

Queens District Convention At Protestant Orphanage

Central Queen's District Convention was held at the Protestant Orphanage recently. Mrs. M. MacEachern, District President, Mrs. Russell Matheson of Mermaid, was secretary.

Mrs. R. D. MacKinnon, of Mermaid, welcomed the delegates and visitors. This was reported by Mrs. Charles Jones.

The reports submitted by the various secretaries of the Branch Institutes showed that the women in this area are giving freely of their time and talents for home and country.

The report of the nominating committee revealed that Mr. Herbert was the entertaining institute for 1950.

Officers elected were: president, Mrs. Kenneth Jenkins, secretary - treasurer, Mrs. David Hutch and assistant supervisor, Miss Mountain.

In her remarks Mrs. Mountain said she feels it is very important for Institutes to work on community projects. In this way people learn to work together and to know each other better. She regretted that there are no armament clubs in this area and that should any other institutes decide to organize one, that help is available from the office.

Miss Mountain also told the delegates that many of the Institutes now planning their programmes a year in advance and find this arrangement beneficial.

The ladies of Mermaid, Pouring tea were Provincial President, Mrs. Philip Matheson and District President, Mrs. Bill MacEachern.

The guest speaker in the evening was Lincoln Dewar. In his remarks, Mr. Dewar stressed the importance of co-operation and organization, he felt that a great deal could be accomplished through the Federation of Agriculture and that women could be helpful in forming Farm Forum groups. He feels that such discussion can be gained from these discussion periods.

An important part of the evening meeting was the presentation of the district scholarship to Miss Marsha Walker, Southport for attaining the highest mark in Entrance examination.

Laymen's Sunday was observed at the three points on the Bedeque United Church Charge. The service at Albany at 9.30 a.m. was conducted by Mr. Edward Pearson. Mr. Donnie Bell read the scripture lesson and Mr. Ralph Callbeck and Mr. Sidney Murray were the speakers, the latter referred to the Stanhope conference, relating his experience of that gathering.

At Bedeque Church at 11 a.m. there was a large congregation. Mr. Billie Callbeck conducted the service. Mr. Sidney Murray read the scripture lesson and Mr. Harrison MacFarlane offered prayer. The speakers were: Mr. Billie Craig and Mr. W. J. Reid. Their theme was the Stanhope Conference. The former spoke briefly and the latter to greater length. Both addresses were much appreciated. The Men's choir, with Mrs. Walter Craig at the organ, had charge of the music. The Pastor, Rev. Mr. O'Brien pronounced the benediction.

The service at Borden at 7.30 p.m. was conducted by Mr. W. J. Reid. Mr. E. Ramsay read the scripture lesson and Mr. Harrison MacFarlane led in prayer. Mr. Billie Craig and Mr. George Read were the speakers. They were well received.

Mr. Harold Leard, who attended the Stanhope Conference, was guest speaker on the Tryon Charge on Sunday. Mr. Leard is a candidate for the Ministry of the United Church and is a 4th year student at P.W.C.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Myers, Carleton Siding, included Mr. and Mrs. Ramsay MacLeod, Victoria West, Prince County, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Craig, Victoria, and Mrs. E. E. Pearson, Saskatoon, Sask.

After spending their holidays at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Harvey Carleton Siding, L.A.C. Henderson Harvey and Mrs. Harvey and their son, called on October 21st, for Baden Germany, where Mr. Harvey will be stationed for the next four years.

BEDEQUE

Mr. and Mrs. Judson Blackmore, this village, were visitors to Charlottetown on October 12th. While there they spent some time at the PEI Hospital where Mrs. Blackmore's brother, Mr. Albert Martin is a patient, having been seriously injured in a car accident about three weeks ago. The Blackmores were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pearson of Chelton.

The October meeting of the Bedeque "Half Century" Club, was held at the home of Mrs. Pearl Affleck. Four members were named a committee to make plans for the anniversary celebration to be held early in November. Mrs. Vernon Craig and Mrs. Scott McMurdo provided the program. Next place of meeting will be at Mrs. Louis Muttitt's, the program to be supplied by Mrs. Orville Johnson and Mrs. Charles Henderson. Refreshments were served by the hostess.
