

Disraelian Philosophy.

It is interesting to note in "Elymion" Lord Beaconsfield's fondness for antithesis and phrases. Some of these are worth repeating for their literary value, and because they give an interesting idea of the bent of Lord Beaconsfield's mind. We have been so much accustomed to these phrases in his public speeches that it is more profitable to study than to note them in the published page. "Custora in England is a power." "They have got a new name for this hybrid sentiment—they call it public opinion." "Zenobia never liked her male friends to marry;" "she liked flattery, and always said she did." "Young Mrs. Ferrars was an heiress, or the world thought so, which is nearly the same." "I love everything in England except its climate and perhaps its hotels." The government of the Duke of Wellington "was a dictatorship of patriotism." "A German's serenity was her delight, but a Russian Grand Duke was her embodiment of power and point and sound principles in their most authentic and orthodox forms." "Brougham is a man who would say anything, and of one thing you may be quite certain—that there is no subject which Lord Brougham knows thoroughly." "The first dinner-bell often brings things to a point." "She will be annoyed and she will hate me. I cannot help it; everybody is hated by somebody." "America will always be colonial," says Lord Beaconsfield, "and what is colonial necessarily lacks originality. A country that borrows its language, its laws, and its religion cannot have its inventive powers much developed." "The decrees of destiny are inexorable," "and the being whose career destiny directs is as a man travelling in a dark night who reaches his goal even without the aid of stars or moon." "I believe absence is often a great element of charm." "There is no sport now, and a man cannot always be reading French novels." "Men destined for the highest places should beware of badinage." "Extreme youth gives hope to a country." "Hope soon assumes the form of confidence." "The most powerful men are not public men. A public man is responsible, and a responsible man is a slave. It is private life that governs the world." "Do not at present be discontented that you are unknown. It is the first condition of real power." "Chivalry is the child of the Church." "All people of imagination, they say, are difficult to live with." "He found refuge in suicide, and men who do so want imagination." "I think the stronger we shall be in Ireland the weaker we shall be in England, and I doubt whether our cheap bread will be cheap enough." "If there be such a thing as destiny it will not submit to the mastery of man." "Morning is not romantic. Romance is the twilight's. But morn is bright and joyous, prompt with action and full of sanguine hope. Life sees no difficulties in the morning, at least none which we cannot conquer." "Taxes and tariffs—that is the future of England, and so far as I can see it may go on forever." "Charles Fox used to say, No Greek; as much Latin as you like; and never French under any circumstances." No English poet unless he completes the century. These were like some other good rules—the unwritten orders of the House of Commons." "As for that," said Waldershare, "sensible men are all of the same religion." "Pray, what's that?" inquire the prince; "sensible men never tell." "Great men should think of opportunity and not of time. Time is the excuse of feeble and puzzled spirits. They make time a sleeping partner of their lives to accomplish what ought to be achieved by their own will."

A Fact Worth Knowing.

Are you suffering with Consumption, Coughs, Severe Colds settled on the Breast, Pneumonia, or any disease of the Throat and Lungs? If so, go to your Druggist and get a bottle of Bosche's German Syrup. This medicine has lately been introduced from Germany, and is selling on its own merits. The people are going wild over its success, and Druggists all over our country are writing us of its wonderful cures among their customers. 2,400,000 samples have been given away free of charge. If you wish to try its superior virtue get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents. Large size bottle 75 cents. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it.

Remedy for Hard Times.

Stop spending so much on fine clothes, rich food and style. Buy good, healthy food, cheaper and better clothing; get more real and substantial things of life every way, and especially stop the foolish habit of running after expensive and quack doctors or using so much of the vile humbug medicine that does you only harm, and makes the proprietors rich, but put your trust in the greatest of all simple pure remedies, Hop Bitters that cures always at a trifling cost, and you will see better times and good health. Try it once. Read of it in another column.

CHRISTMAS! CHRISTMAS!—Have you seen the Christmas cards at Lewis? If not, you had better do so before purchasing elsewhere. All kinds and styles, including Prang's famous Prize Cards, and many other varieties, much cheaper than last year.

A Good Account.

"To sum it up, six long years of bed-ridden sickness and suffering, costing $200 per year, total $1,200—all which was stopped by three bottles of Hop Bitters taken by my wife, who has done her own household work for a year since, without the loss of a day, and I want everybody to know it for their benefit."

IMPORTANT SALE VALUABLE PROPERTY.

THE Directors of the CHARLOTTETOWN WOOLEN FACTORY COMPANY offer for Sale their Valuable Property situated on Spring Park. The property consists of One Acre of Land, with the Buildings thereon, Engine & Boiler, Shafting, Bolting and complete Heating apparatus throughout the whole building. The size of the Main Building is 80 x 50 feet, three stories high, besides basement, Engine House of Brick 50 x 30 feet together with a large Building attached and used by the Company as a Dyehouse. The Engine is 30 horse power and was built by Messrs. Montgomery & Sons, of Halifax, in 1871, and cost there about $2,600. The Engine and Boiler are in a complete state of repair and almost as good as new. There is about 60 feet of 3 inch Shafting together with the Hangers. The Main Driving Belt cost about $300 and is quite as good as new. The Steam Pipes for heating extends throughout the entire building and cost upwards of $1,000. There is a never failing Spring of water within a few feet of the factory, where a sufficient quantity can be obtained for any purpose required. For further particulars apply to either of the undersigned.

REPORT on the LORNE HIGHLAND WHISKY:

"We have visited the bottling stores of Greenlees Brothers, and have selected from the vats, samples of their Lorne Highland Whisky, and have subjected them to careful examination and analysis. The samples were very fragrant, mellow, and of pleasant flavor, and possessed all the characteristics of pure and well-matured Scotch Whisky of the first quality."
