Hold Successful Variety Concert In Irishtown

On Friday evening, November 28th, a variety concert sponsored by Irishtown Women's Institute, in the Community Hall, was staged before a capacity audience...

Local talent too was well represented in Mr. and Mrs. Willard Brown and other instrumentalists who set the pace for a happy evening...

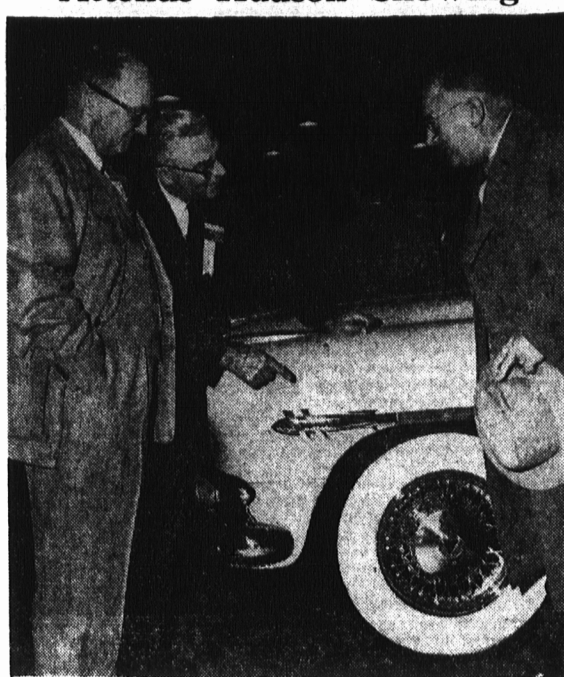

Two dialogues were also staged by local players and brought to light some considerable unsuspected comedian talent.

The dialogue, "Seeing Maw Off," starred Mrs. Clayton Stavert as "Maw," all dressed up to go to Shediac to see her sister...

Accompanists for the evening were Mr. Chaisson, Summerside, Miss Amy Brown, Mrs. George MacLeod and Mrs. Willard Brown.

Following is the program: Instrumental music; monologue Clair MacLeod; duet, Leita and Lois MacLeod; step dancing, Paul Galtant; duet, Charlie Cole and Alfred Brennan; dialogue, "Seeing Maw Off"; accordion solo, Paul Galtant; piano solo, Irwin Brown; instrumental music, sale of candy, monologue, Mrs. William J. Profit; solo, Irwin Brown; dialogue, "Waiting for the Doctor"; introductory song number, Roland Sheen and Ralph Emery; "The Preacher and the Bear" and other numbers by Ralph Emery; duet, Thelma and Clifford MacLeod; solo, Mary Campbell; song and dance numbers by Roland Sheen; novelty number, "Dancing Man"; piano solo, Beryl MacLeod; tap dancing, Roland Sheen; "The Queen."

Ramsay-Butland Wedding

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the United Church parsonage at Riverside, N. B., on November 28th at 7 p.m., when Beulah Mae, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burpee Butland of Alma, N. B., became the bride of William Clarence, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ramsay, Borden, P. E. I.

The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred MacKinley, sister and brother-in-law of the bride. The bride was attired in a street length gown of robin egg blue with black accessories...

The matron of honour wore a gown of rose and gray with black accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride when over one hundred guests were served a dainty buffet luncheon. The bride's table was draped with a lace cloth and was adorned with a beautiful three-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred MacKinley, Messrs. Eric and Donald Ramsay of Moncton, N.B.; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ramsay; Mr. and Mrs. Roland Ramsay and Miss Joyce MacDonald, Borden, P. E. I.; and Mr. and Mrs. Erland Ramsay, Conway, P. E. I.

The esteem in which the young couple is held was made manifest by the many beautiful gifts at the reception as well as at the shower held previous to the wedding.

The bride prior to her marriage was employed with H. P. Collins Drug Co., Moncton, N.B. The happy young couple will reside at 129 Dominion Street, Moncton, where the groom is employed with T. Eaton Co., Ltd.

Their many friends wish them many years of wedded bliss.

Couple Mark 25th Wedding Anniversary

On Friday evening, November 28th over one hundred relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Scott Cairns, Freetown, to celebrate with them their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

To the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Lois Moase the bride and groom of twenty-five years were led to the seat of honour by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Moase, New Annan, who had been guests of honour at a similar function a few nights previous. Mr. Darrell Picketts capably acted as chairman and after a few fitting and humorous remarks called on Mr. Frank Jardine, who read a well-worded and complimentary address to the honoured couple. Little Miss Marion Cairns then presented them with a beautiful bouquet of chrysanthemums and Mrs. Earl Pearson, sister of the groom, presented a lovely three-tier wedding cake made by Mrs. Bradford Yeo, aunt of the bride. Misses Georgina and Louise Cairns on behalf of the family presented their parents with a trilight lamp and Mrs. Wilbur Stavert on behalf of relatives and friends presented them with a well-filled purse. After Mr. and Mrs. Cairns had thanked all for their good wishes, kind words and tangible expressions of good will, the evening was pleasantly spent in conversation, games and music, a hearty sing-song being led by Miss Ruth Cairns at the piano. Ice cream and cake were served by the ladies and after an enjoyable evening all returned to their homes wishing Scott and Georgie best wishes for the future.
