Laurier withdraws it entirely.

Within a week or so, it is said, the bill to amend the Franchise Act will be introduced in Parliament. Rumor has it that besides providing amendments to conform with the boundaries established by the Redistribution Act of 1892, the bill will aim to reduce the cost of revising the lists. It is said the plan is to dispense with the printing of the preliminary list. Instead, the provincial voters' lists will be used, and the revising officer, having fixed dates in the several districts for the hearing of applications for the addition of names or the striking off of names which appear on those lists, will attend at the places named and have the necessary corrections made. This, it is estimated, will save about forty per cent., as only the lists as finally revised will be printed.

Highway robbery on the outskirts of the city is just now a nightly occurrence. There are, evidently, several gangs of thieves, and they are doing well. Their operations are conducted outside the city limits; so that the police cannot interfere, and the county, whose businesss it is to maintain the peace, makes no provision for doing so on account of the expense. The county of Carleton is one of the richest in Ontario, and, accordingly, one of the meanest and most niggardly.

Penitentiary scandals are looming up. Various returns have been made to Parliament as to investigations into charges against the management of these institutions and [illegible], and in British Columbia.

The Public Accounts Committee have been principally engaged enquiring into Mr. Dan O Connor's accounts of law expenses against the Government. The enquiry is not yet concluded. The sums of money paid to the firm of O'Connor & Hogg have been enormously large, yet the bold Dan cannot be said to have fattened on his Government pickings, for he is one of the leanest looking specimens to be seen on the streets of Ottawa—and his heart is as lean as his face.

The campaign for the Ontario elections has commenced, and the contest will be a vigorous one. Of course both sides profess to be confident, but I think the Conservative chances are better than they were in 1890. Still the Mowat administration has a great hold on the people. The Roman Catholics are almost solid in its support, and this is not surprising considering the attacks of Mr. Meredith and his followers on the separate school system. The Presbyterians also largely support Sir Oliver. Yet there can be but little doubt that Mowat's "wicked partners" have been doing strange things, which, if committed by Conservatives, would be called jobbery and corruption.

Her Excellency the Countess of Aberdeen leaves Ottawa on the 26th en route for England. She is to be away six weeks and will visit Ireland and Scotland. She returns in June accompanied by the Dowager Countess of Aberdeen. Their Excellencies have finally decided to take "Maplewood," in Halifax, for the summer, and they will probably take up their abode there about the beginning of July. Halifax is to be unusually gay this summer, and many people from other parts of Canada speak of making it their summer headquarters. Several American yachts, with fashionable parties from New York and Boston, are expected in Halifax early in July, and no end of exciting events are foretold.

Their Excellencies also intend to visit Charlottetown this summer, probably between the 6th and 20th of August. These dates I saw in Lord Aberdeen's own handwriting.

I do not know a great deal about the "combines" we read of so much. I understand they exist in almost every industry—in the kerosene business, for instance, which is controlled in the United States by the Standard Oil monopoly. I am told that the high price of Kerosene is largely owing to a combine; and there is good reason to believe that were it not for the Canadian oil, bad as it is, the Standard monopoly would control the Canadian trade, and that we would pay a much higher figure than we do now. It would seem that there is a combine in nearly everything, not the smallest of which is in burying the dead. This spring, in Ottawa, on a section of Bank Street about three or four blocks in length, no less than three new undertaking establishments have been opened, in addition to one previously there and another just around a corner. Deaths have not been numerous of late, yet the industry seems to flourish, and there is every reason why it should, judging from the statements recently made in the Senate by the Hon. Mr. Read, who spoke on good authority.

Saturday evening the Free Press contained the following:

"Mr. W. S. Stewart, of Charlottetown, is here pressing his claims to the seat on the bench of the Supreme Court of Prince Edward Island, made vacant by Judge Hensley's death."

Monday morning's Citizen contained the following:

"We are authorized to state that the paragraph in Saturday's Free Press to the effect that Mr. W. S. Stewart, of Charlottetown, is here pressing his claims to the vacancy on the Supreme Court bench of Prince Edward Island, is utterly untrue. Mr. Stewart is not making any claims to the position. He came to Montreal and Ottawa solely in the interests of his clients on the Island on legal matters.

From Boston.—The steamer Florida arrived from Boston this afternoon about three o'clock, with a general cargo and the following passengers: Chas McLeod, J E Brown and wife, D A McCloud and wife, Miss J J Robertson, Robert McKay, Chas Vandistina, W A Agett, Miss Minnie Spencer, Miss Maggie Driscoll, J McDonald, Mrs. J. J. Davies, Mrs. E. Burdett, Miss Jennie E. Rogerson, Miss Jessie Hudson, Miss M. McIntyre, Mrs. H. McLeod, Miss E. Giddings, Miss Kate McNain, Miss Maggie McVarish, Miss Maggie Clinton, Miss Isabella McDonald, Miss Lydia Dingwell.

Social.—On Wednesday evening last, a social was tendered in Oddfellows' Hall to the performers who so acceptably presented the opera "Olivette" on Natal day. A very enjoyable time was spent.

Temperance.—Orient Division meets tonight in Masonic Temple at 8 o'clock. The members are reminded of the postponed speech by the promoter of the Division.

Evidently a Hoax.—Yesterday, Miss May Stentiford picked up a bottle in the harbor inside of which was a note, as follows:—

Feb. 7, 1894.

We are foundering on a reef off Sable Island. Boat lost and no signs of rescue God help us. A Passenger.
