

MISCELLANEOUS.

It is expected that the recent Chilean success will compel the Peruvians to sue for peace.

The building of a number of first-class fortresses by France on the Belgian frontier is causing uneasiness in Brussels.

Japanese women, it is said, never see and don't know the use of pins. So we suppose a young man in Japan can go up Sunday night to see his sweetheart without being surprised into a yell as big as the side of a house, before he gets his unprotected arm half way around her belt.

Count de Karemara, a cousin of the French Consul at New Orleans, dropped $210 from his hat in a street car, at San Antonio, Texas. The circumstance seemed to a policeman so suspicious that he arrested the nobleman, who was in jail two days before he could prove who he was.

It is rumored here that the United States Government have in contemplation a new move in Fisheries question, and that several officials of the Fishery Department at Washington are now in Prince Edward Island collecting information relative to the question.—St. John Globe.

A very affectionate intercourse subsists between the Prince and Princess of Wales and the Carevitch and his wife. After a very pleasant sojourn in Denmark, the four went off for a few days' frolic in Paris before finally separating. The Waleses and Unser Fritz and his wife never go a pleasuring in that wise.

A Denver girl, for diversion, not only engaged herself to marry two men, but appointed the same day, hour and place for a secret wedding with each. The suitors were somewhat disconcerted by each other's presence, as well as by the girl's absence, but they finally came to an amicable understanding to despise her.

Capt. Edgell, of the Seventeenth Lancers, when shot at Ulundi, fell back into the arms of a comrade, a Dublin man, exclaiming as his last words, "See that the men spare the wounded. Spare the wounded." One of his soldiers rode in the charge with a wooden pipe in his mouth, and when shot down, asked with his latest breath, "Give the pipe to brother."

Of the hundreds and thousands that leave our Dominion for the Great Republic south of us, the vast majority make no fortune, and simply continue to battle hard for daily bread. They probably do no better and no worse than they would do had they remained at home. Some, by industry, enterprise and perseverance, rise to the crest of the wave. These would "rise" anywhere. There is plenty of room and scope in the Dominion for all the genius, capital, brain and muscle that can be set to work amongst us.

The Hudson Bay Company has just printed for distribution in Great Britain and Ireland and the older provinces of Canada and the United States an excellent little pamphlet, giving a fund of information respecting Manitoba. Accompanying the pamphlet is a well executed map of Manitoba showing all the townships surveyed by the Federal Government. An introduction states that the Hudson Bay Company owns about seven million acres of land in the great fertile belt, and now offers for sale about five hundred thousand acres in the townships already surveyed.

Canada is henceforth to be represented in London by Sir Alexander Galt as "Minister for Canada." This is a new departure, and a very wise one. We hope Sir Alexander will be long spared to fill the post with honor to himself and advantage to the country. He is a man of sound judgment, great prudence, vast information. He is patriotic and loyal. He likes public life and adorns it. He has been fully equal to the duties of any position he has been called upon to occupy. As a finance manager, as an observant agent, his presence in London will be of great value to the Dominion. We think Sir John's Government has acted very wisely in the selection he has made to fill a most unique and important post.—Halifax Reporter and Times.

In reply to a complimentary prophecy of the Viceroy of China, President Grant said:—"Your Excellency is very kind, but there could be no wish more distasteful to me than what you express. I have held the office of President as long as it has ever been held by any man. There are others who have risen to great distinction at home, and who have earned the honor, who are worthy, and to them it belongs—not to me. I have no claims to the office. It is a place distasteful to me, a place of hardship and responsibilities. When I was a younger man these hardships were severe and never agreeable. They would be worse now." The Viceroy expressing surprise, the General said that no one who knew what the Presidency was would wish to see his friend in that office. This interview has naturally been quoted by some of the United States papers as decisive of the General's reluctance to again enter the lists.

Under the head "Owner Wanted," the editor of the Delta (Pa.) Herald introduces his readers to his confidence and pockets in this wise. "Broke into the pocket of the editor of this paper, sometime during the week, a ten cent piece. Who it belongs to or where it came from, is a mystery to us, and we earnestly request the owner to come and take it away; we have been without money so long that its use is entirely forgotten. Upon one side there is a beautiful young lady with a handkerchief to her eyes weeping to think she has no mate, and a nightcap on a pole as a sign of distress.

Down in North Carolina a man has been sued for selling the false teeth of his first wife's estate to buy clothes for his second wedding.

We commend the following to our readers: A large proportion of the people in every community do absolutely nothing to support their local papers, and reap the benefit—in dollars and cents—every day, of the editor's work. A man will say, "advertising does no good in my business; it may be necessary for dry goods men, or milliners, but its no use in my business; I have to keep men on the road and get my customers by going after them;" and yet the fact is that the town in which he does business would be unknown, the railroad over which he ships his goods would be unbuilt, and he himself unheard of, were it not for the newspaper, which he says does him no good. The local newspapers is of benefit to every man in the community, just as much as the local government; and when a man refuses to contribute to the support of the paper, on the ground that it "does him no good," he might just as well refuse to pay his taxes for the support of the courts and the police force, on the ground that he "never brakes the law, and doesn't need any officers." There are men who imagine themselves to be very honest, and very pious, who are doing business in every community, and every day appropriating to their own use the fruits of other men's labors, by reaping the benefits of the newspapers without contributing a cent to its support.—Ex.
