MARGATE W. M. S.

The monthly meeting of the Margate W. M. S. was held at the home of Mrs. Charles Dennis on Tuesday evening, May 6th, with 17 members present. Worship service was in charge of the president, Mrs. Wilbur Dennis, assisted by Mrs. Haslam, Mrs. John Johnson and Mrs. Preston Woodside.

Roll call was answered with a verse of Scripture containing the word "Yoke," and minutes of last meeting were read and treasurer's report given. Correspondence consisted of letters from the Supply Secretary regarding the Annual Report and from the Supply Department asking for used clothing and cards.

It was decided to send a parcel to the Port Worker at Halifax, also cards to Trinidad. Plans were made for a pantry sale in the near future, with proceeds going to the United Church Training School. Collection was taken and sick calls reported.

Programme was in charge of Mrs. R. Dennis, assisted by Selina Johnson, Mrs. C. Dennis, Mrs. R. Howard and Mrs. Andrew Johnson. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Don Baker when Mrs. Preston Woodside will take the Worship service and Mrs. F. Marks the Programme.

The meeting closed with a hymn and prayer by the President and lunch was served by Mrs. C. Dennis.

CAPE TRAVERSE W. M. S.

The regular monthly meeting of the Cape Traverse W. M. S. was held in the church on Thursday, May 7th. Quiet music preceded the opening of the meeting with the President, Miss Mary Muttart, in the chair.

The devotional period was led by the President, assisted by Mrs. Reeves and Mrs. McCaull and the business period followed the reading of the minutes of last meeting. Roll call was answered by nineteen members using a verse of scripture containing the word "Faith."

Forty letters and cards were sent to the sick and five hospital calls and twenty-three shut-in calls made by the members. A letter requesting clothing, Sunday School papers, school books and Christmas cards for overseas missions, was read by Mrs. Morley Muttart.

An interesting and instructive feature of the meeting was a drama sketch, "From Station to Station." The parts were taken by Miss Mary Muttart, Mrs. Haslam, Mrs. Craswell and Mrs. McCaull.

After the offering, the meeting closed by the singing of a consecration hymn.

WHIM ROAD W. M. S.

Mrs. Wm. D. Fraser entertained members of the Whim Road W. M. S. Auxiliary of Montague United Church on Wednesday night, April 3th, at her home in Albion. Attending were ten members and several visitors.

The meeting was opened by the president and proceeded in the usual manner with Mrs. Cecil Camp-

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. MILTON CARTER

The many relatives and friends were shocked to learn of the sudden passing of Mrs. Letha Carter at her home in Charlottetown on Tuesday, April 15.

Although not enjoying the best of health Mrs. Carter was able to be about her household duties as usual, until when stricken with a blood clot to the heart she passed away very suddenly.

In the past eight months she had been called upon to lay away her father and mother and also to undergo two operations which no doubt took their toll of her strength.

Born at Linkletter Road, Prince County, in 1898; daughter of the late Harry S. and Annie Harvey, she received her schooling in the home school and later attended Prince of Wales College. She later took a position in the office of Sinclair and Stewart Ltd., Summerside where she remained until her marriage in 1922 to Milton Carter.

Moving then to Charlottetown to be with her husband she spent thirty years here where she made many friends, for Letha was possessed of a happy disposition which endeared her to all who knew her. All through her life she has been a member of the Church of Christ and will long be remembered there as a faithful worker in its many activities.

She leaves to mourn the loss of a kind wife and loving mother, her husband and two sons: Allison with the R.C.A.F. at Clinton, Ont., who was home for the funeral, and Elyce at present employed with the Boyles Optical Co. at the Poly-clinic; also three grandchildren, Dwayne, Jerry and Ronnie whom she dearly loved. Her brother Lincoln Harvey of Hudson, N.Y., has the sympathy of a host of friends here for in the past eight months he has been called upon to return home to bid farewell to father, mother and sister.

The funeral took place on Friday, April 18. After a short family prayer service at the MacLean Funeral Home the remains were transferred to the Central Christian Church for service at two o'clock. The flowers were beautiful, given in memory by so many who loved her.

Services were conducted by her pastor assisted by Rev. H. E. D. Ashford of Trinity United Church. Rev. Mr. Dunbar spoke very feelingly of the good life of our loved one suggesting that she was great in misfortune, great in her community and great as a Christian.

Following roll call, which was answered by payment of monthly dues, donations of money were given by members who were unable to furnish articles for the pantry sale held by the W.M.S. in Montague the previous week.

