

Holy Crap! Does Anybody K

This person couldn't find a parking spot, so he or she hastily parked while he or she ran some stupid errand.

In haste, the parker clearly blocked a fire hydrant. What if the grass were to catch on fire, asshole?

A hearty boot to the bumper gave me satisfaction, but also left my foot quite sore and broken.

Huzzah! Look at the dent I left in this poor schmuck's bumper! This by far makes up for my broken foot!

People don't believe that I lick the door handles of every bad parker's car I photograph. Believe now?

After marking the car as mine, I mounted it and it joined my harem of "Tom's Pleasure Parkers."
