

How it Feels to be Insane.

THE STRANGE EXPERIENCE OF A RECOVERED LUNATIC.

I was once insane and I often muse over my experience. There are, of course, many kinds of insanity. Some mental disorders take place so gradually that even the closest companions of the victim are at a loss to remember when the trouble began. It must have been this way in my case. One evening, after an oppressively warm day, a day when I experienced more fatigue from the heat than ever before or since, I sat on my porch fanning myself. "This arm that is now in motion," I mused, "must one of these days be dust. I wonder how long will the time be." Then I mused upon the evidence I had of immortality. I could do things that other people could not accomplish. I had gone through battle after battle, and though bullets sang and struck around me thick as hail, yet I remained uninjured. I had passed through epidemics of yellow fever. My idea gained strength as I mused, and I was convinced that I should live for ever. No, this cannot be, for death follows all men alike. Yes, I am to die like other men, and I believe that it is my duty to make the most of life; to make money, and enjoy myself, and to educate my children. I wanted to be rich, and I began to study over an imaginary list of enterprises. At last I hit upon radishes. People must have radishes. They should be in every store. They could be dried and sold in winter. I would plant fifty acres in radish seeds, and people all over the country would refer to me as the "radish king." I would form a radish syndicate, and buy up all the radishes, and travel around and be admired. I hastened to the house to tell my wife that she was soon to be a radish queen. At the breakfast table I said: "Julia, how would you like to be a radish queen?" "A what?" she exclaimed. I explained my plan of acquiring great wealth, and during the recital she acted so curiously that I was alarmed. I feared that she was losing her mind. Finally she seemed to understand. She agreed with me, but told me not to say anything more about it. After breakfast I saw her talking earnestly with her father, and I knew that she was explaining to the old gentleman how she intended to pay his debts when I became known as the radish king. The old man approached me, with much concern, and told me that I needed rest, and that I must not think of business. Pretty soon I went out to inspect my radish kingdom. Looking around, I saw the old man following me. From the field I went to the village. I approached a prominent citizen, who had always been my friend and told him how I intended to become rich. He seemed "grieved, and I saw at once that he was contemplating the same enterprise. It seemed mean that he should take advantage of me, and I told him so. He tried to explain, but he made me so mad that I would have struck him, if my father-in-law had not come up and separated us. I tried to calm myself, but could not. Those who had been my friends, proved to be my enemies, and I was determined to be avenged, but before I could execute my will I was seized by several men. My father-in-law did not attempt to rescue me, and I hated him. I was taken to jail. My wife came to see me, but she did not try to have me released. I demanded a trial, but no lawyer would defend me. Then I realized that the entire community was against me. I became so mad that my anger seemed to hang over me like a dark cloud. It pressed me to the floor and held me there. Men came after a long time, and took me away. I thought to the penitentiary. One day a cat came into my cell, and I tried to bite it. She made the hair fly, but I killed her. I don't know how long I remained here, but one morning the sun rose and shone in at me through the window. It seemed to be the first time that I had seen the great luminary for months. A mist cleared from before my eyes. My brain began to work, and suddenly I realized that I had been insane. I called the keeper, and when he saw me, he exclaimed "Thank God!" and grasped my hand. I was not long in putting on another suit of clothes, and turning my face toward home. A physician said that I was cured, and everybody seemed bright and happy at my recovery. I boarded a train, with a gentleman and went home. My wife fainted when she saw me and learned that I had recovered my mind. I asked for my little children, and two big boys and a young lady came forward and greeted me. I had been in the asylum twelve years.

THE GREAT FRENCH REMEDY, DR LE DUC'S PERIODICAL PILLS. For the cure of Leucorrhoea or White's Excessive or painful Menstruation, Green Stickness, Falling of the Womb, Catarrh of the Uterus or Vagina, Hysteria, pain in the Back, or Piles, or for the purpose of invigorating and giving tone to the Generative Organs, two pills should be taken twice daily, or in very enfeebled conditions, one pill three times a day. To effect cures in chronic cases it will be necessary to continue the use of the remedy for some months. A reasonable trial will create sufficient confidence in the remedy to insure its being taken until a permanent cure is effected. STARR KIDNEY PAD CO., 31 King Street, West Toronto, All Druggists.

MONTREAL, May 14, 1883. Dr. Bennet, Halifax. DEAR DOCTOR,—Just a few lines as promised by me. I am more than pleased with the "Liver Pad" I got from you when in Charlottetown, and can conscientiously say that it is the best thing I ever saw or heard of. It has done for me what all kinds of medicine and different physicians could not do for me; i. e., removed a very nasty bowel eruption, which had given me a great deal of annoyance for more than two years; and, more than that, I have not been troubled with a single headache since I have used it. Before wearing the Pad I was troubled with severe headaches continually; and that very objectionable feeling of sluggishness and dullness has entirely left me—in fact I am a new man, to what I was before wearing it. I am truly thankful to you for what you have done for me, and I hope that you may be long spared to the benefit of the public. Believe me, Yours sincerely, FRANK ELLIOTT. DR. BENNET'S PADS can be had at FRASER & REDDIN'S DRUG STORE. June 12.