Several pieces of finished hand-work were handed in consisting of two pairs of woollen mitts by Mrs. George Clarey and an apron with two matching potholders by Mrs. Cecil Campbell. Yarn for making further articles was distributed.

Mrs. George Clarey read an interesting account of the history of Montague United Church, which told of the hardship and struggle of the pioneer days when it required stamina and courage to build the groundwork for the church. The efforts of those who devoted their lives to the work of the church have not been forgotten and through the years to come others will continue onward. The reading was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Cecil Campbell and Mrs. Robert Campbell gave the members a kind invitation to hold the next meeting at their home in the near future.

During the social hour following, a dainty lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Fraser, and assisting in serving were Mrs. Beams Rourke, Mrs. Russell Hicken and Mrs. Stanley Hicken.

The National Anthem concluded the meeting.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. HAROLD HOLLIS

There was widespread sorrow over Kensington and surrounding districts on April 18, 1952 when it became known that Jennie Paynter, beloved wife of Harold Hollis, had passed away at the Civic Hospital, Ottawa.

Death is sad at all times and particularly so when a young wife and mother has been taken at the early age of 39 years, leaving a husband and two small children.

Jennie was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Paynter, Kensington. Possessed of a kind and loving disposition, she truly was loved by young and old. After receiving her high school education at Kensington, she attended P. W. College and after graduation devoted some years to the teaching profession in various schools of the Province and in every community in which she made her home, even for a brief period she left an ever widening circle of friends.

In 1940 she went to Ottawa and worked in the Civil Service. After her marriage to Harold Hollis they made their home in Ottawa and to them were born two children, Gary, age eight, and Diane, age five. Their home was one of true happiness, as there friends were sure of a welcome and Jennie was noted for her fine hospitality.

After sustaining the trials of protracted illness, her malady proved fatal. Although she was well looked after by all those who loved her, and had the best medical care, all proved to no avail. She met death in the same way she met everything that came up in life, with a brave and happy smile. Throughout her long illness she displayed a spirit of almost unbelievable heroism.

Always her thoughts were for her loved ones and never for herself. When her sister visited her at Christmas and her mother just a few weeks before her death, they never heard her complain, she was wanting them to enjoy themselves as if she was all right; she surely lived the life of a Christian and fought the good fight to the end.

During her sickness she was visited by her pastor, Rev. R. Pervis Smith who brought her words of comfort and consolation.

She leaves to mourn besides her grief-stricken parents, husband and children, two brothers and one sister, Eric at home, Verdun at Kensington, and Vivian in Cardiff, Sask., besides her grandmother, uncle's and aunts and cousins who mourn the loss of a loved one.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. MARGARET COLLIN

Although it's hard to say goodbye and parting brings us pain, We try not to think about our loss For our loved one's gain, For our past the gates of life and death The one we loved will be Happy in God's tender care For all eternity.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear Aunt, Mrs. Seymour Pollard, who passed away May 17, 1950. In silence she suffered, With patience she bore, Till God called her home To suffer no more. Lovingly remembered by Niece Margaret, and family

DOROTHY DIX SAYS—

ster it would be impossible. If the boy loves you, he'll give up drinking of his own accord. Wait until you're sure he's stopped the habit before thinking of wedding bells.

DEAR MISS DIX: We are two young girls who have been going steady with very nice boys for quite a few months. However, they never mention marriage, though they assure us they are in love. Do you think they will ever propose?

B. and N.

ANSWER: Let the poor boys take their time. You girls are altogether too matrimonially minded and the boys apparently just want good companions for the time being. There's plenty of time ahead, but if the boys realize that you're getting impatient, they're likely to run in the wrong direction.

Miss Nissen cannot reply personally to readers but will answer problems of general interest through this column.

Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved relatives and friends.

Her funeral took place from Hulse Playfair Chapel, Ottawa, on Monday afternoon, April 21, where a very impressive service was conducted by the Rev. R. Pervis-Smith.

Her remains were then accompanied to Kensington by her husband to the home of her parents where a short service was held at 1 o'clock, Thursday, April 24 conducted by the pastor, Rev. L. M. Murray, thence to the United Church, Kensington, where sorrowing friends filled the building to capacity.

A profusion of lovely floral tributes banked and surrounded the casket. That she had many friends was proven by the many letters and cards of sympathy which poured into the home.

The pallbearers were her childhood friends and neighbours, Walter, John and Keith Moase, Norman Mill, Roscoe Walker and James Clark.

Her remains were laid to rest in her beautiful oak casket in the family plot at the Kensington cemetery. To a Christian death is but the opening of a door. She is not dead, she is just gone on before.
