New Invention.

I have invented and patented on July 24, 1897, a new straw elevator and shaker attached to any fan. It cleans all grain perfectly first cleaning, all grain is taken out of the straw. It has been well tested. It only takes about 1/2 of the power for to drive it of any other machine for that purpose in the market. I ask every intending purchaser to see one of the Week's shakers before purchasing any other. Any person infringing on the patent will be dealt with according to the law. I have appointed Mr. Walter Grant of Mill View, Lot 49, as manufacturing agent. He will receive orders; also myself

NEARING HIS END.

Was Mr. James Fraser, of Pictou, in Spite of all Medicines.

Until He Began to use Dodd's Kidney Pills—Then Kidney Disease Vanished—New Life Was Given Him—Read His Story.

Pictou, N. S., June 18.—A well known philanthropist, reading last week of the remarkable cure of Mr. James Fraser of Kidney Disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills, called on that gentleman to ascertain whether or not the report was correct.

"Yes," said Mr. Fraser to him, "Dodd's Kidney Pills put me on my feet from a bed of agony, gave me strength, health and vigor. Though I am sixty five, I feel better and stronger than I have felt for twenty years past. Dodd's Kidney Pills did it all. I tried a score of remedies before I began to use Dodd's Kidney Pills. They did me no good. When I began to use Dodd's I was taking no other medicine, nor have I taken any other since."

"You really have an honest faith in Dodd's Kidney Pills then?"

"I have indeed. I am proud to testify as a man, as an honest man, to the wonderful power of that remedy."

"I was a very sick man. Every remedy I had tried had failed to help me. My limbs and body were bloodless, and almost lifeless. The end of my life seemed very near. I passed cloths of blood regularly."

"But no sooner had I begun to use Dodd's Kidney Pills than I could feel the blood running through my system, new life and strength growing. The terrible palpitation of the heart stopped, the blood-cloths ceased coming and I knew I was being cured. I could talk for a year and not say enough for Dodd's Kidney Pills."

Dodd's Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists, at fifty cents a box, six boxes $2.50, or sent, on receipt of price, The Dodds Medicine Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Thin in flesh? Perhaps it's natural.

If perfectly well, this is probably the case.

But many are suffering from frequent colds, nervous debility, pallor, and a hundred aches and pains, simply because they are not fleshy enough.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites strengthens the digestion, gives new force to the nerves, and makes rich, red blood. It is a food in itself.

LOVE'S OWN.

Where Love built his humble nest
Sweet and thankful did I rest.
Sweeter rest there could not be,
Though the black night covered me,
And Love whispered, "Art thou blest?"
And I answered, "Love is best."

Where Love built his nest I knew
Thorns beneath the rose leaves grew.
Sweeter roses could not be,
Though the keen thorns crept to me.
And Love whispered, "Art thou blest?"
And I answered, "Love is best."

Where Love built his nest a blight
Blew from lands of Death and Night.
All that life had hold of sweet
Lay in ashes at Love's feet.
Yet I folded to his breast—
Weeping, I whispered, "Love is best."

So, with Love abiding still,
I am Love's, to do his will,
So his lips on mine are laid,
So his hand my couch hath made,
Still he whispers, "Art thou blest?"
Still I answer, "Love is best."

ARTIST AND CRITIC.

The Former Owes a Debt to the Latter, Although Seldom Acknowledged.

The debt which the artist owes the critic is not a small one, nor is it any the less actual for being commonly lost sight of. It is a current belief that the public is educated by the mere existence of the good work of art, and not by the elucidation of its commentators. Education by absorption is perhaps the most deep going and far-reaching form of education, but it has never been found practicable to rely upon it solely in other branches of mental acquisition. Then why believe that it can be relied upon solely for the proper development of the art sense? In effect it never is and cannot be. How many people care about poetry, let us say—feel it, are reached by it? And can one doubt that if a more loving and careful analysis of such of its products as appear today were undertaken by critics competent to convey to an indifferent public the perennial value of its ministrations, some of the unresponsiveness of the average reader would disappear, and some perception of the eternal significance of the poet's message would extend to the classes now given over to nothing more tonic in the way of reading than the daily newspaper? We say that one is born with the feeling for the enjoyment of poetry and another is not. Not so. At least, to say this is not to say all. The feeling for the highest aesthetic enjoyment and appreciation is cultivable, and cultivable as is any other faculty, by studying the material to be enjoyed, by reverently conning its constituent parts. In short, a vague, dreamy delight in the presence of some beautiful work of the artistic spirit is not enough. It is not enough for intelligence, it is not enough especially to produce the atmosphere of interest which stimulates the painter, the musician, the writer, to sustained effort and keeps him true to the pitch. We love best what we know best. To rest in loving sentimentality is often the merest sentimentality—a sentimentality toward which our Germanic forefathers had always a leaning, while it was especially antagonistic to the lucid Greek and Latin spirit.—"The Superfluous Critic," by Alino Gorren, in Century.

The Old Sailor's Yarn.

"Yes," said the old fellow who professed to have been a sailor and who hitched his unmentionables and rolled in his walk that he might look the part, "I was marooned once."

"It's a solemn fact, gents. For ten years I lived alone on a South sea island. I wasn't just deserted there, but the ship blew up and I was the only one what ever reached land ag'in. I floated on a spar to that there desolate island. None of you gents knows what it is to be lonely, to have no feller bein to jaw with, to see nuthin above but the heavens and nuthin 'round you but water. I would a died if I hadn't ketch-ed a sea gull and trained him so he would mind like a dog."

Here a sympathetic listener piped the old fellow up to grog, and he seemed to lose his bearings. "Ten times I writ home," he went on, "and half a dozen times I cabled."

"Why, you old fraud," interrupted a fresh water sailor who had been taking in the narration, "if you could send letters and cablegrams, you weren't marooned. What kind of a game is this you're givin us?"

But the old salt was equal to the occasion. Over he tumbled on the floor, he went through the outward symptoms of a fit, had to be supplied with another dose of restorative and when he came to, looked about him in a dazed way. "What hev I been sayin, gents?" he asked faintly. "Ever since I was marooned I have these here spells and go to un-windin novels. It was fur ten years, gents," and the last word floated back as he made a dash through the front door.—Detroit Free Press.

Paint for Everything

Almost everything about the house is improved by paint—if the right kind is used. There was a time when one kind of paint was made to serve every purpose.

THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS CO.

makes a special paint for each kind of work. A paint that will do its special work in the way it can best be done.

For floors a hard-drying and hard-wearing paint, to walk on. For chairs and furniture, a bright, glossy paint—that's hard to mar or scratch. For bath tubs, a hard, bright enamel—that hot or cold water does not affect. For buildings, a durable paint—to withstand the elements.

Paints for outside and paints for inside. We will send a free book describing our different kinds of paints and their different uses if you will send your address. The leading paint dealers keep these paints.
