Horne-Wood Wedding

Gowned in the traditional white satin, Helen Shirley Wood, Regina, daughter of Mrs. Grace B. Wood, of Laurian and the late Lyle Frederick Wood, was united in marriage to the Rev. Sidney Gordon Horne, of Alask, Sask., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Gordon Horne of St. Catharines, Ont., on Sept. 28 in St. Chad's College Chapel, Regina. Rev. K. G. Docksey, of Broadview officiated and the Rev. J. H. H. Watts assisted.

Given in marriage by her brother, G. L. Wood, the bride wore a gown of white shimmer satin with a sweetheart neckline, fashioned with ivy-point sleeves. The full skirt fell gracefully into a short train.

She carried red roses entwined with native heather from Scotland, fastened on a white bibelot gift of the groom. Her embroidered net veil was held in place by a headress of seed pearls.

Her attendant was Miss Winnifred Isley, of Regina, and the groom's best man was the Rev. J. Alan Jackson of Acushnet.

Presiding at the feast was T. R. Whittier, of Saskatoon, and the soloists were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Farnsworth. Ushering the guests to their places were Robert Bees, Regina, and Rev. Denis W. Roberts Weyburn.

A reception was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Ewart and a wedding trip to the United States followed. Mr. and Mrs. Horne will reside in the vicarage in Alask, Sask.

The above wedding will be of interest to friends in Montague and vicinity. The bride's mother was the former Miss Grace Gordon, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. F. Gordon, Rosemeath.

Mrs. George Gordon, Montague, is Mrs. Horne's aunt.

Montague Wins League Opener From Geo'town

The Montague Meteors last night defeated the Georgetown Eagles 6-5 in a rugged hockey game at Georgetown. It was the first encounter of the King's County League schedule.

The second game will be at Montague tonight when the Meteors will be hosts to the Souris Tigers.

Annandale and Vicinity

Mrs. Katharine Campbell, Annandale, is a patient in the Montague Hospital.

Mrs. Emily Norton and son Jerry, were in Souris recently on business.

Messrs. Ronald and Bernie MacDonald were in Boston recently with a truck load of fish from Souris.

The many friends of Mr. Somerled MacDonald will be sorry to hear he has been ill with the measles.

The Misses Clare and Mary Rose MacDonald, Lusetta MacDonald and Lorraine Roach were recent visitors to Little Pond.

The Little Pond and Annandale Schools have both re-opened after the holidays and are progressing favorably under their respective teachers, Francis White and Eunice Croucher.

The death occurred in the Souris Hospital on Friday, December 28th, of Alex. A. MacDonald, in his seventy-third year. The remains were transferred to his home in Little Pond on Friday afternoon. The funeral, which was largely attended took place on Monday morning to St. Francis de Sales Church when solemn High Mass was celebrated. He leaves to mourn one son, Joseph R. at home. His wife predeceased him three years ago. The pallbearers were Messrs. Stillman and John William MacDonald, Leslie

Presbyterian W.M.S. Meeting At Montague

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Montague, was held at the home of Mrs. W. A. Johnstone, Tuesday evening, January 15th. The vice president, Miss Catherine Currie, presided.

The call to worship, Psalm 96, was read by Miss Currie, followed by prayer by Mrs. J. A. Currie. The psalm "Unto The Hills" was sung and the Scripture lesson, St. John 1: 1-16, was read in unison.

Roll call was responded to with a verse of Scripture containing the word "new". The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. A letter from Rev. James Dickson, missionary in Formosa, was read by Mrs. Byron Stewart. In the letter, Rev. Mr. Dickson told of the work he and Mrs. Dickson and other missionaries are doing among the people of Formosa, and nearby islands.

A large number of visits were reported and the secretary was asked to send cards to three members who are in hospital. Mrs. N. J. Nicholson, was appointed in charge of the mite boxes again this year.

The closing hymn was "What A Friend We Have In Jesus" and the Mizpah Benediction was repeated in unison.

SMETHWICK England — (CP) — This town is changing from gas to electricity for street lighting. It was here that William Murdoch, credited with originating gaslight, lived while devising his first gas-holder.

LONDON — (CP) — Excavators here found the remains of a Saxon Cross under the ruins of an ancient London Church. The cross is believed to date from the 10th or 11th century.

Card Of Thanks

I wish to take this opportunity to extend to Dr. Laidlaw, of Charlottetown, and Dr. Inman, of Montague, also the nurses and staff, of the P. E. Island Hospital, and the nurses and staff, of the King's County Memorial Hospital, my sincere thanks for their attention and kindness given me through my long illness. Also my many kind friends near and far who remembered me with letters and cards. Special mention of those who remembered me at Christmas, with presents and collections of money. Thank you all. Signed Mrs. Russell Hicken, Whim Road
