Double Ring Ceremony Held At The Basilica

St. Dunstan's Basilica was the scene of a pretty June wedding on Saturday, June 15th, at 8:30 a.m., when Joan Frances, daughter of Mrs. and the late John Angus Weir, was united in marriage to Maurice Raymond, son of Mrs. and the late Maurice McCloskey.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Right Rev. Monsignor Patrick McMahon. The altar and sanctuary were beautifully decorated with red and white tulips, baskets of mixed flowers and red and white vigil lights.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother Jack, of Waterloo, Ont., who gave her in marriage. She was lovely in a white floor length gown of Swiss embroidered net over satin, which featured a bateau neckline, long sleeves and bouffant skirt. Her finger tip tulle illusion veil was gathered in an embroidered Juliet headdress. She carried a cascade bouquet of white mums.

Miss Paula Raymond, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Roma McCloskey, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. They were dressed identically in waltz length gowns of blue and yellow frosted nylon over taffeta with matching headdress and gloves. Both carried nosegays of mixed carnations.

The groom was attended by Mr. Lorne Casford and the ushers were Mr. Melvin MacDougall and Mr. William Murphy.

The mother of the bride chose for her daughter's wedding a two piece dress of Dior blue with matching accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The mother of the groom wore a dress of dust rose with pearl grey duster and matching accessories. Her corsage was pink carnations.

The organist was Mrs. Joseph Dougan. Mr. James Flannigan was the soloist, who sang "Ave Maria, Paris Angelicus" and other hymns during the ceremony.

A reception was held at Oakwood where a buffet luncheon was served to one hundred and forty five guests. Nicely decorated was the bride's table with a three tier wedding cake, early summer flowers and lighted candles. Friends of the bride assisted in serving.

After the reception the bride and groom left on a honeymoon trip to Ontario. For travelling the bride wore a silk floral design sheath dress with matching beige duster and black accessories. Her corsage was yellow baby mums. Mr. and Mrs. McCloskey will reside in Charlottetown, where the groom is an employee of the Royal Trust Company.

TRINITY W.M.S.

The June meeting of the afternoon auxiliary of the W.M.S. of Trinity United Church, Charlottetown, was held in the Social Hall on Thursday, 6th, with the president in the chair.

Mrs. Bennett and Mrs. Agar led in the devotions, opening with Hymn "Jesus Stand Among Us in Thy Risen Power" read in unison followed by "The Lord's Prayer." After the singing of Hymn "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" and the scripture lesson, Luke 18, Mrs. Bennett gave a fine meditation on Prayer. A solo "The Beautiful Garden of Prayer" by Mrs. L. Ward, accompanied by Mrs. K.A. Parker was a lovely and fitting conclusion of this period.

The reports of the secretaries were heard. Mrs. Gillespie, Committee Friendship told of the many visits to hospitals and homes by her committee.

Mrs. Bustin, Literature Secretary received a nice donation for the book shelf from the family of the late Mrs. R.E. Mutch. Mrs. Cudmore and Mrs. W.W. Mutch thanked the members for the generous supply of clothing etc., for the overseas box being packed.

Special mention was made of a parcel of lovely hand knitted goods from one of shut-in members, Mrs. J.H. Lockhart.

For the Missionary Study of the day, Miss Mabel Newsome gave a fine talk on W.M.S. Hospitals in Western Canada. She related many interesting incidents of the work being carried on. Dr. Pringle, an Island born clergyman, instituted the medical missions in the west while in the Yukon before the turn of the century.

The meeting closed with a Hymn and prayer. A social half hour and tea was much enjoyed.
