

person, and to report thereon; provided always that no such order shall be made until the expiration of one year next after the death of such deceased person, or pending any proceedings to administer the estate of such person; and that, in case at any time after making of such order, any decree or order for administering the estate of such deceased person shall be made by the said Court, it shall be lawful for the said Court by such decree or order to stay or suspend the proceedings under such order, of course, on such terms and conditions, if any, as to the said Court shall seem just.

XIX. It shall be lawful for any person who may have come in before the master, under any such order, and claimed to be a creditor upon the estate of the deceased person, or to have any demand upon such estate by reason of any liability, and whose debt or claim may not have been wholly allowed by the said master, to apply to the said Court by motion, of which notice shall be given within fourteen days after the filing of the master's report, to have such claim allowed by the Court, either wholly or partially; and it shall be lawful for the said executors or administrators, and for any creditor of the deceased person, who may be authorized by special leave of the said Court so to do, to apply to the said Court by motion, of which notice shall be given within the time aforesaid, to have any debt or claim, allowed by the said master, disallowed by the Court, either wholly or partially, and at the expiration of fourteen days after the filing of the said report the same shall, except as to any debt or claim as to which any such notice as aforesaid may have been given, be absolute as if the same had been confirmed by order of the Court.

XX. Upon the hearing of any such motion as aforesaid, the said Court may either dismiss such motion or may order the debt or claim, to which such motion relates, to be allowed or disallowed, as the case may be, and either wholly or partially, or may direct further enquiry or further proceedings, by way of action or otherwise, touching such debt or claim; and after such enquiry or proceedings may, upon further motion, deal with such debt or claim as to the said Court shall seem just; provided always that no new evidence shall be received by the said Court upon the hearing of any such motion without special leave of the said Court.

XXI. In case any debt or any certain liability shall have been allowed as aforesaid, and shall not within fourteen days after the report has become absolute as to such debt or liability, or after the same shall have been allowed by the said Court, be paid or provided for by appropriation to the satisfaction of the person who has established such liability, it shall be lawful for the said Court, by order to be made in case of any debt remaining due upon the application, by motion or petition of the person to whom the debt remains due, and on notice to the Executors or Administrators; and in case of any certain liability remaining unprovided for by appropriation upon the application by motion or petition of the person by whom such liability has been established, or of the Executors or Administrators, and on notice by the party applying to the other of them, to order payment of the debts, which may have been allowed and remain unpaid, and to provide for the certain liabilities which may have been allowed and remain unprovided for, in like manner as the same could or might have been paid or provided for in a suit for that purpose, instituted by bill, or to refer it to the master to take an account of the debts and certain liabilities, allowed as aforesaid, which remain unpaid or unprovided for, and also the usual accounts of the personal estate of the deceased person, with all usual and proper directions, and every such order shall have the same force and effect, and shall be prosecuted and carried on in like manner, as a decree in a Creditor's suit instituted by Bill.

XXII. In case any contingent liability, shall be allowed by the said report or by the said Court, it shall be lawful for the said Court, by order to be made upon the application of the Executors or Administrators, by motion or petition on notice to the person who may have established such contingent liabilities, to order such sum of money, part of the estate of the deceased person, as to the said Court shall seem just, to be set apart and appropriated for answering such contingent liabilities, and to give such directions as the said Court shall think fit, touching the payment of such sum of money into Court, and the investment thereof, and the payment, application or accumulation of the interest or dividends thereof, in the meantime, and until the same shall be required to answer such liability; and when such liability shall be ascertained or determined, to give such directions as to the payment of such sum out of Court as the
